Chevy Chase School Needs.

Another situation has arisen at Chevy Chase concerning the new school for children in that town.

Mr. Andrew J. Cummings, a prominent resident, has taken the backers of the situation to task, asserting that not more than a dozen school children could be found who would have to attend such a school if erected.

Other citizens declare that at least 150 pupils would attend the school.

Only $2,500 was asked for the school, but it is now found that at least $4,500 will be necessary for the building and heating plant, and that probably $1,500 more would be needed for fixtures.

Dr. Conrad, Maj. Burke and Mr. Pimper have been appointed a committee to go before the county commissioners and ask for a larger appropriation than the $2,500 now available.

Baltimore and Ohio excursion Sundays, August 11 and 25, $1.00 to Harper's Ferry and Martinsburg and return; $1.35 to Berkeley Springs and return; $2.00 to Cumberland and return. Special train leaves Rockville at 8:51 A. M.

Republican Candidate For Congress Asked To Choose.

That the Republicans of this county are growing impatient over the delay of Chas. D. Wagaman, Republican candidate for Congress in this district, in declaring his position regarding presidential candidates, was made clear at a largely attended conference of prominent members of the party here last Saturday afternoon, when a committee was named to wait upon him and endeavor to obtain a clear-cut statement as to whether he favors the election of President Taft or Colonel Roosevelt and whether he indorses the platform of the Republican party or that promulgated by the Progressive party.

In the presidential primary campaign Mr. Wagaman supported Col. Roosevelt, and, in view of that, it was the feeling of a large majority of those at the conference that he should be asked to clearly define his attitude now, notwithstanding he was regularly nominated by the Republicans of the district.

A difference of opinion developed, however, as to the method of obtaining the information desired. Some thought a letter should be sent him, while others took the position that it would be better to have a committee wait upon him. It was at first decided to write the letter, and a committee, composed of Thomas Dawson, Edward W. Byrne and Wm. T. S. Curtis, was named for that duty. After the committee had submitted its report, however, it was decided to have a committee wait upon Mr. Wagaman, and J. Frank Trazzare, C. Scott Duvall, Edward W. Byrne, Thos. Dawson, Wm. T. S. Curtis, Chas. F. Kirk and D. J. Willard were named as members of that committee.

The conference was held under the joint auspices of the Montgomery County Taft Association and the State Central and County Committees for the county. Ormsby McCammon, president of the association, presided.

Democratic Club Organized At Gaithersburg.

On Tuesday night, the 6th instant, the Democrats of Gaithersburg district met at Masonic Hall, Gaithersburg, and organized a Wilson, Marshall, Lewis and Worthington Club for the purpose of promoting the interest and welfare of the Democratic party in the Gaithersburg district. The meeting was well attended by a number of enthusiastic Democrats who pledged their support and time to securing a large majority in the district for the Democratic candidates this fall.

The officers named were: R. W. Woodward, president; A. G. Carlisle, vice-president; Claude W. Owen, secretary; R. E. Kanode, treasurer. A committee on membership was headed by A. G. Carlisle, a committee on finance headed by Dr. I. G. Warfield, and a committee on registration headed by Wm. Wade.

The club proposes to hold a number of public demonstrations between this time and election day, at which many prominent and influential speakers will deliver addresses.

It is urgently hoped by the Democrats of the Gaithersburg Club that there will in the very near future be Democratic clubs organized in every district in the county and State, and that by a system of co-operation the sentiment of practically every voter will be learned and every available vote will be secured. All Democrats of Gaithersburg district and elsewhere are urged to attend the meetings of the club, which will be held every Tuesday night, at the Masonic Hall, at 7:30 o'clock.

CLAUDE W. OWEN,
Secretary.

Wilson And Victory.

The Wilson, Marshall, Lewis and Worthington Club of Rockville district has a membership of nearly one hundred and it is desired to enroll every voter of the district who is in favor of good and honest government for the benefit of the people.

There are no dues, but the treasurer of the club, Mr. Joseph Reading, will accept voluntary contributions for the good of the cause.

It looks as if the Democrats will win a sweeping victory this fall, but we do not wish to take any chances, and we want all Democrats at least, and as many Republicans as may see fit to do so, to share in the victory. There will be glory enough for all.

We have nominated for the presidency in Woodrow Wilson an able, intelligent and conscientious man who, so far as the human mind is capable of conceiving and carrying out its intentions, will act for the greatest good of all the people of the country, without special favors to, or discriminations against, any class or section of the nation. The other candidates on the ticket are also capable and well-tried men and will fill the positions for which they have been nominated with ability, integrity and discretion.

A meeting of the club will be held in the Court House, at Rockville, on Friday, the 23rd of August, at 8 o'clock, P. M. A full attendance of the voters of the district is desired for the discussion of important matters.

CLAIBORNE H. MANNAR, President.
J. ALBY HENDERSON, Secretary.

Organization Of A School Of Horticulture.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Maryland Agricultural College and Experiment Station a special school of horticulture was provided for.

This organization will co-ordinate the extension work in horticulture and increase the staff of instructors in this subject at the College. The plan will enable the work to be done by a higher class of men and make it more permanent, as their services will be more continuous. The teachers in the school of horticulture will be specialists in the different phases of horticulture, such as pomology, olericulture, floriculture and landscape gardening, and bush and vine fruits. They are to be men who are broadly trained and can act as general inspectors and demonstrators in the State Department. This will give them an opportunity to keep in touch with the broad field of horticulture in all parts of the State and enable them to teach their subjects with more direct application to the students' needs.

This organization will also enable the institution to develop each special phase of horticulture in the State and the people to avail of the help of specialists. The plan provides for an expansion of the demonstration work in the State.

Special Prizes.

A prize of $5 for the best plain cake and a prize of $5 for the best loaf of bread are offered by a member of the Montgomery County Agricultural Society to be awarded at the Fair this year.

Montgomery County Fair.

Hello, Bill, going to the Fair?
What Fair? When?

Why, the Rockville Fair. Two weeks from last Chewsday.

I don't know. I've been there once or twice an' it's the same old thing—skin games. I lost fo' dollars and thirty cents the last time I was there.

But, Bill, that is cut out now. There hasn't been a skin game since Bowie gave 'em a list of non-gambling games four years ago. They only had them before because they thought they was square and same old thing. Shucks! you don't know beans. The Fair this year will be no more like last year's than a politician's performance after election is like his promises before it.

How so?

Why they are going have a horse show that is a horse show to begin with, that will take most of three days. They've got a man named Blair Johnson, from down in Virginia, that knows all about horse shows to tell 'em how to get up one and he's going to bring about a hundred jumpers from down there to show us something worth looking at. I tell you it will be fine, and they are giving premiums worth getting, too—$25 for firsts, $10 for seconds and $3 for thirds. There will be some class to that part. You better put that nag of yours in the county classes. The bloods can't compete with you in that, and you can make something, I know.

Ain't going to have no races?

Oh, yes, some, and they are going to be good ones, too. Some trotting, some running. They have booked three for every day and expect to have them all done by five o'clock, so you can get a plate of ice-cream before you go home, and not be in the dark, either.

Sal said she might take some bread, but she don't want to pay any dollar to put it in.

Oh, you are a mile behind. She won't have to pay anything if she takes it in Monday. Of course, she won't get any free ticket, but she can get one that will let her in for half price if she goes every day. By the way, there's a special prize of $5, offered by a friend of the Society, for the best bread, and another $5 for the best cake, to be plain, ordinary (not complicated or expensive) products.

What else?

There's going to be a base ball match on Tuesday between the Highland team and some other one I don't know. I heard but I forgot. Any way, they can play ball, and you can bring the boys along to yell for Montgomery. And motorcycle races every day most. Those fellows that run you over in the ditch about four times a day when you travel those new State roads are getting ready for the races from the rate they travel. But if you want to see some move just watch them on the Fair Ground track. I don't know how much money the fair people spent on the track, but a contractor named Burrows had about ten or fifteen teams and twenty-five or thirty men at work on it last week and it ought to be in good shape. And as for whitewash. Man, they are whitewashing with an engine. Stable room was short last year and they are going to put up about forty new stalls this year and I guess that won't be quite enough.

How do you know so much about it?

I have a friend on the inside that tips me off to everything but a free ticket. They are scarce as "Bull Meese" in this county. You see the Fair has been drowned a couple of times lately and they came up like little men with the cash, but it was all borrowed and they owe about a couple of thousand, so they have to get real money at the gates to help pay out. And if you bring all your family and get every body you know to come along, too, they will square up this year. Don't mind the rain, I've got so used to it this summer. I don't feel right unless it is raining. But I have been investigating our Rockville weather prophet and find his prophecy of a rainy week for the Fair meant last year.

When you get home, Bill, commence to get something ready to take to the Fair. Everybody's doing it.

Bread Tickets At Reisinger's.

When we inaugurated the sale of bread tickets, our reasons were twofold. Our main object was to reduce to a minimum the amount of book-keeping, errors and disputes, especially those on the bread-route, which were a source of constant irritation to both sides, for at the reduced price at which we sold them we reckoned that practically everyone would be glad to buy them. Owing to the price at which we sold them, we intended them to be sold strictly for cash. Heretofore we have given 22 tickets for $1. In the future we will give 21 tickets for $1. Those paying cash will receive 5 extra tickets for each $5 worth of checks they hand in. See our adv. "How to Cut the Cost of Living."

Fruit Packing Demonstrations.

The school of horticulture of the Maryland Agricultural College and Experiment Station desires to conduct as many demonstrations in packing apples this fall as possible. Any grower desiring to have a demonstration in his orchard, where an expert will be present to show how apples should be packed in boxes and barrels, should communicate with the school of horticulture, College Park, Md.

There is no doubt that our growers should give more attention to the proper packing of this fruit. It is in the packing that the western growers have been ahead of us, for we grow finer fruit, but many orchardists have not yet learned how to pack and market it properly.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

BY CLYDE H. TAVENNER.

Washington, D. C., August 11, 1912.

"George W. Perkins in the chair."

This quotation does not refer to Mr. Perkins in the chair at the Chicago Moosefelt convention. On the contrary, it is taken from the minutes of a meeting of the finance committee of the steel trust, held April 5th, 1904, at which it was decided that subsidiary companies of the steel trust manufacturing half finished articles should not sell the same to competitors of the trust. (See page 108 Stanley steel report.)

This is only one of the revelations contained in the report of the Stanley steel trust investigating committee, one of the most able and remarkable documents of the decade.

The Stanley report, in addition to indicting former President Roosevelt for permitting the steel trust to obtain absolute domination of the steel industry, reveals beyond successful contradiction how George W. Perkins came into possession of the colossal fortune that he is now spending to finance the Roosevelt third-term movement.

SOURCES OF PERKINS' MILLIONS.

Here is the story of Perkins' wealth: To start with, Mr. Perkins made some of his millions by capitalizing thin blue air into millions of dollars of real money.

He made more millions by getting a monopoly of wire nail manufacturing plants and forcing the American farmers to pay $3.50 per keg for nails for which they formerly paid from $1.25 to $1.50 per keg. (See page 8 Stanley report.)

Then he made more by forcing the thousands of workers in the blast furnaces of his steel mills to work 12 hours a day, seven days a week, and 365 days a year.

As a postscript to the above information the following history of Mr. Perkins may be of interest to many at this time: Mr. Perkins was the chief aid and co-schemer of J. Pierpont Morgon while the latter was in the years between 1900 and 1911 throttling business in every direction. It was Perkins who, as Morgan's business partner, showed Morgan how to dominate the boards of directors of all the great railroads, banks and trust companies, express, telephone and telepraph companies, steamboat lines, insurance companies, and all the great industrial trusts, to the end that Morgan now has a strangle hold on a corporate wealth of more than $35,000,000,000, an amount equal to one-third of the wealth of the nation.

CAMPAIGN BOOK OUT SOON.

The Democratic National Campaign Book for 1912 will be ready for distribution about August 20. Advance proofs already out show it to be probably the best publication of its kind ever issued. It will be a complete handbook on the tariff and every issue that will figure prominently in the approaching campaign. Every Democratic worker in the United States ought to have this book. The price is to remain at 25 cents, the amount asked for the campaign books of previous years. Orders should be sent to Hon. James T. Lloyd, Chairman, National Democratic Committee, Washington, D. C. This being a presidential campaign year, it is anticipated there will be an unusually heavy demand for the books, and it will therefore be well for those desiring copies to write Mr. Lloyd immediately.

"It is my hope," said Mr. Lloyd today, "that prominent Democrats will get together in the towns and cities and club their orders, so that we may ship as many as possible to one address, and thus conduct the mailing department at the least possible expense."

As Mr. Lloyd's committee is endeavoring to make its campaign wholly on funds subscribed by the people, every endeavor is being made to keep down expenses. The Congressional Committee is short of funds, and contributions, however small, will be useful. Checks should be sent to Chairman Lloyd.

STANLEY DESERVES CREDIT.

Congressman A. O. Stanley, of Kentucky, chairman of the committee of the House of Representatives which investigated the steel trust, deserves great credit for the systematic and highly capable manner in which he conducted the inquiry.

The cost of the entire investigation was but $39,000. This amount is in striking contrast to the cost of some of the investigations under the Republicans, notably that of the immigration question at an expense to the people of more than $600,000.

Mr. Stanley saw to it that there were no personal excursions or junkets with the money appropriated for the probe of the steel corporation. He was willing to spend money for all necessary expenses, but was careful that not a dollar was squandered.

It will be recalled that the investigators of the immigration question spent their appropriations like water, touring Europe in the most luxurious style, visiting at government expense all the prominent places of interest, even journeying to the pyramids in Egypt.

Mr. Stanley's name will go down in history along with the masterful report of his committee, and he and the members of the committee who co-operated with him deserve well in the estimation of the American people for work well done.

PER CAPITA WEALTH.

Sixty years ago the per capita wealth in the United States was $307; today it is about $1,300, an increase of about 300 per cent. While the per capita wealth has greatly increased, the distribution of it has been most unequal. Sixty years ago we had few millionaires and few paupers; today we have too many of both, and both are still on the increases.

Decide Yourself.

The opportunity is here, backed by Rockville testimony.

Don't take our word for it.
Don't depend on a stranger's statement.
Read Rockville endorsement.
Read the statement of Rockville citizen.
And decide for yourself.
Here is one case of it:

Bernard Poss, blacksmith, Rockville, Md., says: "I have found Doan's Kidney Pills to be a remedy of great merit. My kidneys bothered me for at least a year and my back was weak. Whenever I caught cold it settled on my kidneys and caused pains through my loins. The kidney secretions also bothered me and were unnatural. Nothing did me any good until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Vinson's Drug Store. Since taking them I have been free from kidney complaint. I publicly recommended this remedy in 1907 and to-day I gladly confirm that statement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Wilt Of Tomatoes.

In addition to the common leaf blight of tomatoes, which is quite common this year, there are two forms of tomato wilt: One caused by bacteria and showing in wilted tips; the other, caused by a soil fungus, in which the leaves turn yellow from the bottom up. These are also prevalent in parts of Maryland this year.

The chief hope in controlling the latter two diseases is in finding resistant varieties, and in order to do this specialists of the State Horticultural Department wish to examine as many diseased fields as possible. It will be greatly appreciated if anyone knowing the fields in which a number of plants have died from one of these diseases, will notify the Maryland Agricultural College and Experiment Station, at College Park, Md.

Hay fever and asthma make August a month of intense suffering to many people. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound gives prompt ease and relief, and is soothing and healing to the inflamed membranes. Wm. M. Merethew, N. Searsport, Me., says: "A few doses of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound relieved me of a severe attack of asthma and less than a bottle caused a complete cure. Refuse substitutes. Sold by all druggists.

Reisinger's Bread Not Fit To Eat!

We've often heard that expression. Perhaps you've often made it also. If so, we'll not quarrel about it, for it doubtless has been true more than once, as the same can be said truthfully of any one's at times. On the other hand, we've often been told that ours was the best bread in town. We're not going to quarrel about that nor get puffed up either, for regardless of any one's verdict we're constantly trying to improve all of our products. The most common complaint we hear is that it is not baked, or "soaked" enough, as it is generally expressed. While not denying that this may be true at times, we can say with all honesty that this is generally only seemingly so, the reason for it being in the fact that our bread is delivered to you fresh from the oven, so that it is often warm yet when it reaches you, especially on the down street route. If you will lay our bread aside from 6 to 24 hours before cutting it, until it attains the age of the bread sent here from the city, we guarantee that you will rarely, if ever, have cause for complaint on that score, and if you do send us the remains of the loaf, we will cheerfully give you another in its stead, or if you are a regular customer your word is sufficient without producing the loaf. Try it. It is impossible for a real fresh loaf of bread to eat and cut as the same loaf will hours later.

The next complaint that we hear is that our bread is not as white as that which comes from the city, with the insinuation that, perhaps, we do not use as good a flour as city bakers do. We are guilty of the first charge, as to the color of our bread, as we are not equipped with the necessary machinery to whiten the dough, for the effect is mechanical, I must add in defense of the trade and of my competitors, contrary to the popular belief that it is produced by alum or other chemicals. The reason why I do not install this machinery is because a great many of our customers buy bread in large quantities and this mechanically-rolled white bread will not keep as moist nor taste as well as ours, if properly made, after being a day old. As to the quality of our flour, we use the very best we can buy, the two main brands we've used for years, being Gold Medal and Pillsbury's Best. If we can find any better, we'll use that.

While we are not given to boasting, claiming perfection or superiority over all others, yet we do honestly claim that our bread and other products are as clean, pure, and wholesome as it is possible to make them, and that we do not fear any comparison or competition in these respects from any source whatever, for it is our constant aim to make the name Reisinger synonymous with purity, wholesomeness and honest dealing. Read our ad, "How to Cut the Cost of Living."

How To Cut The Cost Of Living!

There are several ways of doing this. One of the most pleasant and non-sacrificial being that of dealing at Reisinger's, where you are given a check for the amount of each cash purchase, for which we will cheerfully give you 25c worth of merchandise for every $5 worth. On all cash wholesale purchases we will allow half this amount. These checks are cheerfully given, and you will do us a favor by taking them even for a penny's worth, for by doing this you are helping us to keep our register straight, also your account, if you have one with us. Instruct your servants, etc., to ask for them and to return them to you, for each check is a receipt assuring you that the purchase has been paid for, indicating also the price charged; and after you have $5 worth don't hesitate to send them in for redemption, which will be cheerfully made. If only very seldom you make a purchase from us, and for that reason, or for any other, think it not worth while, etc., to bother with them, get into the habit of giving them to anyone willing to save and redeem them, as we will greatly appreciate this favor to us from you for the above reasons.

In this connection we wish to remind you again never to hesitate to call our attention to any purchase not entirely satisfactory, for we are anxious and willing to make amends for anything not satisfactory, for we recognize your right in demanding honest value for every cent spent here, and we don't want you to feel as though you are asking a favor when doing so. No matter how often you find it necessary to do so, do it, for otherwise you are doing both of us an injury.

Respectfully yours,
H. REISINGER.

Dr. C. H. Ellsworth, Dentist, 16 Baldwin St., Rochester, N. Y., says Foley's Kidney Pills gave him immediate relief and strengthened him wonderfully. "I have been bothered with weak kidneys and bladder trouble and suffered much pain. Foley Kidney Pills gave me immediate relief and strengthened me wonderfully. I am pleased to recommend their use." Sold by all druggists.

Censored Post Cards.

That is the kind sold at Reisinger's, nothing suggestive or open to a double meaning, if we are aware of it. Your co-operation in calling our attention to anything objectionable will be greatly appreciated. A fine assortment at 10c per dozen; also a splendid line of postals and pictures to be tinted, 1c up.

Robert W. Herter, Lawrenceville, Mo., who had been bothered with kidney trouble for two years, says: "I tried three different kinds of kidney pills but with no relief. My neighbor told me to use Foley Kidney Pills. I took three bottles of them and got a permanent cure. I recommend them to everybody." Sold by all druggists.
