

Local and Personal.

Town and Country.

Mrs. William M. Davis, of this town, has gone to Savannah, Ga., to spend several months visiting relatives.

Mrs. Crawford Young, of Back Lodge, this county, was paralyzed on Saturday last and lies in a critical condition.

For lice on stock, for all running sores, for a disinfectant and antiseptic, use "Anti-vermine," for sale only at Pearson's Pharmacy.

Mr. William S. Gorum and Miss Nellie M. Yingling were united in marriage by Rev. J. D. Rayfield at Germantown on November 5th.

Mr. Charles St. Andrew Mullican and Miss Florence Gertrude Ware were married by Rev. J. D. Rayfield at Travilah on November 5th.

Mr. Edward Lawrence Jordan and Miss Susie A. Birch, both of Ballston, Va., were married in Rockville last Tuesday by Rev. S. R. White.

Mr. Cornelius Fry and Miss Della Reed, both of the vicinity of Gaithersburg, were recently married by Rev. James L. Lodge, of the Baptist Church.

Married, on Sunday, November 10th, 1901, at St. Mary's Church, Rockville, Md., by Father T. D. Williams, Mr. Frank J. Hill and Miss Blanche M. Crown.

Ich on human, mange on horses, dogs and all stock, cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by E. T. Pearson, Rockville.

Mr. Ernest Eugene Bailey, a former resident of this town, and Miss Irene Denman were married on November 6th at the home of the bride's parents in Irvington, N. J.

The ladies of the Methodist Church will hold their monthly cake sale at the residence of Mr. Geo. H. Lamar on Saturday, November 16th, 1901, commencing at 3 P. M.

The ladies of the Methodist Church will hold their monthly cake sale at the residence of Mr. Geo. H. Lamar on Saturday, November 16th, 1901, commencing at 3 P. M.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held at the residence of Mrs. John J. Higgins on Tuesday afternoon, November 19th, at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Harry C. Weeks, formerly a merchant at Boyd's, but who sold out his business and removed to Washington, has been tendered and accepted a position as railway postal clerk.

Miss Ella Ernest, of Rockville, and Mr. Rufus Ward, also of this vicinity, were married last Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. John Cavanaugh, of Alexandria, Va.

The County Commissioners on Tuesday appointed the following gentlemen as Trustees of the Alma House: Geo. F. Snodgrass, J. E. Meem, Charles J. Lyddane, Nelson H. Robertson, John G. Casheil.

The ladies of the M. E. Church South will hold at Masonic Hall, Gaithersburg, on the evening of Thanksgiving Day a dinner and supper. Proceeds for the benefit of the church. Public cordially invited.

Mr. John W. Knott, a prominent farmer of Sidel, this county, was thrown from his horse while out riding a few days ago, and was severely bruised and shocked. He has been confined to his bed since the accident.

Mr. Theodore McAtee, a railroad contractor who has been doing some work for the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company near Clifton Forge, Va., has returned to his home at Boyd's, this county, for a few weeks.

Mr. James Connell, the railway postal clerk, whose home is in Rockville, has been transferred from service in the East to a route in Colorado. The change was made at the request of Mr. Connell, for the benefit of his health.

On last Monday evening at 6 o'clock, at the Methodist parsonage, this town, Mr. Chas. C. Rhodes and Miss Mary A. Baker, and Mr. George P. Curran and Miss Anna M. Kiley, all of Washington City, were married by Rev. G. Dorsey White.

Virginia, the 8-year-old daughter of Dr. Washington D. Waters, of this town, died of diphtheria on Sunday afternoon last at Cameron, S. C., where Mr. Waters and her children were visiting relatives. The remains were brought to Rockville for burial.

Capt. Charles H. Stanley, the converted comedian, will return to Rockville on the evening of November 15th and give another of the unique entertainments in which he is so successful. It will be given under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. Tickets at nominal price, 25 cents; children 14 cents, 10 cents.

Fire which began on a wagon loaded with fodder on the farm of Frank Davis, near Barnesville, Thursday night of last week, set fire to the stable, corn house and barn implements nearby. The loss is estimated at $500, upon which there was no insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The marriage of Miss Mary Lee Waters, daughter of Dr. Charles Henry Waters, to Dr. Horace Bolivar Haddox is announced to occur at Fair View Seminary, Washington, D. C., on Tuesday, December 3rd, at 5 o'clock, P. M. No cards will be issued in the county, but all friends are invited to attend.

Two Washington couples were married in Rockville last week by Father Thomas D. Williams, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church. They were Mr. John J. Dugan and Miss Ella McCarthy, and Mr. Patrick J. Dorsey and Miss Margaret M. Walsh. The ceremonies were performed in St. Mary's Church.

Miss Emily Harvey, daughter of Mr. Jas. Harvey, of Unity, this county, died on Thursday evening of last week of appendicitis, aged 17 years. Her death occurred in Baltimore, where she was a student at the State Normal School. The news of her death was a great shock to her many friends in this county.

The lecture delivered at the Rockville Christian Church on Monday evening last by Rev. E. H. Hady, pastor of the Ninth Street Christian Church, Washington, was thoroughly enjoyed by a large audience. The subject, "Uncle 'Ratus of Virginia," was handled by the lecturer in a most entertaining manner.

Last Friday evening a number of young people met at the residence of Mr. E. P. Marlow, near Boron, this county, and organized a progressive euchre club. Sixteen members were enrolled. After the transaction of business matters pertaining to organization, the remainder of the evening was devoted to progressive euchre, which was heartily enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the game, after which the club adjourned to meet at the home of Miss Elizabeth Fawcett November 19, 1901.

At the trials of the National Beagle Club of America, held last week at Wheatley Hills, L. I., a pack of four beagles belonging to Mr. Charles F. Brooke, of Olney, this county, won the national challenge cup for beagles capable of the best work in field trials and for conformation and general liveliness on the bench.

Miss Maud T. Bean, of Bethesda, and Mr. Augustus Barton, of Washington, were married Sunday at St. Ann's Catholic Church, Tenleytown, immediately after High Mass, Father Mallon performing the ceremony. They received a large number of friends at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos W. Bean, later in the day.

Upton Ricketts, the six-year-old son of Mr. William Ricketts, who resides near Best's Mill, this county, died about 3 o'clock last Sunday afternoon from the effects of a quantity of whisky which he drank early Sunday morning. While alone in the room the little fellow had hold of a bottle of whisky, which he had inadvertently left within his reach.

Mr. James A. Kemp, chief clerk of the Washington Police Department, will lecture in the Rockville Methodist Church South, on next Friday evening, November 15th, upon matters pertaining to his department. Mr. Kemp is among the best posted men upon police matters in Washington, and will not fail to interest his audience. Hour, 7:45. Free admission tickets can be obtained of any of the officers of the Epworth League, or at the door.

A thief last Friday night entered the residence of Mr. Andrew Small, at Boyd's, this county, and secured a pocket book containing $25 in money and some valuable papers. Mr. Small retired about 10 o'clock, and, as his usual custom, he hung his trousers at the head of the bed. During the night the burglar entered the house by the kitchen door, which had been left unlocked, and making his way through the dining room, he passed on through a small hallway and gained admission to Mr. Small's room. Securing the trousers, the thief took them into the dining room, where he removed the pocket book and sifted the papers, leaving the notes and checks behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The thief was not discovered until early the next morning. There is no clue, but it is thought the burglar was committed by some one familiar with the premises.

Circuit Court.—The November Term of the Circuit Court for this county convened here Monday, with Judges McSherry and Henderson on the bench. Mr. Samuel Riggs was selected as foreman of the grand jury. Judge McSherry's charge to the grand jury was very brief. He stated that the Court was aware of no serious infractions of the law to which to call to the attention of the jury, and urged that the business that might come before the grand jury be transacted with promptness and dispatch.

The following compose the grand and petit juries:

Grand Jury.—Samuel Riggs, foreman; Arthur G. Selby, Jas. W. Johnson, Charles S. Holland, William Spear, Charles W. Barnesley, Albert King, Harvey C. Fawcett, Benjamin C. Hughes, David E. Charlton, James M. W. Briggs, Thomas H. Offutt, Samuel G. Barnesley, Samuel R. McAtee, Alfred Wilson, Stephen B. Perry, Geo. W. Gaither, Reuben P. Hines, Wm. B. Trandie, John J. Umstead, John J. Wire, Chas. B. Murphy, Elijah Leizer.

Petit Jury.—Oliver J. Brandenburg, Edward D. Wardell, Wm. L. Hoyle, Eugene Cooley, Joseph N. Darby, Urich Ricketts, Thomas C. Keys, Turner W. Welsh, John Hestonson, Thomas O. Davall, Michael E. Cummings, Walter P. Casheil, Robert P. Magruder, Thos. J. Brown, Jas. M. Crown, Richard S. Creamer, Nicholas C. Burroughs, John McDonald, Geo. W. Lynch, Nicholas B. Furdum, Robert G. Davis, Nicholas E. Barnes, George P. Fenwick, Reuben A. Barries, William O. Parsley.

The following cases have been disposed of:

Thomas H. England vs. George W. Meads, plaintiff; judgment for plaintiff for $22.50 with costs affirmed.

Harry Kohlbusch vs. Christian Mooring Brewing Company, plaintiff; judgment for plaintiff reversed without prejudice.

Clarence E. Price vs. Wm. H. Thompson, plaintiff; judgment for plaintiff for $92.62 affirmed.

John W. Hopkins vs. Ed. Bidwell, settled and off.

United Express Company, appellant, vs. Thomas Small; judgment for appellant for costs.

Clarence M. Griffith vs. Basil Burdette, plaintiff; judgment for plaintiff affirmed with costs.

County Commissioners for Montgomery County vs. Rosa A. Owens, defendant; judgment affirmed for defendant.

John H. Gassaway, plaintiff, vs. Robert H. Pumphrey; verdict for plaintiff.

Hymenal.

A pretty autumn wedding was solemnized at Salem, E. C. Church, Cedar Grove, Md., on Tuesday, October 29, at 7 P. M., by Rev. Mr. Marsh, the pastor of the church officiating. The contracting parties were Miss Mamie Bowman, a popular young lady of Cedar Grove, and Mr. James Suddath, a prosperous farmer of this county. The church, which was crowded to its utmost capacity with the friends and relatives of the happy couple, was tastefully decorated with autumn foliage, roses, chrysanthemums and potted plants.

As the wedding party entered the church Mendelssohn's wedding march was beautifully rendered by Mrs. George Beale. The bride was handsomely attired in steel broadcloth trimmed with white satin ribbon and white silk and braid, and carried a Bible. The maid of honor, Miss Hattie Suddath, was becomingly attired in white organdy, with white satin ribbons, and carried white roses. The groom and his best man, Mr. Lafayette Bowman, wore the conventional black. The ushers were Mr. Grayson Suddath and Mr. Millard Bowman.

After the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the home of the groom, where a reception was held, about one hundred guests being present. The tables were laden with choice substantial and all of the delicacies of the season.

The presents were handsome and useful, and each in its way will remain a silent reminder of a golden ripple in the stream of life.

The guests were royally treated by the host and hostess, and after enjoying the banquet and lingering in the agreeable society of the good young people until midnight they returned to their homes with delightful memories of one of the most enjoyable occasions of the season, leaving behind them, with their newly wedded friends, hearty well-wishes for a long, happy and prosperous voyage over the sea of matrimony.

Startling, But True.

"If every one knew what a grand medicine Dr. King's New Life Pills is, you'd sell all you have in a day. Two weeks' use has made a new man of me. Infallible for constipation, stomach and liver troubles. 25 cts. at R. W. Vinson's Drug Store."

A Chrysanthemum Wedding.

A prominent and fashionable assemblage centered at high noon yesterday in Christ Episcopal Church, this town, to witness the nuptials of Miss Julia Pratt, one of the most popular ladies of the county, eldest daughter of Judge John T. Vison, and Mr. George Minor Anderson, third surviving son of the late Judge James Anderson, of this county, one of the younger members of the Rockville Bar, now an assistant in the Attorney General's Office, Washington.

The chancel and railing of the church were elaborately and exquisitely dressed with choice white and yellow chrysanthemums, and so artistically arranged as to have their colors blend in poetic harmony.

A cord of ribbon was drawn from wall to wall, intended to designate the space which the members and many close friends at home and abroad of two of Montgomery's time-honored families were to occupy.

As the noon time waxed, the golden rays of an Autumn sun streaming through the stained glass windows of many colors, bathing the beautiful edifice in a voluptuous light, whilst the tones of the organ, mingling with the low rich melody of the choir, sweeter and softer than the whispers of a Summer's zephyr, the happy bridal couple swept gracefully down the aisle to the front of the chancel.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Thomas J. Packard, in a most impressive manner, and with the announcement of the notes and chords behind, and taking with him the money, consisting in part of a $10 bill, and a $5 bill.

The bride, of a brunette style of beauty, with tresses of hair that seem to have caught the glow of burnished chestnuts, and eyes the calm brown depths of forest pools in Autumn, was costumed in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth of superb build, trimmed with white silk, and velvet hat and gloves to correspond. In conventional dress, an almost faultless physique, the groom appeared a splendid specimen of rounded manhood.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. Mary F. Mullican, beloved wife of A. L. Mullican, died at the University Hospital, in Baltimore, October 30, 1901, aged 53 years, 2 months and 15 days, after a lingering illness of cancer of the intestines.

How dark this world seems when death snatches with relentless hand a loving wife and mother, and leaves a sorrow and sadness. Death, with his muffled tread, has again visited our home and removed our dear mother, early in the morning, when all nature seemed to break in autumn loveliness. Her spirit passed away, borne on snowy wings of angels to the Paradise of God. Though we miss her dear face, we know that she is not dead, but gone before where we hope to meet her when this weary life is over.

Affectionate and confiding, with a warm appreciation that there was rest and life eternal for the good of earth, she bore her sufferings until the pearl dropped from its wasted shell, the silver chord was cut, the golden bowl melted away, the light went out.

The dew of heaven keeps receding the flowers, so the fond recollections of husband and children will not let her memory fade. The funeral services were conducted at the Rockville Presbyterian Church, Saturday morning by Rev. T. D. Richards. Her remains were peacefully laid to rest in the cemetery, near the grave of her dear little boy who fell asleep in Jesus last January.

"Forever they are fading,
Our beautiful, our bright;
They gladden us a little while,
Then pass away from sight.
A little while and we are parted,
From those who love us best,
Who gain the goal before us
And enter into rest."

"Forever and forever,
To dwell among the blest,
Where sorrows never trouble,
The deep eternal rest;
When one by one we gather
Heaven's sweet choir,
And heaven's sweet forever
Drowns earth's sad little while."

There is no death!
What seems so is transition;
This life of ours is but a passing,
Is but a suburb of the life Elysian,
Whose portals we call death.

By her loving daughter, Emma.

Died, at his home, near Ashton, Md., on November 7, 1901, James W. Ervin, aged 60 years, 3 months and 13 days. He was the father of four children: to mourn their loss—three daughters and one son. He had been in failing health for a long time. Death was due to cancer of the stomach. He was a father and a friend to every one, his friends and neighbors were always welcome at his home.

Rev. H. P. West conducted the funeral services at Ashton Methodist Church, Sunday morning, November 10, at 11 o'clock. Appropriate remarks were made by Dr. Wm. E. Macrae, being an old and honored friend of the deceased.

Father had been a member of the Methodist Church for over thirty years. He was a kind and loving man, and his death was a great loss to his family and friends. He was a father and a friend to every one, his friends and neighbors were always welcome at his home.

Rev. H. P. West conducted the funeral services at Ashton Methodist Church, Sunday morning, November 10, at 11 o'clock. Appropriate remarks were made by Dr. Wm. E. Macrae, being an old and honored friend of the deceased.

Father had been a member of the Methodist Church for over thirty years. He was a kind and loving man, and his death was a great loss to his family and friends. He was a father and a friend to every one, his friends and neighbors were always welcome at his home.

Rev. H. P. West conducted the funeral services at Ashton Methodist Church, Sunday morning, November 10, at 11 o'clock. Appropriate remarks were made by Dr. Wm. E. Macrae, being an old and honored friend of the deceased.

Father had been a member of the Methodist Church for over thirty years. He was a kind and loving man, and his death was a great loss to his family and friends. He was a father and a friend to every one, his friends and neighbors were always welcome at his home.

Rev. H. P. West conducted the funeral services at Ashton Methodist Church, Sunday morning, November 10, at 11 o'clock. Appropriate remarks were made by Dr. Wm. E. Macrae, being an old and honored friend of the deceased.

Father had been a member of the Methodist Church for over thirty years. He was a kind and loving man, and his death was a great loss to his family and friends. He was a father and a friend to every one, his friends and neighbors were always welcome at his home.

Rev. H. P. West conducted the funeral services at Ashton Methodist Church, Sunday morning, November 10, at 11 o'clock. Appropriate remarks were made by Dr. Wm. E. Macrae, being an old and honored friend of the deceased.

Father had been a member of the Methodist Church for over thirty years. He was a kind and loving man, and his death was a great loss to his family and friends. He was a father and a friend to every one, his friends and neighbors were always welcome at his home.

Rev. H. P. West conducted the funeral services at Ashton Methodist Church, Sunday morning, November 10, at 11 o'clock. Appropriate remarks were made by Dr. Wm. E. Macrae, being an old and honored friend of the deceased.

Father had been a member of the Methodist Church for over thirty years. He was a kind and loving man, and his death was a great loss to his family and friends. He was a father and a friend to every one, his friends and neighbors were always welcome at his home.

Rev. H. P. West conducted the funeral services at Ashton Methodist Church, Sunday morning, November 10, at 11 o'clock. Appropriate remarks were made by Dr. Wm. E. Macrae, being an old and honored friend of the deceased.

Father had been a member of the Methodist Church for over thirty years. He was a kind and loving man, and his death was a great loss to his family and friends. He was a father and a friend to every one, his friends and neighbors were always welcome at his home.

Rev. H. P. West conducted the funeral services at Ashton Methodist Church, Sunday morning, November 10, at 11 o'clock. Appropriate remarks were made by Dr. Wm. E. Macrae, being an old and honored friend of the deceased.

Father had been a member of the Methodist Church for over thirty years. He was a kind and loving man, and his death was a great loss to his family and friends. He was a father and a friend to every one, his friends and neighbors were always welcome at his home.

Rev. H. P. West conducted the funeral services at Ashton Methodist Church, Sunday morning, November 10, at 11 o'clock. Appropriate remarks were made by Dr. Wm. E. Macrae, being an old and honored friend of the deceased.

Father had been a member of the Methodist Church for over thirty years. He was a kind and loving man, and his death was a great loss to his family and friends. He was a father and a friend to every one, his friends and neighbors were always welcome at his home.

Rev. H. P. West conducted the funeral services at Ashton Methodist Church, Sunday morning, November 10, at 11 o'clock. Appropriate remarks were made by Dr. Wm. E. Macrae, being an old and honored friend of the deceased.

Father had been a member of the Methodist Church for over thirty years. He was a kind and loving man, and his death was a great loss to his family and friends. He was a father and a friend to every one, his friends and neighbors were always welcome at his home.

Rev. H. P. West conducted the funeral services at Ashton Methodist Church, Sunday morning, November 10, at 11 o'clock. Appropriate remarks were made by Dr. Wm. E. Macrae, being an old and honored friend of the deceased.

Father had been a member of the Methodist Church for over thirty years. He was a kind and loving man, and his death was a great loss to his family and friends. He was a father and a friend to every one, his friends and neighbors were always welcome at his home.

Rev. H. P. West conducted the funeral services at Ashton Methodist Church, Sunday morning, November 10, at 11 o'clock. Appropriate remarks were made by Dr. Wm. E. Macrae, being an old and honored friend of the deceased.

Father had been a member of the Methodist Church for over thirty years. He was a kind and loving man, and his death was a great