Additional Local.

A. O. Duncombe of Keeler was in town Monday.

Mrs. Lila Longwell visited in Paw Paw last week.

J. F. Taylor and family will occupy the R. O. Beebe residence.

Misses Glidden and Harwick of Mattawan took dinner at the Dyckman yesterday.

W. R. Helms and family, with a party of guests, had a picnic at Lake Park last Friday.

Fred Dibble, the barber, suddenly left town. His place in Taylor's shop is filled by a Benton Harbor man.

R. A. Shoemith has purchased C. D. Thayer's furniture stock. Mr. Thayer expects to leave Paw Paw.

John H. Charles and son of Fairmount, Ind., have been spending a few days in town. Mr. Charles contemplates moving his family here if he can find a suitable house.

Bert McLeod returned from his western trip Tuesday evening. Mrs. James McLeod, who went with him, arrived home Saturday.

E. E. Napier of South Haven was arraigned before Justice Mason, August 25, charged with a violation of the local option law. He waived examination and was bound over to the circuit court.

Col. Rood and daughter Edith of South Haven came to Paw Paw yesterday. Miss Edith remains for a week, the guest of Miss Matie Cooley. The Roods will go soon to Phoenix, Arizona, for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. King and Mrs. Wm. Baylis, who have been visiting W. R. Helms and family, returned Saturday to Benton Harbor. Mesdames Helms and Brown, who left with them, are visiting at Paw Paw Lake.

Deputy Sheriff Chappell went to South Haven yesterday with a warrant for Eva Mackin, for violation of the local option law. She was brought to Paw Paw on the evening train and released on $300 bail pending examination.

J. Henry Myers of Alamo, well known in Paw Paw through his manipulation of the Paw Paw Cereal company, is in trouble again. He is under arrest for assaulting his neighbor Jabe Higgins, and his wife has begun proceedings for divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty.

Charles H. Rogers of South Haven was arraigned before Justice Mason, August 23, on the charge of violating the local option law. He was released on $300 bail to appear for examination at 11 a. m., September 4. He is an employee on one of the Williams boats, and it is alleged he brought liquor from Chicago to South Haven.

V. B. Conklin, Bowersville, O., says: "I received more benefit from Foley's Kidney Cure than from months of treatment by physicians." Take no substitute. E. B. Longwell.

LADIES' CLUBS.

ENTERTAINED ROYALLY AT LAWRENCE YESTERDAY.

The Coterie of Paw Paw, the Isabella club of Lawton, the Every Tuesday club of Decatur and the Hartford Woman's club were the guests of the Longfellow club at Lawrence, yesterday, about 100 of the visiting ladies being present. The guests were met at the trains and escorted to the pleasant homes of Mrs. Hess and Mrs. Harry Martin, where delightful informal receptions were held. The company then went to the opera house, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and an elaborate mid-day dinner was faultlessly served. After the dinner, the following fine program was given by the Lawrence club:

Instrumental duet—Miss Barnes and Rockwell
Love's Old, Sweet Song—Ladies' Quartette
The Robin's Song—

Vocal solo—Una Chapman, Gladys Blodgett
Indignant Nellie—Louise Rockwell
Whistling solo—Gertrude Barrows
All Aboard for Sleepy Land—Miss Blodgett
Instrumental solo—Miss Rockwell
Old Folks at Home—Ladies' Quartette

The guests then took trains for home, all praising the lavish hospitality of the hostesses, and agreeing that the occasion was one of the most enjoyable of the many similar ones participated in by the women's clubs.

Corbett knocked out "Kid" McCoy last night at New York in the 5th round.

What most people want is something mild and gentle, when in need of a physic. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets fill the bill to a dot. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Longwell Bros.

County and State.

The Catholics have decided to build a church in South Haven next spring.

At the adjourned meeting of the common council last Friday night, a resolution was presented and adopted to offer Anderson Bros. $45 per year each for six arc lights to be placed on Main and Center streets. Anderson Bros. say they will accept the proposition providing they can secure a sufficient number of incandescent lights to go with them.—Hartford Day Spring.

It Helped Win Battles.

Twenty-nine officers and men wrote from the front to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for burns, skin eruptions and piles. 25c a box; cure guaranteed. Sold by Longwell Bros. druggists.

Marriage Licenses.

Elmer Hughes, 20; Mary E. Miller, 16, both of Bangor.
Otto H. Stiller, 31, Danville, Ill.; Ethel B. Cook, 23, Chicago.

"Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach," says O. P. M. Holliday of Denning, Ind. "His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four or five drops in a teaspoonful of water and he got better at once." For sale by Longwell Bros.

New Suits.

The people vs. E. E. Napier; violation of local option law; four cases. There are now six cases pending against Mr. Napier for illegal sales of intoxicating liquor, in each of which he is under bonds to appear for trial at the September term of court.

The people vs. Thomas Murphy and William Long; burglary; two cases. These respondents are the parties charged with breaking into the barber shops of L. P. Greenman and W. G. Roberts at Lawrence and stealing from each shop a lot of razors and other barbers' tools and utensils. For want of $500 bail in each case, the respondents are in jail awaiting trial in the circuit court.

Francis W. Sollick vs. George Crawford et al; assumpsit.

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long of New Straitsville, Ohio, saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes, this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of its power to cure all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c. and 81. Guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Longwell Bros. drug store.

Coroners—A. G. Six of Lawrence and O. M. Vaughn of Covert.
Member of legislature—E. A. Chase of Waverly.

The laws of health require that the bowels move once each day and one of the penalties for violating this law is piles. Keep your bowels regular by taking a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when necessary, and you will never have that severe punishment inflicted upon you. Price 25c. For sale by Longwell Bros.

In India, the land of famine, thousands die because they cannot obtain food. In America, the land of plenty, many suffer and die because they cannot digest the food they eat. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. It instantly relieves and radically cures all stomach troubles. E. B. Longwell.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure, no pay. Price 25 cents.

It will surprise you to experience the benefit obtained by using the dainty and famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers. E. B. Longwell
