

select holiday gifts now—pay next year!

—make your selections NOW and start paying a little each month so you can comfortably keep paying a small amount each month into next year.
—gift purchases will be held for future delivery if desired.

YOU CAN HEAR THESE VICTOR RECORDS OF

SIR HARRY LAUDER

IN OUR NEWLY ENLARGED TALKING MACHINE DEPARTMENT—

—main floor

—mail orders for these records promptly filled; order by number.

- | | | |
|-----------|---|--------|
| No. 60002 | "Stop-Your Fieking, Jock"... | 75c |
| No. 60106 | "Wee Hoose 'Mang the Heather"... | 75c |
| No. 60138 | "British Bulldog's Watching at the Door"... | 75c |
| No. 60143 | "It's Nice to Get Up in the Mornin'"... | 75c |
| No. 70123 | "When I Was Twenty-One"... | $1.25 |
| No. 70119 | "There Is Somebody Waiting for Me"... | $1.25 |
| No. 70117 | "Laddies Who Fought and Won"... | $1.25 |
| No. 70118 | "I Love to Be a Sailor"... | $1.25 |
| No. 70115 | "My Bonny, Bonny Jean"... | $1.25 |
| No. 70114 | "Nanny"... | $1.25 |
| No. 70110 | "Message Boy"... | $1.25 |

—spend an hour in our new sound-proof VICTOR RECORD DEMONSTRATING ROOMS and hear the latest musical hits, vocal and instrumental, bands, etc.
—our "record experts" serve you promptly and courteously, giving their help whenever required in selecting VICTOR or COLUMBIA records.

SUPERIOR RECORD SERVICE

SPECIAL FEATURES OF OUR MAIN FLOOR TOY STORE

—THESE UNUSUAL FEATURES: Located on main floor—large, roomy—where shopping will be comfortable and easy—no elevators—no crowding—quick service—fair prices!—appealing showings—easily accessible—and "YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD!"

SEATTLE
TACOMA
Your Credit Is Good
L. Schaefer & Sons

Six Persons Are Burned in Home
PITTSBURGH, Dec. 2.—Six persons were burned to death when fire destroyed the home of Frank Swift, near here, early today.

Colds Cause Headaches and Pains
Feverish headaches and body pains caused from a cold are soon relieved by taking LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets. There is only one "Bromo Quinine." E. W. GROVES signature on the box. 20c.

The Heart of Rachael
by Kathleen Norris

Non-Essentials in Iowa Are Closed
DES MOINES, Iowa, Dec. 2.—Realization of what a fuel famine means, to industrial life today was beginning to dawn upon Iowans. Several of the largest cities in the state are operating on a six-hour business day; non-essential industries have closed, and train and street railway service has been cut to the minimum. No immediate relief is in sight, fuel administrators and coal operators agreed.

Coal Confiscation to Come in Omaha
OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 2.—Confiscation of coal is inevitable and will start in Omaha in five days, unless relief is in sight in the next 48 hours, H. L. Snyder, fuel administrator, announced today. This action will be taken to save lives, Snyder said.

Germans Backing Up Ship Refusal
BERLIN, Dec. 3.—Germany will not recede from her position refusing to accept the allied demand for surrender of docks and shipping to pay for the sinking of the Serran. Flow fleet, it was stated semi-officially today.

Warner's Safe Remedies
A Constant Boon to Invalids Since 1877
Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy.
Warner's Safe Diabetes Remedy.
Warner's Safe Rheumatic Remedy.
Warner's Safe Asthma Remedy.
Warner's Safe Nerve.
Warner's Safe Pills (Constipation and Biliousness)
The Reliable Family Medicines
Sold by leading druggists everywhere. Sample sent on receipt of ten cents.
WARNER'S SAFE REMEDIES CO., Dept. 561, Rochester, N. Y.

NO TRUE BILL IN SELVIN'S CASE

Four Editors of Record Indicted by Grand Jury

Bench warrants for the arrest of four Union Record editors and directors were served by Deputy United States Marshal Edwin E. Tobey, at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. The warrants were issued by Judge Jeremiah Netter, of the district court, as the result of a secret indictment which was returned by the grand jury Tuesday.

The four upon whom warrants were served Wednesday are E. E. Ault, editor-manager of the Union Record; George P. Listman and E. A. Rust, directors, and Anna Louise Strong, editorial writer.

The charges specified in the indictment are almost identical with those upon which Ault, Listman and Rust were arrested three weeks ago, namely, conspiracy to violate the espionage act.

Of the six no true bills brought in Tuesday, one of them exempted Edwin Selvin, publisher of the Business Chronicle, who was charged with sending matter thru the mails tending to incite to disorder and bloodshed. He was arrested following the publication of an article dealing with labor problems.

Indictments were returned against William Jaeger, of Georgetown, accused of using the mails to defraud, and Mrs. John C. Dyer, 3540 Admiral way, charged with having collected thru the mails a legacy bequeathed to another Mrs. John Dyer, who lives at 506 N. 64th st.

Posed as U. S. Sleuth?
C. E. Wheeler, accused of having misrepresented himself as a secret service official and, as such, having run up a taxicab bill of over $100, was indicted, with bail at $1000. Milton Pinto, alias Milton McGuire, is held in $2,000 bail, indicted for an alleged violation of the Mann act. A true bill was likewise returned against Conrad Bjorkman, charged with evading the selective service act. He is held on $1,000 bail.

Earl Grace, alias L. C. Lacey, was indicted for an alleged attempt to rob the postoffice substation at 701 34th ave., on September 13, of this year. He was held in $1,000 bail. True bills charging George D. Wilson and William F. Stocklin with sending obscene matter thru the mails also were returned.

Indictments charging violation of legislation governing the sale of narcotics were returned against five persons. Those named, with the bail fixed in each case, were as follows: John Swindell, $500; Sing Lee, $500; Mrs. Wong Dock, $500; Y. Wong, $500; and Ham Get alias Chin Sing, $500.

Liquor Indictments
Violations of the liquor laws were charged in indictments against the following, the amount of bail being $1,000, unless otherwise specified: Frank Lonnatt, of Port Angeles; Orren Johnston, George Chadwick, Bruno Grandinett, of Callum county; Mike Napple, Dan Bravin, H. A. Belack; Paul Ritchie and Christ Hartwig, $500 bail each; J. A. Turner and Charles Smith, of Whatcom county, accused of smuggling 181 sint bottles and three quart bottles of whiskey into this state from British Columbia; Carlo Sibesti, Nick Makris, W. W. Powers, $500 bail; Richard Birt, Altek Brada and F. Zulgan and F. Delapo, for whom bail was fixed at $500 each.

ZERO WEATHER; COAL Dwindles

Middle West Suffering From Lack of Fuel

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—(United Press)—With the mercury below zero, 75 per cent of the industrial plants in Chicago and other Midwestern cities face suspension before Saturday.

Stores operated on a six-hour basis in Kansas City, Des Moines, Indianapolis and other cities throughout the soft coal consuming region.

Hospitals subsisting on day by day fuel rations, with the isolation hospital at La Salle, Ill., were forced to close.

Railroads slash schedules, in hope of keeping most necessary trains in operation.

Governors of Illinois and Missouri confer with coal operators in hope of procuring strike settlement or coal supply.

Confiscation of coal resorted to by officials in many cities.

Kansas' army of volunteers, protected by armed guards, continues to dig coal.

Miners at Trenton, Mo., saying they are "Americans," reported returning to work to save their neighbors from suffering.

Permits issued in Milwaukee for week's supply of coal to consumers. Newspapers suspend editions in Omaha.

Five hundred Nebraska university students respond to call for volunteers to dig coal.

500 Volunteers to Mine Nebraska Coal

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 2.—Five hundred University of Nebraska volunteer coal miners are today waiting summons to dig coal in neighboring coal states. Governor McKelvie, who yesterday asked for volunteers and advised nearby state governors, offering the services of Nebraska citizens, has received answers commending the action from chief executives of Iowa, Wyoming and Missouri.

A soldier who lately returned from the other side wore a bronze medal which he won as the champion doughnut consumer of the A. E. F. His record was 249 crullers in 24 hours.

LUDEN'S
GIVE QUICK RELIEF
FOR COUGHS AND HEAD

Two Fathers Claim Returned Yank; "I'm Reddy," He Says; "No, Bromley"

Center—Sam Reddy (or is he Henry Bromley, Jr.); left, Jane Mary, 4, and Helen May, 8, Bromley's sisters, who say Sam is Henry; right, Henry Bromley, Sr., who first accepted Sam as his son; below, "Ted," Bromley's dog, who greeted Reddy joyously.

BY FREDERICK M. KERBY
N. E. A. Staff Correspondent

BETHEL, Conn., Dec. 2.—Is Sam Reddy really Henry Bromley, Jr.? Can two boys look so much alike that two families of relatives each claim the one who returned safe from the war?

Henry Bromley, Jr., was the only son of a lime-burner of Bethel. His mother was heartbroken when the draft law took him away. When the news came that Private Henry Bromley, Jr., had been killed in action, the mother swallowed poison and died.

Life has been pretty hard for Henry Bromley, Sr. There were two little girls left behind—Helen May, 8, and Jane Mary, 4. And there was "Ted"—young Henry Bromley's dog.

WORD RECEIVED THAT HENRY IS LIVING

Then, last spring, a youth came to Danbury, two miles from Bethel, where young Bromley's aunt, Annie, and her husband, Charles Bennett, lived.

He recognized him as Henry Bromley, Jr. He at first denied, then admitted he was Henry Bromley, and told them how he had deserted from the army in France, stealing a dead comrade's identification tag, and calling himself Sam Reddy.

"I went to Danbury to see him," Henry Bromley told me, as he paused in his work of putting the "head" in a barrel of lime. "He looked like my boy, but acted queerly. When he said he needed some money I gave it to him. But I am sure now that he isn't my boy. He's Sam Reddy."

The dog, "Ted," very savage except with members of the Bromley family, is kept chained in the yard. When young "Bromley" went to the Bromley home the dog jumped on him and licked his face in ecstasies.

Uncle Sam had been paying insurance to the father of Henry Bromley, and when the report reached the war risk bureau that he was alive, an investigation was begun.

REDDY'S FATHER SAYS IT'S HIS SON

When Reddy was confronted with the evidence of identification, including some scars and a photograph of Bromley, he admitted he was Bromley.

Brought back to Danbury, he was accosted on the streets as "Sam Reddy" by Cooke Mead of New Canaan, Conn., who declared he had known the man all his life. The prisoner declared he did not know Meade.

John Reddy, a farmer of Norwalk, was notified, and asserted the boy under arrest was his son. The young man has been bound over to the superior court for a hearing in December.

Efforts to make it appear that the Centralia massacre was provoked by an attack upon the I. W. W. hall by American Legion paraders have roused Grant Post, No. 17, American Legion, of Centralia, to send the two speakers on a tour of the country to tell the people in detail of the struggle Centralia made to free itself of the disloyal element and of the culmination in the premeditated and carefully planned slaughter of former soldiers on Armistice day.

The massing at the Arena Sunday night will be the fourth of the series, the speakers filling dates in Tacoma, Everett and Bellingham during the week. The Rev. Thompson is a pastor, veteran of the Civil war and former mayor of Centralia.

Several of those indicted with Senator Newberry, on charges of fraud and conspiracy, in connection with his nomination and election, were present at the meeting. Chief among these was Allan W. Tompkins, president of the board of commerce.

American banking interests in China have increased considerably, especially in Shanghai.

THE UNARMED EX-SERVICE MEN IMMEDIATELY overpowered those assassins within reach, jailed and safely guarded them.

"One murderer, armed with an automatic pistol, was pursued and overtaken by a recently returned overseas veteran. The assassin turned on him, shot and mortally wounded him, then fired three shots into his body as it lay prostrate on the ground. Other ex-service men overpowered the murderer of their comrade and delivered him to jail. That evening he was taken from jail and hanged by persons unknown."

"From evidence gathered, the following facts have been established:

"1. The plot to kill was laid two or three weeks before the tragedy.

"2. High powered arms and ammunition, including split soft-nosed bullets, were collected to an extent which made an arsenal of the I. W. W. headquarters.

"3. Conferences were held to lay plans, in the I. W. W. hall, for the murder.

"4. From the nature of the firing it is evident there was a preconcerted plan to kill ex-service men of U. S. army.

"5. Volleys of shots were fired by the I. W. W. into the burning columns and into the American Red Cross in the parade, bringing imminent danger to women and children and all the assembled people. More than 150 shots were fired into the crowd in reckless disregard of human life.

"6. Previous to the parade the revolutionists had been deliberately stationed in the I. W. W. headquarters, at the upper story windows across the street therefrom, in hiding along the street, and three on Seminary hill near by. All of said places commanded a sweep of the line of march. The assassins were armed and under agreement to fire on signal.

"This is laid bare a reasonable plot, conceived in hatred and revengefulness, which for diabolical plan and execution is without parallel in the history of the United States.

"When the enormity of this atrocious, dastardly and traitorous deed became known, all patriotic people in the twin cities of Centralia and Chehalis and vicinity arose as one man and joined in a determination to bring the guilty parties to prompt trial at the bar of justice and to cleanse the community down to the last element of disloyalty and sedition."

"Comrades of the American Legion joined with the officers of the law in hot pursuit. The county sheriff multiplied his deputies. So thoroughly and systematic was the work of rounding up the criminals that all but two of the principals are now believed to be in custody, 14 being charged with murder and more than 50 I. W. W. members a chief under arrest, charged with crime under the syndicalism act of the state of Washington."

Fordney's All Het Up Over Newberry

DETROIT, Dec. 2.—It will be a long time before they send Truman H. Newberry to jail, Congressman Joseph W. Fordney, chairman of the house ways and means committee, declared here last night before the Retail Merchants' bureau of the board of commerce.

Fordney said he was willing to "go to jail with Newberry."

Several of those indicted with Senator Newberry, on charges of fraud and conspiracy, in connection with his nomination and election, were present at the meeting. Chief among these was Allan W. Tompkins, president of the board of commerce.

American banking interests in China have increased considerably, especially in Shanghai.

THE UNARMED EX-SERVICE MEN IMMEDIATELY overpowered those assassins within reach, jailed and safely guarded them.

"One murderer, armed with an automatic pistol, was pursued and overtaken by a recently returned overseas veteran. The assassin turned on him, shot and mortally wounded him, then fired three shots into his body as it lay prostrate on the ground. Other ex-service men overpowered the murderer of their comrade and delivered him to jail. That evening he was taken from jail and hanged by persons unknown."

"From evidence gathered, the following facts have been established:

"1. The plot to kill was laid two or three weeks before the tragedy.

"2. High powered arms and ammunition, including split soft-nosed bullets, were collected to an extent which made an arsenal of the I. W. W. headquarters.

"3. Conferences were held to lay plans, in the I. W. W. hall, for the murder.

"4. From the nature of the firing it is evident there was a preconcerted plan to kill ex-service men of U. S. army.

Centralia City Officials Issue Official Statement on Massacre of Soldiers

CENTRALIA, Dec. 2.—The official statement of the city of Centralia with regard to the murder of four members of the American Legion, was made public today. The statement, which is in the form of an affidavit signed by Mayor T. C. Rogers and City Commissioners J. S. Saunders and W. W. Dickerson, throws the entire responsibility for the murders on members of the I. W. W.

"Armistice day, Tuesday, November 11, 1918, the people of Lewis county, Washington, assembled at Centralia to peacefully celebrate the first anniversary of the ending of the World war and to honor all service and ex-service men, all members of the American Legion, and especially members of the Centralia and Chehalis posts of the American Legion.

"The ex-service men were in uniform and marching in military formation. They were unarmed.

"The line of march led past the I. W. W. headquarters, located on the principal business street of Centralia. Here the work of the I. W. W. was being, and had been actively carried on in defiance of general, but unorganized, public protest.

"As the ex-service men in the parade arrived opposite the I. W. W. headquarters, they were fired upon, and three men there and there were fatally shot, others wounded. The attack was unprovoked and without justification or excuse.

"The unarmed ex-service men immediately overpowered those assassins within reach, jailed and safely guarded them.

"One murderer, armed with an automatic pistol, was pursued and overtaken by a recently returned overseas veteran. The assassin turned on him, shot and mortally wounded him, then fired three shots into his body as it lay prostrate on the ground. Other ex-service men overpowered the murderer of their comrade and delivered him to jail. That evening he was taken from jail and hanged by persons unknown."

"From evidence gathered, the following facts have been established:

"1. The plot to kill was laid two or three weeks before the tragedy.

"2. High powered arms and ammunition, including split soft-nosed bullets, were collected to an extent which made an arsenal of the I. W. W. headquarters.

"3. Conferences were held to lay plans, in the I. W. W. hall, for the murder.

"4. From the nature of the firing it is evident there was a preconcerted plan to kill ex-service men of U. S. army.

"5. Volleys of shots were fired by the I. W. W. into the burning columns and into the American Red Cross in the parade, bringing imminent danger to women and children and all the assembled people. More than 150 shots were fired into the crowd in reckless disregard of human life.

"6. Previous to the parade the revolutionists had been deliberately stationed in the I. W. W. headquarters, at the upper story windows across the street therefrom, in hiding along the street, and three on Seminary hill near by. All of said places commanded a sweep of the line of march. The assassins were armed and under agreement to fire on signal.

"This is laid bare a reasonable plot, conceived in hatred and revengefulness, which for diabolical plan and execution is without parallel in the history of the United States.

"When the enormity of this atrocious, dastardly and traitorous deed became known, all patriotic people in the twin cities of Centralia and Chehalis and vicinity arose as one man and joined in a determination to bring the guilty parties to prompt trial at the bar of justice and to cleanse the community down to the last element of disloyalty and sedition."

"Comrades of the American Legion joined with the officers of the law in hot pursuit. The county sheriff multiplied his deputies. So thoroughly and systematic was the work of rounding up the criminals that all but two of the principals are now believed to be in custody, 14 being charged with murder and more than 50 I. W. W. members a chief under arrest, charged with crime under the syndicalism act of the state of Washington."

Fordney's All Het Up Over Newberry

DETROIT, Dec. 2.—It will be a long time before they send Truman H. Newberry to jail, Congressman Joseph W. Fordney, chairman of the house ways and means committee, declared here last night before the Retail Merchants' bureau of the board of commerce.

Fordney said he was willing to "go to jail with Newberry."

Several of those indicted with Senator Newberry, on charges of fraud and conspiracy, in connection with his nomination and election, were present at the meeting. Chief among these was Allan W. Tompkins, president of the board of commerce.

American banking interests in China have increased considerably, especially in Shanghai.

THE UNARMED EX-SERVICE MEN IMMEDIATELY overpowered those assassins within reach, jailed and safely guarded them.

"One murderer, armed with an automatic pistol, was pursued and overtaken by a recently returned overseas veteran. The assassin turned on him, shot and mortally wounded him, then fired three shots into his body as it lay prostrate on the ground. Other ex-service men overpowered the murderer of their comrade and delivered him to jail. That evening he was taken from jail and hanged by persons unknown."

"From evidence gathered, the following facts have been established:

"1. The plot to kill was laid two or three weeks before the tragedy.

"2. High powered arms and ammunition, including split soft-nosed bullets, were collected to an extent which made an arsenal of the I. W. W. headquarters.

"3. Conferences were held to lay plans, in the I. W. W. hall, for the murder.

"4. From the nature of the firing it is evident there was a preconcerted plan to kill ex-service men of U. S. army.

"5. Volleys of shots were fired by the I. W. W. into the burning columns and into the American Red Cross in the parade, bringing imminent danger to women and children and all the assembled people. More than 150 shots were fired into the crowd in reckless disregard of human life.

"6. Previous to the parade the revolutionists had been deliberately stationed in the I. W. W. headquarters, at the upper story windows across the street therefrom, in hiding along the street, and three on Seminary hill near by. All of said places commanded a sweep of the line of march. The assassins were armed and under agreement to fire on signal.

"This is laid bare a reasonable plot, conceived in hatred and revengefulness, which for diabolical plan and execution is without parallel in the history of the United States.

"When the enormity of this atrocious, dastardly and traitorous deed became known, all patriotic people in the twin cities of Centralia and Chehalis and vicinity arose as one man and joined in a determination to bring the guilty parties to prompt trial at the bar of justice and to cleanse the community down to the last element of disloyalty and sedition."

"Comrades of the American Legion joined with the officers of the law in hot pursuit. The county sheriff multiplied his deputies. So thoroughly and systematic was the work of rounding up the criminals that all but two of the principals are now

he isn't my boy. He's Sam Reddy."

The dog, "Ted," very savage except with members of the Bromley family, is kept chained in the yard. When young "Bromley" went to the Bromley home the dog jumped on him and licked his face in ecstasies.

Uncle Sam had been paying insurance to the father of Henry Bromley, and when the report reached the war risk bureau that he was alive, an investigation was begun.

REDDY'S FATHER SAYS IT'S HIS SON

When Reddy was confronted with the evidence of identification, including some scars and a photograph of Bromley, he admitted he was Bromley.

Brought back to Danbury, he was accosted on the streets as "Sam Reddy" by Cooke Mead of New Canaan, Conn., who declared he had known the man all his life. The prisoner declared he did not know Meade.

John Reddy, a farmer of Norwalk, was notified, and asserted the boy under arrest was his son. The young man has been bound over to the superior court for a hearing in December.

Efforts to make it appear that the Centralia massacre was provoked by an attack upon the I. W. W. hall by American Legion paraders have roused Grant Post, No. 17, American Legion, of Centralia, to send the two speakers on a tour of the country to tell the people in detail of the struggle Centralia made to free itself of the disloyal element and of the culmination in the premeditated and carefully planned slaughter of former soldiers on Armistice day.

The massing at the Arena Sunday night will be the fourth of the series, the speakers filling dates in Tacoma, Everett and Bellingham during the week. The Rev. Thompson is a pastor, veteran of the Civil war and former mayor of Centralia.

Several of those indicted with Senator Newberry, on charges of fraud and conspiracy, in connection with his nomination and election, were present at the meeting. Chief among these was Allan W. Tompkins, president of the board of commerce.

American banking interests in China have increased considerably, especially in Shanghai.

THE UNARMED EX-SERVICE MEN IMMEDIATELY overpowered those assassins within reach, jailed and safely guarded them.

"One murderer, armed with an automatic pistol, was pursued and overtaken by a recently returned overseas veteran. The assassin turned on him, shot and mortally wounded him, then fired three shots into his body as it lay prostrate on the ground. Other ex-service men overpowered the murderer of their comrade and delivered him to jail. That evening he was taken from jail and hanged by persons unknown."

"From evidence gathered, the following facts have been established:

"1. The plot to kill was laid two or three weeks before the tragedy.

"2. High powered arms and ammunition, including split soft-nosed bullets, were collected to an extent which made an arsenal of the I. W. W. headquarters.

"3. Conferences were held to lay plans, in the I. W. W. hall, for the murder.

"4. From the nature of the firing it is evident there was a preconcerted plan to kill ex-service men of U. S. army.

"5. Volleys of shots were fired by the I. W. W. into the burning columns and into the American Red Cross in the parade, bringing imminent danger to women and children and all the assembled people. More than 150 shots were fired into the crowd in reckless disregard of human life.

"6. Previous to the parade the revolutionists had been deliberately stationed in the I. W. W. headquarters, at the upper story windows across the street therefrom, in hiding along the street, and three on Seminary hill near by. All of said places commanded a sweep of the line of march. The assassins were armed and under agreement to fire on signal.

"This is laid bare a reasonable plot, conceived in hatred and revengefulness, which for diabolical plan and execution is without parallel in the history of the United States.

"When the enormity of this atrocious, dastardly and traitorous deed became known, all patriotic people in the twin cities of Centralia and Chehalis and vicinity arose as one man and joined in a determination to bring the guilty parties to prompt trial at the bar of justice and to cleanse the community down to the last element of disloyalty and sedition."

"Comrades of the American Legion joined with the officers of the law in hot pursuit. The county sheriff multiplied his deputies. So thoroughly and systematic was the work of rounding up the criminals that all but two of the principals are now believed to be in custody, 14 being charged with murder and more than 50 I. W. W. members a chief under arrest, charged with crime under the