

BRIG. GEN. DAVISON DIES AT FOX HILLS

Left His Desk at Hoboken to Go Straight to His Death Bed.

Lieut. Col. Peter W. Davison, who served through the war with the temporary rank of Brigadier General, died yesterday at the Fox Hills, N. L., military hospital. He had been there about three weeks suffering from cerebral thrombosis. His wife was at his bedside. The body will be taken to the mortuary chapel of the Port of Embarkation, Hoboken, and plans are being made for a military ceremony.

Col. Davison had been ill for a long time before he permitted himself to stop work, and when he did stop he went straight from his office at Hoboken to his death bed.

Early in the war he was stationed at Camp Kearney, Calif., with the 16th Division. He was succeeded there by Major General David Shanks.

JURY COMPLETED AT TRIAL OF FRITZ

Trial of Taxi Driver as Slayer of Mrs. Coyne Begun in the Bronx.

After the twelfth juror had been sworn in this morning the trial of Ernest Fritz, taxi driver, accused of the murder of Mrs. Florence Coyne on March 23, at last got under way.

District Attorney Martin declared in his opening address that the prosecution will attempt to show that an instrument was used in the murder.

Leo J. Ehrhart, a civil engineer employed by the District Attorney's office as a special investigator, was the first witness. He described the windings of the road through the Bronx botanical gardens taken by the taxicab in which Mrs. Coyne's body was found.

Mrs. Mary Glennon, mother of Mrs. Coyne, declared her daughter was in good health. Maury Topper, No. 41 Park Row, for whom Mrs. Coyne worked as a private secretary, testified. She was a cheerful, capable employee.

INFLUENZA STILL WANING

Causes Again Drop, but Copeland
Warns of Caution.

Health Commissioner Copeland made no public statement to-day on the influenza epidemic beyond expressing the hope that, weather conditions being what they are, New York will continue to wear its rubbers.

Reports for the twenty-four-hour period ending at 10 A. M. showed 714 new cases of influenza and 336 of pneumonia, a drop of 168 and 310 respectively, with 56 deaths from the "flu" and 91 from pneumonia. Deaths from "flu" were 40 below yesterday's and from pneumonia 45 below.

The epidemic is disappearing, Dr. Copeland believes, but he is disturbed about the weather.

SEEKS BODY OF DEAD WIFE.

That the body of his wife, Giovanna, disappeared from a receiving vault at Calvary Cemetery, on Oct. 13, 1918, a day after her death, and that he has been unable to discover where she had been buried, is the allegation of Gaetano Riparisoni, an insurance collector of No. 441 East 117th Street, who is suing the trustees of St. Patrick's Cathedral for $100,000. Summons in the action was filed in County Clerk Schneider's office to-day.

Mrs. Riparisoni died of pneumonia. When the funeral party arrived at the receiving vault to arrange for burial, alleges Riparisoni, the body had disappeared.
