2nd Big Shipment of those Spring and Summer Suits

$19.75

Sizes 33 to 40

Another shipment of these suits has just been unpacked. They are just as good as the previous ones—handsomely tailored garments for men and young men. The variety of patterns and colors is very large—the right assortment, too. Plenty of dark patterns and medium shades.

This shipment will go as quickly as the first, for they are remarkable values. They deserve your consideration. Come in at once—you can save $10.25 to $15.25 on each garment.

GEORGE H. COOKE FOUND DEAD FROM INHALING GAS

Florist, Popular in Masonic Circles, Was Former Head of Washington Club.

GEORGE H. COOKE.

George H. Cooke, florist at 1102 Connecticut avenue, was found dead in bed at his home, 1825 K street, this morning about 8:30 o'clock, having died as a result of inhaling illuminating gas. Because of the delay in his appearing at the breakfast table, his wife, Mrs. Sarah E. Cooke, went to his room to call him, and found him dead.

The deceased, a native of England, had been a resident of this city the past thirty-six years, having come to this country shortly before establishing a residence here. He was popular in Masonic circles, and was a favorite in the Washington Florists' Club, having served that organization as president.

Mr. Cooke was a member of Columbia Commandery, K. T. La Fayette Chapter, No. 5, R. A. M. Almas Temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, and Kallipolis Grotto. He is survived by his wife and daughter, Mrs. Edward NEIDOMANSKI. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

The coroner issued a certificate of accidental death.

PROF. R. T. H. HODGE.

MANASSAS, Va., June 3 (Special).—Prof. Benjamin Templeton Hodge, Confederate veteran, Mason and scholar, died here Sunday after a long illness and was buried Tuesday with Masonic ceremonies. Ewell Camp, Confederate veterans, attended the funeral in a body. Prof. Hodge was seventy-three years old and a native of the valley of Virginia. He had held the chairs of Greek and Latin at Eastern College for ten years and more recently had been engaged in special work at the Washington navy yard. He leaves a wife, who was Miss Chloé Elizabeth Lay of Montreal, Canada, for many years head of the department of music at a school at Abingdon, Va., and now is employed in the Manassas public schools. A brother, Milton Hodge of Washington, and a sister, Mrs. Clifford of Lynchburg, also survive.
