

TOMORROW LAST DAY

Early Morning Showers Benefit Campers at The Chautauqua Grounds—The Jubilee Singers Make a Hit—A Splendid Program Tonight.

At the church congress last evening the question of benefits arising from union revival meetings, was discussed. It was a question of which Beatrice knows considerable. A large number participated in the discussion pro and con, the consensus of opinion seeming to be in favor of united effort in evangelistic work.

A fine review of Tennyson's "Sir Galahad" was given at the round table by Miss Minnie Davis, Miss Fyrtle closing by singing to guitar accompaniment the pretty cradle song, "Sweet and Low."

The evening crowd began to make its appearance somewhat earlier than usual, due probably to the desire to hear the Jubilee singers, who are in every way deserving of an early crowd and a large crowd.

The lecturer of the evening was Rev. McClary, his subject being "Sunshine in Labor." Dr. McClary is an optimist of the highest rank. He preaches optimism. He lives it and endeavors to help others to live it. Spade works, pen works, or whatever means are employed to earn a livelihood, is labor. There is or ought to be sunshine in whatever work one may be engaged. The object of Mr. McClary in this talk is to turn on the searchlight, find the happiness and help the laborer to become its possessor and enjoyer. Things that help to bring happiness are adaptability, usefulness and noble selfhood. Success depends upon the proper relation of employer and employee. The time has come when every thing is coming the way of the toiler. The philosophy and experience of the Christ religion is one of the greatest helps to happiness in labor. There was nothing in the doctor's lecture to arouse antagonism between employers and employees, but much that would help each to help the other. There was an unusually large attendance of laboring men present, a special invitation having been issued to the labor unions and laborers generally. Dr. McClary always leaves hearts warmer and brighter than he found them, and, as a consequence, the world better, because of his going about.

This Forenoon.
The campers were not in their usual serene state of mind this morning, owing to a complication of happenings. There had been numerous cases of sickness among the little folks, others had been disturbed during the night by carousals upon the grounds, and here and there a tent was being folded preparatory to removal. The light morning shower, however, had a cooling and conciliatory effect and classes did their work as usual.

"Put Out the Red Light" was the title of a most excellent paper prepared and read at W. C. T. U. Institute by Mrs. Carrie V. Blewett, who has been present during the entire assembly in charge of W. C. T. U. work. Mrs. Blewett began her paper by quoting from a fatally injured fireman, who, in answer to one who had asked what he could do for him, replied: "Put out the red light there's another train coming." No matter who you are, if you have any influence, or if you think you have no influence, put out the red light—hang out the danger signal, warn others of danger ahead before it is found too late. Ambition is a great impulse, yet, nevertheless by that sin the angels fell.

The normal class had its usual quiet, studious hour under Dr. Parkhurst's teaching.

This Afternoon.
The hour of 2:30 was all too slow in coming, owing to the great winning qualities of the Dixie Jubilee singers, whose drawing power is without question, unrivaled by any previous attractions.

This evening promises to be unusually rich and diversified in its attractions. A band concert at 7 o'clock, at 8 o'clock a reading by Miss Black, followed by selections given by the Jubilees and at 8:30 that wonderful lecture, "Greenhorns," by Rev. Wm. Carter.

Tomorrow's Attractions.

At 9 o'clock Mrs. Beeson and class will review the work done during the assembly.

The W. C. T. U. Institute at 10 o'clock will consider the question "How to Reach the Masses?" Children in song and recitation will contribute to the program which will be an altogether excellent one. Everybody should attend this final meeting.

At 2:30 o'clock there will be a lecture by Lou J. Beauchamp, with a half hour prelude by Jubilee singers.

At the 5 o'clock round table Miss Janson will talk of Russian home life. At 7 the band will give the last of its numerous excellent concerts, and at 8 o'clock there will be a grand closing concert by the Dixie Jubilee Singers.

Every one will be out during this last evening to enjoy the feast of music, to say good-bys and pronounce a benediction upon the closing chautauqua of 1903.

NOTES.
The dining hall has had 150 regular boarders.

The art class is making some fine river pictures. Little Margaret Fuller's work is especially fine for one so young.

Mrs. VanArsdale of Wymore, whose husband is a stockholder in the Dos Rios company, was a guest at Dos Rios headquarters.

Mrs. A. H. Kidd made a kodak picture of Beatrice club women and their guests Monday afternoon, the group being formed on Willard Hall porch.

Every class should have a splendid attendance upon tomorrow's lessons, thereby expressing somewhat a just appreciation for the untiring and competent efforts of those in charge during the assembly.

GRAND JURY INDICTS THREE.

Tharp and Crawford Held for Arrest and Plummer for Bribery.

Jackson, Ky., July 22.—The grand jury returned indictments against Edward Tharp and Joseph Crawford, teamsters for the Hargis Bros., charging arson. They were already under bonds on the charge of setting fire to Ewen's hotel last month. An indictment was also returned against Gardner Plummer, charging an attempt to bribe a witness. It is charged that he offered R. J. Ewen $5,000 to leave town, so that he could not testify in the trial of Curtis Jett and Thomas White. It is currently reported that L. T. Boll, as well as Ewen, testified before the grand jury as to who was to furnish the money that was offered to Ewen by Plummer, and that two well-known county officials were named in the jury room. As the grand jury is continuing its session, it is generally believed that the investigation is extending into other offenses in connection with the feud.

HEMLER REPLIES WYMORE GETS FAIR FEAR FOUL PLAY

He Says The Council Water Committee Did Its Duty—Attended the Test—No Water There.

BEATRICE, NEB., July 22.—[Special to THE EXPRESS].—In your issue of July 18, we find another communication from Mr. Cole on the water supply for the city at the Paddock pasture. He also gives data of test, report made by the water committee, and comments on the report as follows: "The report of the committee as quoted above seemed to be effective in condemning the prospect of obtaining a sufficient quantity of water, etc., etc." I happened to be a member of that committee and I can assure you that the committee acted honestly. We were present many times when our engineer, Mr. Lapworth, made the test. We certainly had hoped for better results, and feel that Mr. Cole had no right to presume as he stated above. We cannot help the conditions and we did report them honestly.

Mr. Cole also speaks of the taking of a Dempster well boring machine to the Paddock pasture and placing it at his disposal and that I was there only a few minutes. This is a mistake. I was there at least three or four hours every day as I was anxious to see the material we were going into. If Mr. Cole remembers, we found the water bearing sand to vary in depth; that it did not extend down to rock, as Mr. Cole hoped for and that the wells were uneven in depth, varying from seventeen feet to twenty-six feet. We found clay upon the rock also varying in depth from two to eight feet some of which was as yellow as saffron and some was blue and red. Underlying this clay we found a very hard lime stone. Mr. Cole seemed to be honest in his endeavor but inexperienced in prospecting for water, and he certainly had his own way and hates to give up the failure.

I did not intend to dip into this controversy but when he referred to the water committee in such an uncompromising way, as above stated, could not refrain. We were sorry that the committee had to report so unfavorably. We would rather have had it the other way, but honestly we could not, when the figures were presented by our engineer, Mr. Lapworth, whose honesty and ability no one questioned.

Very respectfully,
C. M. HEMLER.

Russia's Note Excites Opposition.
Peking, July 22.—According to the representations of Prince Ching, the president of the foreign office, Russia has notified China of the withdrawal of her opposition to the opening of Manchurian ports and, according to the same representations, negotiations between China and Russia have been suspended for the past month. United States Minister Conger conferred with M. Loeper, the Russian minister, supposedly regarding Manchurian matters. The representatives of all of the governments have received copies of Russia's note and the clause prohibiting foreign settlements in towns to be opened excites opposition.

Horses Taken From Pasture.

Ogallala, Neb., July 22.—A band of twenty horses were stolen out of a pasture at F. T. Bishop's place, in the north part of Perkins county, July 12. They were traced to Wray, Neb., where they were shipped to South Omaha. The billing was charged on route and the car switched off and sent to Neligh, Neb. A telegram came asking a banker here to guarantee a reprieve bond at Neligh, where the horses had been sold. The telegram gave no particulars as to the whereabouts of the horses.

Proposition From There is Accepted by The Stockholders of The County Fair Association.

The officers, directors and members of the Gage County Society of Agriculture, to the number of about twenty, met at Gen. Colby's office yesterday at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, pursuant to the call published. There was a good attendance from different parts of the county, and especially from our neighboring city, Wymore, and vicinity. After considerable discussion, propositions were made by the city of Wymore and its citizens, to obtain the annual fair and race meeting this year. A proposition was first made to obtain the permanent location of the fair for a term of five years, but this was voted down. After some modification the following propositions were accepted:

The city of Wymore to furnish the grounds, track, necessary buildings and improvements, lumber, lights and water for the use of the society during the five days fair without expense. The citizens of Wymore to guarantee $1,000 in premiums and $3,200 in purses.

The following racing classes, purses and conditions were decided upon:
Trotting classes, purse $350 each, 2:20, 2:25, 2:30, 2:45; pacing purse the same in each class, 2:17, 2:22, 2:35; free-for-all pace.
Running half mile and repeat, $75.
Running three-fourths mile and repeat, $100.
Running one mile and repeat, $150.
Novelty race, $75.

Entries are to close August 15, 1903, and the purses to be paid from the judges stand immediately after announcement of the result of each race. An entrance fee of 5 per cent and 5 per cent additional from money winners. American Trotting Association Rules to govern.

On motion of Mr. Clayton, John W. Roberts of Barneston and C. W. Robertson of Wymore, were elected as additional directors.

The following board of managers were elected: Hector Murray, J. R. Dodge, J. T. Stevens, J. A. McGuire, Lake Bridenstahl, M. S. McGoogan, Julius Newman, George Harris, A. D. McCandless, Frank W. Acton and Henry Gambee.

On motion it was decided to have five days fair and four days of races and one running race each day.

A meeting of the board of managers was ordered for 2 o'clock Thursday of this week, to be held at the office of A. D. McCandless at Wymore.

The secretary was instructed to immediately have the necessary advertising done and the premium list printed, and to make the necessary arrangements for attractions and concessions for the fair to be held August 25th to 29th inclusive at Wymore, Neb.

The representatives from Wymore were full of enthusiasm and stated that the people of Wymore, and in fact, southern Gage county, were a unit, and will leave nothing undone to make the meeting one of the grand successes and a credit to Nebraska. Representatives from the Burlington railroad assured the society that the railroads would do everything possible in the line of excursions and cheap transportation.

The fair will be held at the Inter State fair grounds where several successful fairs have been held.

The meeting adjourned subject to call.

Mrs. Sarah Randall Writes The Police From Missouri Inquiring About Her Son.

Chief Ashenfelter received a letter this morning from Mrs. Sarah Randall, at Maitland, Mo., making inquiries about a son of hers.

She says that he left home with a 4-year-old race horse. Recently he was at Falls City where he fell in with a man whom she names. Previous to this she says her son always wrote home regularly but that since leaving Falls City she has not heard a word from him.

The mother says she fears he has been foully dealt with and asks the police to arrest the fellow if he shows up with the race horse and is not accompanied by her son.

The woman is evidently very much distressed over the boy's sudden disappearance and says she will liberally repay anyone who can and will send her some word about him.

BISHOP MUEHLBACH DEAD.

Vicar General of St. Louis Diocese Succumbs to Disease.

St. Louis, July 22.—After suffering for six months from the effects of a stroke of paralysis, which was followed by other complications, Rt. Rev. Henry Muehlbach, vicar general of the Catholic archdiocese of St. Louis, died last night. The vicar general was sixty-eight years of age. For several days it was evident that the end was near, as the patient relapsed into a state of coma, from which he awoke at rare intervals and retained consciousness for only a few moments.

Vicar General Muehlbach died at the Ursuline convent, after lying in a comatose state for twenty hours. The end came very peacefully. The remains will be placed on a catafalque in the private chapel of the Ursuline convent and requiem high mass will be celebrated in the presence of the Ursuline sisters. Tomorrow afternoon the remains will be taken to the old cathedral, where they will lie in state until the pontifical funeral on Friday. Immediately after the obsequies the remains will be taken to Arcadia, Mo., in a special car and on Saturday morning interment will be made in the cemetery of Arcadia college.

New Challenger Wins.

Atlantic Highlands, N. J., July 22.—After her narrow margin of victory Monday Sir Thomas Lipton's new challenger was again in racing form and trimmed her trial horse by thirty-three minutes and seventeen seconds in a twenty-mile race. Much of her big victory was due to a fluke, in which she covered miles of water while Shamrock I hung idle in a cove.

The pope's heart and lungs are placed in an urn with the other organs in a formaline solution.

EDITORIALS UP FOR ALLEGED CONTEMPT

JEFFERSON CITY, MO., July 22.—[Special to THE EXPRESS].—Editors Sheppard and Candiff appeared in supreme court today under a citation for alleged contempt.

Sheppard printed an editorial insinuating that the supreme court was biased in favor of the rail ways because it threw out the damage suit brought by a brakeman against the Missouri Pacific after having twice affirmed the lower court's decisions and verdict for the plaintiff.

Candiff reprinted the editorial with comment. Lawyer New, for Sheppard filed a motion to set aside the citation on the grounds that it was irregularly drawn and because it was not accompanied by affidavits. It was overruled.

Attorney General Crow said that if the editors were guilty of making charges against the highest tribunal which were not true they should be punished. Candiff threw himself upon the mercy of the court. An adjournment was taken until this afternoon.

The United States Steel shares were severely pounded, with net losses of 2% and 3% in the common and preferred respectively.
