CASUALTIES OF THE OCEAN

Thirty-two Lives Lost in Marine Disaster on Fundy Bay—Only Four Persons Saved from the Wreck.

Steamer City of Monticello Breaks Apart and Founders After a Hard Struggle with the Storm.

Bodies of Twenty-five Victims Recovered from the Sea—Fearful Gale Sweeps New England Coast.

Yarmouth, N. S., Nov. 12.—The shore of this county for ten miles east and west is strewn with the wreckage of the hull and cargo of the steamer City of Monticello and 25 bodies of victims of the disaster have been recovered from the sea, which is still raging with terrific fury. Many people have assembled at Rockville, near where the first body came ashore, and numerous relatives of the crew, who nearly all belonged to points on this coast, have arrived to identify the dead.

The bodies were arranged in a room in the public hall and Coroner Fuller, who held an inquest, gave an opinion of accidental drowning. All the bodies are terribly battered.

The first body was found at daylight, when the zinc lifeboat, which was supposed by the survivors of the first boat to have been swamped, was discovered on the shore. A few yards distant were the bodies of Mr. Eldredge, a passenger; Second Engineer Poole, Mr. Frigo, a traveler for McGee's Sons of St. John, N. B., and the body of a seaman. All four had lifebelts around them. At short intervals along the beach 11 more bodies were found, making 15 discovered up to noon. They had all evidently come ashore in the lifeboat and were killed on striking the beach, not one escaping.

Some difficulty has been encountered in figuring out the total loss of life, as a number of passengers joined the Monticello at St. John without first registering at the booking office. They bought their tickets on board.

A revised list of the members of the crew shows that the officers and crew numbered 28. The total number of people who were on board is now placed at 36.

The four survivors are Captain Smith, a passenger, Third Officer Fleming, Quartermaster Wilson and Stewardess Smith. The men saved agree that the cause of the disaster was briefly:

"The steamer was pounded for hours by sea and gale, sprang a leak and filled; became unmanageable, broke apart and foundered."

The sea is not remembered to have been so heavy on this coast for many years.

The tall end of the fearful gale that swept over the New England coast Thursday night struck Nova Scotia early Friday morning, and when the City of Monticello put out from St. John she met a terrific head wind. When she attempted to poke her way up out of the Bay of Fundy she found a tremendous sea running, and this with the high wind overwhelmed her. She was literally engulfed.

Texas Strike Spreading.
Houston, Tex., Nov. 12.—A notice was given out at Dallas saying all electrical workers in Dallas will strike today. The notice was signed by several leaders of the electrical workers' union. It is also said that all the line-men of the Southwestern Telephone company are going on strike in sympathy with the strike of telephone operators in the southern cities of the state. The strike is now on at Houston, San Antonio, Galveston and Waco and grows out of grievances of the operators at San Antonio and Waco.

Wreck on Missouri Pacific.
Salina, Kan., Nov. 12.—The Missouri Pacific east-bound passenger train, due here at 8:30 a. m., ran into an open switch at Sugar City, Colo., crashing into an engine and caboose of a work train on a siding. The engines of both trains and the baggage car of the passenger were demolished. The engineers and firemen of both trains and several passengers were injured. No one was killed. The injured were returned to Pueblo.

Frankie Father Sets Fire to Prison in Which He Was Incarcerated.

Laurens, Ia., Nov. 12.—The 12-year-old son of Chris Rud was run down by a freight train yesterday and his left leg severed below the knee. The father took the matter to heart so that he became irresponsible, assaulting an officer, who landed him in jail. Within 20 minutes the jail and city hall building was discovered on fire, and the agonizing shrieks of the prisoner told that he had paid the penalty of his recklessness with his life. The building cost $12,000, and was totally destroyed. Rud leaves a large family in destitute circumstances.

NO CHANGE AT MANILA.

News of the Election Quietly Received. Four Americans Killed and Ten Wounded During Week's Scouting.

Manila, Nov. 12.—The results of the elections in the United States have been quietly received here. So far as the Filipinos are concerned, no noticeable change in the situation has ensued, nor is any likely to occur in the immediate future. They are for the greater part noncommittal. News of the outcome will slowly work its way through the country to the armed insurgents, where the assurances of the leaders that Mr. Bryan would certainly be elected must first be overcome. Last week's scouting resulted in several minor engagements, with what the official reports describe as "small casualties," namely, four Americans killed and ten wounded.

Irrigation Storage Question.

Denver, Nov. 12.—The Denver chamber of commerce has called a mass meeting of business men for Monday for the purpose of considering the irrigation storage question. The National Irrigation congress is to meet in Chicago on Nov. 21, and the question of securing government aid in building storage reservoirs in the west is to come up. The last session of congress appropriated $100,000 to make surveys, and a number of plans will be ready when congress meets in December. The west is in favor of going to congress with a request for an appropriation of $15,000,000 as a starter.

Fugitive Murderer Captured.

Flora, Ind., Nov. 12.—Perry Barnard, who shot and instantly killed his former wife, Mrs. Jennie Barnard, at this place on the night of June 17 last, and escaped after being pursued for several days by a posse of enraged citizens and a pack of bloodhounds, was captured in South Dakota and was brought back by Sheriff Joseph A. Bridge. For fear of mob violence the prisoner was placed in the White county jail for safe keeping.

Arlene, Kan., Nov. 12.—Messrs. Sanders & Stover, agents for a primary school chart, have sued the school board of district No. 51, 18 miles south of this city, for $10,000 damages, because the board accused them of forging an order for a chart. The board members are wealthy farmers.

DAVID CITY, NEB., April 1, 1900.—Gentlemen:
Pure Food Co., La. Roy, N. Y.: Gentlemen—I must say in regard to GRAIN-O that there is nothing better or healthier. We have used it for years. My brother was a great coffee drinker. He was taken sick and the doctor said coffee was the cause of it, and told us to use GRAIN-O. We got a package, but did not like it at first, but now would not be without it. My brother has been well ever since we started to use it. Yours truly, L. L. Boshor.

MAKING A TEST OF KHAKI.

Complaint That It Offers the Wearer as a Target.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Interesting tests are being made at the cavalry post at Fort Myer to determine the relative protection of khaki color and the blue shirts formerly worn by soldiers. Complaints have been made to the war department that the khaki uniform, on account of its color, offers a better target to the enemy than the old blue uniform of the army.

The tests include observations of garments of different colors at various distances to determine the relative conspicuousness under different conditions of time and weather.

PULL DOWN UNION JACK.

City Authorities of New Westminster, B. C., Then Stop a Riot by Lowering the French Tri-Color.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 12.—Bitter racial feeling between some French-Canadians and Britishers culminated in a flag incident in the neighboring city of New Westminster, where serious consequences were only averted by the prompt action of the authorities. On the new stone postoffice building in process of construction are employed a number of French-Canadians, brought thither for that work from Quebec. They were given a Saturday half holiday, and hoisted the Union Jack and the French Tri-color on the same pole. The British flag was removed surreptitiously, and when the French ensign was discovered floating alone over the government building a crowd of Englishmen gathered to pull it down. The French-Canadians defended their flag, and a hand-to-hand conflict followed. The authorities stopped the fight by pulling down the flag. The occurrence has caused intense feeling between representatives of the two nationalities.

Iowa Miners May Be Admitted.

Indianapolis, Nov. 12.—Today's meeting of the national executive board of the United Mine Workers of America is the last to be held by the board before the national convention in January. A question of importance to be taken up is the admission of West-Virginia and Iowa to the competitive field. Both states have been clamoring for admission for a year and some friction was apparent at the last convention because Iowa was not admitted. The members of the executive council will hear reports from the organizers in the states named and if the conditions are regarded as favorable it is highly probable that both will be taken into the fold.

Double Tragedy at Bucyrus.

Bucyrus, O., Nov. 12.—Mrs. Amos Dice filed suit for divorce in court here Saturday and last night her husband beat down her door with an axe and demanded that she withdraw the suit. She refused to do so and he opened fire on her with a revolver, one of three shots taking effect in her breast. Dice then shot himself and also cut his throat with a razor, but the wife fought him off until he dropped dead from loss of blood. Mrs. Dice is now in a critical condition.

Spanish-American Congress.

Madrid, Nov. 12.—The secret sessions of the Spanish-American congress will begin today. They will be devoted to a study of various propositions for the development of the commercial relations between Spain and Latin America. The press warmly welcomes the delegates in language which is circumspet, showing no hostility toward the United States, but upholding the necessity of unity of the Latin family in America.

WARDS OF THE NATION.

Report of Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

JONES SUGGESTS REFORMS.

Some of the Items of Cost of Maintaining Indians—Total Expenditures by Uncle Sam From 1789 Up to Close of Last Fiscal Year Was $368,338,217.

Washington, Nov. 12.—The total expenditure by the government on account of the Indian service from March 4, 1789, up to and including July 30, 1900, has been $368,338,217, according to the annual report of Commissioner of Indian Affairs William T. Jones. The total expenditure for the fiscal year, ended last July, amounted to $10,175,107. Of this amount at least $3,330,000 was devoted to the cause of Indian education. Under the head of obstacles to self support of the Indians, the reports deprecates the ration system, annuity payments and the leasing of allotments.

The latter is regarded as most pernicious, and on this point the report says: "To the thoughtful mind it is apparent that the effect of the general leasing of allotments is bad, like the gratuitous issue of rations and the periodical distribution of money. It fosters indolence, with its train of attendant vices. By taking away the incentive to labor it defeats the very object for which the allotment system was devised, which was by giving the Indian something tangible that he could call his own to incite him to personal effort in his own behalf."

Ruhlin to Fight Jeffries.

New York, Nov. 12.—As a result of the challenge issued Saturday by James J. Jeffries, offering to fight Bob Fitzsimmons, Gus Ruhlin or Tom Sharkey, and a telegram from Fitzsimmons declining a match, on account of engagements lasting until May next, Jeffries last night made the following statement: "If Fitzsimmons does not come to terms by Wednesday I shall arrange to meet Ruhlin or Sharkey on terms to be agreed upon. It is my intention to fight at least once a year. My choice of battle ground would be Nevada, for there we could go to a finish, and in such a contest there would be no doubt as to who is the better man." Billy Madden, Ruhlin's manager, telegraphed last night that Ruhlin will at once post a forfeit to bind the match.

Herr Most Makes a Gentle Talk.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Herr Most, with his fierceness subdued to gentleness, was the orator here last night of the 13th anniversary of the execution of Anarchists Parsons, Spies, Fischer and Engel. The meeting was held in Central Music hall. The place was free of uniformed policemen. A few years ago police interference with the speakers was of frequent occurrence at the annual celebration. Except for notable increase in the number of attendants and the softening of the language used, the meeting differed from the previous annual gatherings only that Mrs. Lucy Parsons was conspicuous by her absence and that a big United States flag was displayed with the red flags used in the decoration of the stage.

New Claimant to Blythe Estate.

San Francisco, Nov. 12.—Concerning the claim of Jacob J. Haffner of New York to a share of the Blythe estate, the attorneys here who were connected with the litigation in the celebrated case say that Haffner has no standing, even if his claim is a valid one. The final distribution of the estate has been made and no one can change it. The Blythe case was in the probate court for 15 years before a final settlement was reached and the millions were awarded to Florence Blythe, now Mrs. A. A. Moore, Jr. Immediately following the order of distribution, which was confirmed by the supreme court, the legatees divided her inheritance with her attorneys. Over $2,000,000 was divided between the lawyers.

Funeral of James P. Mallon.

Fremont, Neb., Nov. 12.—The funeral of the late James P. Mallon was held yesterday afternoon from the family residence on F street and was very largely attended, many of his former business and political associates from this county and from Omaha and Lincoln being present. The services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Buss of the Congregational church. Triumph lodge, Knights of Pythias, attended in a body. The remains were followed to their last resting place in Ridge cemetery by the longest procession ever seen here.

Negro Minstrel Troupe in a Wreck.

Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 12.—An open switch caused the north-bound Missouri Pacific passenger train yesterday morning to take a siding in the yards here and to collide with a switch engine. Application of the brakes checked the speed, but the following colored passengers, members of a minstrel show, were injured: Arthur Maxwell, George H. Logan, Bud Lawrence, Harry Creighton, Thomas Madison and Richard Lewis.

Officer Kills a Gambler.

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 12.—Police Officer Charles S. Scott, after midnight, shot and killed Thomas Smith, a gambler. The shooting took place in the bar room of the Commercial club. It is alleged that Smith accused Scott of having had an article published reflecting on him. Scott denied the charge, when it is alleged, Smith undertook to assault the officer and the shooting followed.

IOWA'S CORN CROP.

Director Sage Says It Will Exceed Three Hundred Million Bushels.

Des Moines, Nov. 12.—"The corn crop in Iowa will still exceed the 300,000,000 mark," said Director John R. Sage of the weather crop service Saturday. "Reports from some of our reporters throughout the state indicate that the crop is going to be even larger than was at first estimated. The quality, however, will probably be somewhat impaired by the wet weather of the fall and the value of the crop will be lessened considerably. This will have comparatively little effect, however, as the great bulk of the corn crop is fed right here in the state and the merchantable value does not affect materially the value of the corn for home feeding purposes. Practically all the corn raised in Iowa is sold in live stock and the profits are always good. Probably two-thirds of the crop is in the crib by this time. A small percentage of the corn will be reduced in value by molding to the extent of 3 or 4 per cent per bushel perhaps. The fall has been too wet for the highest success of the grain crops in the state, although the yield will be as high as 40 or 41 bushels to the acre. Last year it was 36 and a fraction."

NEBRASKA'S VOTE.

Omaha Bee's Returns Elect Dietrich for Governor and the Entire Republican State Ticket.

Omaha, Nov. 12.—The Bee has complete returns on governor from every county in the state except McPherson and the vote in the county is less than 100. Two years ago it gave a plurality of one for Hayward. On the face of these returns Dietrich has a plurality of 1,021. On the minor state officials the Bee has returns from 80 counties, 72 of which are official and eight unofficial. The counties embraced in the totals for minor state officials this year gave Poynter a plurality of 70 and in the same counties the pluralities of the Republican officials range from 914 for Savage to 2,237 for Prout for attorney general. Marsh for secretary of state has 1,971, Weston for auditor 1,080, Stuefer for treasurer 2,025, Fowler for superintendent of public instruction 2,082, Folmer for commissioner of public lands and buildings 1,740.

According to the Bee the Republicans have 18 in the senate, the fusionists 12 and three in doubt. In the house there are 54 Republicans, 43 fusionists and three in doubt. It will require the official count to settle the doubtful ones.

SUPREME COURT'S PROGRAM

Three Important Cases to Be Decided at Its November Sitting.

Lincoln, Nov. 12.—The supreme court is expected to hand down decisions in three cases of unusual importance at its next sitting, which begins Nov. 21. On one decision depends the future of the state board of transportation, on another the collection of over $75,000 of delinquent taxes assessed against the Lincoln Traction company and the third will probably settle the controversy over the legality of several provisions of the Nebraska anti-trust law. It was semi-officially announced last week that the opinions in all these cases had been written, but for some unexplained reason they were withheld when court adjourned.

Many Dairymen Will Meet.

Storm Lake, Ia., Nov. 12.—It is expected that about 800 dairymen will be in attendance at the state convention, which opens tomorrow. A large machinery hall, well lighted and heated, will be devoted to the display of dairy supplies and butter exhibits and there will be an exciting contest for the gold and silver medals. One of the notable addresses is that of C. Y. Knight of Chicago, upon the subject of oleomargarine. Congressman Thomas will give his views upon the Grout bill.

Snyder Must Answer Double Charge.

Grinnell, Ia., Nov. 12.—Charles Snyder, giving his home at Monona county, near Maple Grove, has been captured by the officers near Albia, and will have to answer to the charge of horse stealing and murder. Snyder set fire to a valuable barn, on the Thomas Brannon place and stole the horse within, thinking the evidence of the theft would be hidden by the ashes of the fire, but no carcass was found, so the officers gave pursuit.

Cattle Poisoned by Corn Fungus.

Huron, S. D., Nov. 12.—Farmers and stockmen in this locality report losses of cattle by poison. The trouble is said to be from cattle eating corn stalks and corn husks. A sort of fungus gathers at the base of the corn and also in the lower part of the stalk, which finds its way into the stomach of the animal, and, failing to be cast off by natural sources, causes indigestion and death soon results.

Lumber Concern to Leave Dubuque.

Dubuque, Nov. 12.—A sensation was caused by the announcement that the Knapp-Stout Lumber company, employing 200 men, will give up the yards here and concentrate its whole business at St. Louis. It is the largest and oldest lumber firm in the Mississippi valley, having been in business in Dubuque nearly 50 years.

CHINA REJECTS A DEMAND

Declines to Assent to Prince Tuan's Punishment.

AGREEMENT IS REPORTED.

Powers Said to Have Reached a Definite Understanding in Regard to China—Serious Friction in the Peace Negotiations at Peking.

Rome, Nov. 12.—The Tribuna publishes the following from its Peking correspondent: "Li Hung Chang and Prince Ching have informed me that the demands of the powers for the punishment of Prince Tuan and the withdrawal from power of the officers are too humiliating to be accepted by the Chinese."

Berlin, Nov. 12.—The following is the full text of the statement, evidently inspired, in the Cologne Gazette, as to the understanding reached by the representatives of the powers in Peking regarding the Chinese settlement: "Four parleys between the envoys in Peking for the purpose of agreeing upon the fundamentals for peace negotiations proceeded favorably in the whole series of important points."

"An agreement has been reached between the powers, particularly regarding the punishment of the main culprits, the mandarins and princes; also regarding the witnessing of the execution of such punishments by representatives of the powers; also regarding the principle of paying damages to the several governments for the cost of the China expeditions, and for damages sustained by private persons and missions; also regarding the permanent stationing of sufficient guards for the Peking legations; also regarding the razing of the Taku forts, and, finally, regarding the maintenance of secure and regular communication between Peking and the seashore."

"About a number of other demands put forth by separate powers, negotiations are still pending."

London, Nov. 12.—"Serious friction has been caused in the peace negotiations in Peking," says the Daily Mail's correspondent at Tien Tsin, "by Belgium, Denmark and Holland and Spain clamoring to have a locus standi in any important discussions. Russia and France have supported their claims, which are opposed by the powers. Belgium is especially importunate and intensely pro-Russian."

SOUTH CHINA REBELLION.

Steamer Victoria Brings New Information From the Orient.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 12.—News was received by the steamship Victoria concerning the rebellion in south China. The Triads have broken out in Kwang Si, and Marshal Su, commander-in-chief of the imperial forces, is asking for 30,000 men to suppress them. The British have dispatched infantry and artillery to guard the Kowloon frontier. When the torpedo boat destroyer Handy was landing men she encountered a force of rebels and three shells among them as they advanced on San Chuan, routing them and killing 30.

A strong force of Kwang Si rebels, marching to join the Kwang Sing rebels, met and defeated the imperial troops near Kuangling and captured 30. A battle was fought at the San Tsou, on the Shan Tung-Chi Li border, Oct. 17, between imperial troops and Boxers. General Yuan, with troops numbering 8,000, and the Boxers with 12,000. Two thousand men were left to guard the Sang Chou, and General Mei, in charge of the imperial troops, gave battle outside. The battle lasted all day, and resulted in the defeat of the Boxers, with great loss. Their leader, Chen, refused to retreat, and when the fight was lost fought with 300 desperadoes in a ravine until all were killed. His head was taken and hung on the walls of the city. Six thousand rebels were killed.

Consul Goodman at Shanghai has made a summary of Boxer outrages, showing that 93 Americans and British missionaries were murdered and 170 other missionaries in Shan Si and Chi Li are missing.

Manchuria Lost to China.

London, Nov. 12.—Dr. Morrison, writing to the Times from Peking Saturday, says: "Li Hung Chang has not yet replied to Admiral Alexeff's invitation to resume the government of Manchuria under Russian protection. Russia will require the names of all officials to be submitted to her for approval. Her proposals are tantamount to military occupation and every Chinaman realizes that Manchuria is lost to China. Increasing alarm is felt here at the spread of the insurrection in the southern provinces. No surprise will be caused if Japan intervenes. The trade and financial outlook is very gloomy."

"All the Russian troops here," says a dispatch to the Times from Tien Tsin, dated Nov. 9, "are being withdrawn."
