ST. PATRICK'S ALLIANCE IN CONVENTION.

Delegation from the Eighth District Met in St. Mary's Hall Yesterday.

HONORS COME HERE.

Local Man Elected President—Metuchen is Well Represented—Attended Mass in St. Mary's Church and are Welcomed by the Pastor—First Annual Convention Ever Held Here.

For the first time since its organization, the annual convention of St. Patrick's Alliance, District No. 8, was held in St. Mary's Hall, Centre street, this city, yesterday. It was the fifteenth anniversary. The convention was held for the annual election of officers and delegates from every city in which District No. 8 is represented, were present.

The delegates arrived in Perth Amboy in the morning and heard mass at 10.30 in St. Mary's church, after which they were welcomed by the pastor, Rev. B. T. O'Connell. At 2.30 the convention opened and the following officers were elected: District President, Lawrence Daly, of this city; S. V. P. M., John Roman, Metuchen; J. V. P. J., Barney McGinley, Metuchen; financial secretary, Dennis Coughlin, of this city; recording secretary, John J. Clark, of this city; conductor, N. J. Patton; sergeant-at-arms, J. R. Desmond; accountant, James F. Burns. Three trustees were also elected. Metuchen is represented by J. P. Breen and Perth Amboy by John Tootin and Matthew Hope. The newly elected officers and trustees will be installed the first Sunday in January.

After the election reports were read. Following these the delegates went to the Pennsylvania Hotel, State street, where they had supper, as guests of the Perth Amboy branch of the Alliance. After supper Dennis Coughlin made an address, in which he told of the progress of the order since the last convention, and of how they had prospered. It is in a good financial condition. It was decided to hold the next convention in Metuchen.

BOATMAN IS SHOT IN FRONT ST. SALOON.

John Hennessey of the Lehigh Valley Tug Ganoga is in the City Hospital with a Bullet Through His Right Lung—Charles J. Hathaway Arrested Charged with the Crime.

John Hennessey, of the Lehigh Valley tugboat Ganoga, was shot in the right breast yesterday afternoon. Charles J. Hathaway, chief engineer on the same boat, is locked up, accused of doing the shooting. The bullet went through Hennessey's right lung and is now somewhere in his back. An effort will be made to remove it today.

The shooting occurred in Fritz Speer's saloon on Front street, about 4 o'clock. Officer William McDermott heard the shot and ran into the place as the bartender was coming out for help. He found Hennessey on a lounge in a side room where he had been helped after the assault. Hathaway had fled from the saloon after firing and gone to the boat which was lying at Hall's dock. He had hidden himself in the lower hold and was found in his concealment by the officer who immediately arrested him.

The two men, together with a third boatman, met outside of the saloon and entered together. They called for drinks and Hathaway and the other man are said to have drank theirs. An argument started and Hennessey struck Hathaway with his fist, it is alleged. Without any warning according to statement made the man jerked out a small thirty-two calibre revolver and shot. Hennessey fell to the floor. He was picked up and taken to a side room.

Word was sent to police headquarters and Sergeant Dunham responded. Officer McDermott returned with his man. Hennessey identified him as the one firing the shot.

The wounded man bled but little. Dr. G. W. Fithian, who was called, examined the wound and had the man taken to the hospital. While his injury is very serious he may recover.

When the officer arrested Hathaway he is said to have admitted having committed the deed. This morning in court he refused to talk without consulting a lawyer. He is held.

Bad blood has existed between the principals for some time according to the stories told. Hathaway was hired during the marine strike on the Valley and considerable bad feeling has been held against him because he is known as a non-union engineer. Shortly after he was engaged, Hennessey was reduced from his position as pilot to deckhand. For this he claimed Hathaway was responsible and the two have had several clashes.

The revolver was found this morning shortly before noon. It had five chambers, one of which was empty. Hathaway said he had thrown the weapon overboard. A search revealed it beneath some coal in one of the bunks. The chief detective of the Lehigh Valley railroad, C. Lyden, and Superintendent of Tugboats, John T. Clark, visited Hathaway in his cell at noon. After carefully investigating they found the case did not concern them, as it happened off the boat.

This afternoon it was stated that the doctors did not think it advisable to attempt to remove the bullet today.

ENTERTAINED BY PRESIDENT.

Features of the Evening—Nathan Roth Had Cause to be Sorrowful.

A reception was tendered the members of a local society by the president, M. Goldman, and vice president, N. Jacobson, last night, at the Kentucky Hall. There were about 200 present. Mr. M. Goldman was toastmaster. While those present partook of the good things, served by pretty young ladies in charge, A. Lippman gave a very entertaining speech and Louis Braines gave a few remarks appertaining to Zionism and recited the Hebrew National poems. A phonograph was played during the evening.

During the evening an incident occurred which was not very pleasant for Nathan Roth. He told the story himself, this morning. He said everything was progressing nicely when someone gave three cheers for the newly elected treasurer, Philip Slobodien, of Carteret. Whereupon that man, Mr. Roth says, struck him over the head with a beer glass.

Mr. Roth is confined to his bed under Dr. James Stafford's care today. Mr. Roth has the broken glass with which he was struck.

CHARGES TO BE MADE BY CHIEF BURKE.

Declares that the Two Places Where Disturbances Occurred Must Pay Penalty.

DISORDERLY PLACES.

Says the Law and the Excise Board are of Little Help but Where He can Get the Evidence Charges Will be Made Against the Proprietor—Cases to be Kept in Local Court.

Chief Burke will take active steps to punish the proprietors of both places where the disgraceful rows occurred yesterday. Charges of keeping disorderly houses or similar complaints will be pressed. Sunday is the same as any other day in many of these resorts. In fact many of the stabbing and other assault cases have occurred in houses where the "Sunday" door is used. The chief says the Excise Board and laws are not of much assistance to him, but he will see that a halt is made to the progress of beer glass assaults, stabbing and shooting affairs, and that at once.

One man is at the City Hospital now with a bullet hole through his lung. Another has deep gashes in his head, both resulting from differences in saloons.

ATTENDANCE WAS SMALL.

Storm Kept Many Away from the Church Services Yesterday—Temperance Addresses.

The temperance speakers who appeared in five of the local pulpits yesterday did not have very large audiences in the morning. At night, when the storm had ceased, the people turned out and listened to the addresses with much interest.

Yesterday morning Rev. Dr. Gotwald spoke in the Baptist church and Edmund B. Gerhart spoke in Simpson M. E. church. Roth congregations were comparatively small owing to the storm. Last night Rev. Gilbert P. Raynor spoke in the Presbyterian church, Mr. Gerhart in the Danish M. E. and Dr. Gotwald in the Swedish Congregational church. These men represent the Anti-Saloon league of this State. They explained their work in different parts of the State yesterday. This organization is practically the only one that has accomplished any results in the cause of temperance. Their work in this city will be backed by the Minister's Alliance and the Good Citizen's League.

CHILDREN ARE TAKEN TO A HOME.

Salvation Army Finds a Home for the Little Ones found in Neglectful Condition.

ALL ARE MADE HAPPY.

Mother Wanted to Keep the Baby, but the Authorities Refused—Policeman McDermott Went With the Ensign to Get the Children from the Place—Will be Educated and Properly Brought up.

The three small children of Fred Odium, of 109 Front street, were taken to Spring Valley Home at Spring Valley, New Jersey, this morning by Ensign and Mrs. Wiseman. The children were found in the most pitiful circumstances by the ensign and after they were fed Officer William McDermott accompanied the ensign back to the hotel, and the little ones were taken to Ensign Wiseman's house where they were washed and clothed. When they grasped the meaning of leaving their old home they seemed glad to go.

They will be properly educated and brought up at this institution. The story of the family was told in Saturday's News.

The woman is still in the wretched habitation. She will receive help shortly. Several similar cases exist in this city and will be attended to at once. The Army was the first to discover and rescue these children of two, four and six years.

The mother attempted to take the youngest child Saturday afternoon, but she was persuaded to go away. She has relatives in South Amboy.
