DEMOCRATS' PLATFORM SILENT ON LIQUOR: SEE 600 FIRST BALLOT VOTES FOR M'ADOO

BRYAN TO FIGHT ON FLOOR OF CONVENTION FOR 'DRY' AND ANTI-LEAGUE PLANKS

Only Sympathy Offered Ireland In Party Platform. Friends May Also Battle In Open For Full Recognition of Freedom — Compulsory Arbitration and Anti-Strike Legislation Is Opposed

WILSON LOSES TWO POINTS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2 (United Press).—The Democratic platform as drafted by the committee on resolutions, was submitted to the party's national convention by Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, chairman of the resolutions committee, this morning. It does not mention the "wet" and "dry" issue, over which a big fight looms in open convention.

As it went to the convention the platform was in thorough accord with President Wilson's views, except on two points—the League of Nations and the Armenian mandate.

Commendation of the League of Nations covenant coupled with condemnation of the Republican attitude was so sweeping, administration leaders declared, that the insertion of Senator Walsh's amendment stating that the party does not oppose resolutions "making clearer or more specific the obligations of the United States" did not in the slightest weaken the force of the plank.

On the Armenian question the full committee eliminated a provision for acceptance of a mandate recommended by the sub-committee. This action was taken in the face of a definite recommendation to Congress by the President that the United States take the mandate, and resulted, committee members said, from a generally feeling that the country does not favor the Armenian mandate or any interference by the United States in the affairs of foreign nations.

The Platform In a Nutshell

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2 (United Press.)—Following are the outstanding features of the platform drafted by the committee on resolutions and submitted to the Democratic National Convention this morning by Chairman Carter Glass of the committee on resolutions:

"Wet" and "Dry" Issue.

Complete silence.

Budget.

Defends President Wilson's veto of the budget bill and advocates a budget system partially under direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, with consolidated auditing.

Postal Service.

Commends Democratic administration of the postal service and makes a blanket declaration for higher salaries for postal employes. Advocates greater uses of minor vehicles in transportation of mail and extension of the parcel post.

Free Speech.

Declares for free speech and free press, except so far as it may attack the life of the nation.

Agriculture.

Praises the Democratic record in establishing farm loan banks and other farm legislation. Indorses collective bargaining and researches into production costs.

Labor.

Follows the Virgina plank in declaring strikes and lockouts should not jeopardize the paramount public interests, but adds a statement of opposition to compulsory arbitration. Favors readjustment of salaries of government employes.

Suffrage.

Congratulates Legislatures that have ratified the suffrage amendment and urges Democratic Governors and Legislatures of Tennessee, North Carolina and Florida to complete ratification in time for women to vote this fall.

Women in Industry.

Declares against child labor. Favors legislation for child welfare and maternity care. Advocates increases in teachers' salaries. Urges extension of vocational education, better conditions for working women, and reclassification of the civil service with a view to equality of the sexes. Indorses separate citizenship for married women.

Soldier Compensation.

Advocates generosity to disabled soldiers, but declares against excessive bond issues to pay compensation which would put patriotism on a pecuniary basis.

Preamble.

Sends greeting to President Wilson, commending his achievements in the interest of the country and of the whole world. Condemns in general terms the Republican Congress.

League of Nations.

Repeats the Virginia plank with little variation, condemning the action of the Senate Republicans in adopting reservations and the separate peace resolution, and advocating ratification of the peace treaty and such membership in the League of Nations as would in no wise impair national integrity or independence.

Conduct of the War.

Praises the Administration's conduct of the war, commending the patriotic efforts of American citizens to aid the Government and praises the military and naval forces, with mention of General Pershing by name.

Finance.

Again incorporates the language of the Virginia Democrats in extolling the Federal reserve system and the financing of the war and in condemning the Republicans for extravagance.

Taxation.

Criticizes the Republican Congress for failing to revise wartime tax schedules and demands a survey of conditions by the coming Congress. Denies Republican claims of economy, declaring that no money was saved except at the expense of the efficiency of government bureaus.

High Cost of Living.

Blames diminished production for high prices and declares the Republicans are responsible in that they de-

U. S. GUNS TO RESCUE OF AMERICANS HELD BY TURKS

WASHINGTON, July 2 United Press).—A United States destroyer has been dispatched to Mersina, to secure the release of Paul Nilson and his wife, Americans, of the mission school at Tarsus, Cilicia, Asia Minor, who have been captured by Turkish nationalists, the State Department was advised today by Admiral Bristol, American high commissioner at Constantinople.

The advices from Admiral Bristol also gave what is believed to be the first official news that six other Americans had been taken by Turkish nationalists at Hadjin, in the mountainous region of Cilicia. These Americans were well as late as April 29, Bristol reported. All efforts are being made to secure reliable information concerning those whose names are not known here.

Mrs. Nilson is a daughter of Prof. H. A. Fischer, of Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ills.

The dispatch today from Bristol gave the first news that her husband had also been taken by the Turks. The French are holding Turkish hostages against the release of the Nilsons, and vigorous representations have been made to the Turkish government at Constantinople.

EFFORT TO SELL BONDS AT PAR

Chamber of Commerce to Put Over B. and O. Bridge Proposition

$17,000 of $67,000 ALREADY SUBSCRIBED

Sale of the entire issue of $67,000 in bonds to pay for converting the old Baltimore and Ohio railroad bridge over the Brandywine for use by general traffic, has been undertaken by the Chamber of Commerce, it was announced today. Of the total amount, $17,000 worth of the securities already have been subscribed at par by public-spirited citizens and the Chamber is confident of obtaining subscriptions for the remaining $50,000, also at par from other residents of this city and county.

When the bonds were advertised by the Levy Court, last month only one bid was received, owing to the congested condition of the bond market. This bid was for $55,327, for the entire issue of $67,000, or at a discount of 17.42 per cent. It was refused.

Undaunted by this set-back, the Chamber of Commerce, which has boomed the bridge project from its inception, realizing the necessity for such a structure to care for traffic during the rebuilding of the Washington street span, now has appealed for private subscriptions at par.

The bonds bear 4 1-2 per cent. interest, are in denominations of $1,000

EQUAL CHANCE FOR ALL PUPILS

Dr. Finegan Makes Strong Address Before Summer School

DISCUSS PRESENT DAY PROBLEMS

Special to The Evening Journal.

NEWARK, Del., July 2 (Special)—"The time is not far off when the public schools of this country will be open the year around, twelve months each year. I see no reason why we should turn children out of the schools in summer time to roam the streets at will. It takes a month to tame them when they return to school in September."

This statement was made last night by Dr. Thomas N. Finegan, superintendent of public instruction for Pennsylvania in an appeal before the Delaware College Summer School for an equalization of opportunities in education. Dr. Finegan gave the first of a series of lectures before the school that are to be made by leading educators. His subject was "Some of the immediate demands of the public schools."

In his opening remarks Dr. Finegan stated that he was glad to know that Delaware College is being utilized for the benefit of all in education throughout the state. "An institution of this kind should be the expression of the life of the state. It should be so organized that it will reach down through the public school sys-

WOMAN DENIES TIFF WITH ELWELL

NEW YORK, June 2 (Unit[illegible] Press).—Miss Viola Kraus, who was with Joseph Howne Elwell on the eve of the murder of the whist wizard and turfman, was examined for three hours by Assistant District Attorneys yesterday, District Attorney Edward Swann revealed today.

Swann said Miss Kraus did not refuse to answer any questions; that she had never made a threat against Elwell and that she never had a controversy over him with any other woman.

Miss Karus said she had known Elwell eight years, Swann announced.

Miss Kraus was questioned by Assistant District Attorneys Dooling, Joyce and Unger for three hours at the home of Walter Lewishon, her brother-in-law, with whom she lives. The Lewishon's are among the leaders in a certain social set in New York and are reputed to be worth millions.

The district attorney's statement said that he had been shown a cablegram in which Miss Ann Kane, former housekeeper for Elwell, accused a woman known to her as "Miss Wilson" with making threats against the life of Elwell.

McADOO, COX, EDWARDS SET PACE AMONG DEMOCRATS IN RACE FOR PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION TODAY

Developments Indicate That None of Three Leading Candidates Has Strength Sufficient to Win Unaided—President's Son-in-Law May Not Get More Than 600 Votes Before Deadlock Is Disclosed

BRYAN MAY HALT BALLOTING

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—With the business of selecting a Presidential nominee finally in sight by the Democratic National Committee developments revealed that none of the candidates has sufficient strength to win unaided.

From reliable sources it was learned that the best William G. McAdoo can possibly hope to roll up by calling upon all reserve strength, is barely 600, more than 100 short of a choice.

At the same time, Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer is expected to attain his maximum individual strength around 500 and Governor James M. Cox about 400.

These figures are overlapping because a great amount of the second choice strength of each of the leading candidates is held by some other two and none can attain his full quota of reserve delegates until one or both of his principal rivals have begun to lose ground.

Political observers believed McAdoo would lead from the first ballot with Palmer close behind and Cox a poor third. Each was expected to increase his vote ballot by ballot until possiby the fifth when it was expected the Attorney General would reach his limit and his following begin to disintegrate. Providing this transpired as forecast both McAdoo and Cox

BEATEN WOMAN IS NEAR DEATH

Mrs. Peldyzk Perhaps Fatally Stomped in Quarrel With Husband

LAY UNCONSCIOUS IN COUNTY ROAD

Jake Peldyzk, of Boxwood, (near Richardson Park) was arrested this morning by State Detective Frank W. McCoy and Constable George Whittington, near Sixth and Madison streets, and locked up at the police station charged with an assault on his wife with intent to commit murder. He is held without bail. Mrs. Peldyzk is in Delaware Hospital in a critical condition.

According to the information obtained by the officers, Peldyzk beat his wife severely shortly before 6 o'clock this morning, chased her out of their home while only partially clothed, and, when she fell in the yard, Peldyzk is said to have run out from the house and jumped on the body of his prostrate wife with both feet. The assault is said to have been repeated. Peldyzk declaring he would kill the woman. He finally left her lying in the yard and went into the house, presumably to secure a gun that he kept there. During his absence Mrs. Peldyzk struggled to her feet and ran about a quarter of a mile from her home and then fainted. Her body lay by the roadside from 6 to 9 a. m., uncared for, as the neighbors were afraid to interfere. Finally, Constable George Whittington was summoned and, finding the woman in a serious condition, secured the services of a nearby physician, who ordered the woman sent to the hospital. Aided by some women in the neighborhood, Whittington took the injured woman to the Delaware Hospital, then securing State Detective McCoy started in pursuit of Peldyzk, who was supposed to be at Lynch's morocco factory, Sixth and Monroe streets.

Peldyzk evidently was expecting the officers and when they appeared at the factory he secreted himself in a nearby house. He was soon overpowered, however, and dragged from his hiding place. When questioned at the police station, Peldyzk seemed indifferent as to the condition of his wife and refused to make any statement.

The injuries of Mrs. Peldyzk and the imprisonment of her husband leaves five small children alone and unprovided for, and, according to the officers, very much in need of assistance.

TO KILL CATS THAT KILL PARK BIRDS

Tabby owners whose homes adjoin City Park lands are liable to be minus their pets unless such pets cease possessing the animal instinct to hunt birds. For some time it has been noticed in several of the city parks that cats were waxing fat on robins and other birds.

As a result the bird population of the parks has been more or less depleted.

Park guards in the parks are now trying to ascertain how many birds are being killed. If it is found that the cats' depredications must stop, traps may be placed in the parks to capture all cats wandering there.

Felines so captured, will be killed.

MORE ROOM FOR COUNCIL CLERK.

GERMANS BALK ON INDEMNITY

Any Sum Approaching One Hundred Milliards, impossible, They Say

EXPECT ITALY TO OPPOSE FRANCE

BERLIN, July 1 (United Press) (Night)—In two notes delivered at Paris today Germany laid the ground work for her contention that any sum approaching one hundred millions ($100,000,000,000) as an indemnity to be collected by the Allies is impossible. The notes contained views of prominent German industrial and financial leaders regarding possibility of payment of a large indemnity.

Although the foreign office did not make public the contents of the notes it was understood they set forth in strong terms that Germany could not pay the high indemnity fixed by the Allies. The notes were sent to guide delegates to Spa in preliminary discussions.

It was learned today that Germany does not intend to keep her representatives at Spa if the Allies desire to deliver only prepared decisions. Officials said the German delegates would quit the conference if they found they were to act merely as messengers for the Allies to deliver a series of notes.

However, if the Allies really intend to conduct a face to face discussion with the German representatives for the purpose of reaching equitable decisions, Germany will be prepared to name sub-committees to work out the various problems on a scientific basis, it was stated.

Considerable stress was laid in some quarters on the hope that Italy would support Germany on the indemnity question. It was also hoped that England would take a neutral stand leaving France alone, seeking a high indemnity.

TRACTION CO. SHORT OF COAL

Is Operating on Day to Day Deliveries Since Railroad Strike

RESERVE SUPPLY OF FUEL CONSUMED

That the Wilmington and Philadelphia Traction Company is facing a coal shortage was stated today by Thomas W. Wilson, vice-president and general manager of the company. He said the company's fuel supply has dwindled to such an extent that it has become alarming and unless remedied may impair the company's operations in the near future.

The company had an adequate supply of coal until the railroad strike and the congestion of freight occured, Mr. Wilson said. Since then deliveries of coal to the company have fallen off, and the reserve supply of fuel has been eaten into rapidly.

"We are now living from day to day," said Mr. Wilson, "and if we should fail to receive coal for a day or two, our operations would be seriously hampered."

Regarding the trouble on Tuesday that tied up traffic and shut off electric power for awhile, Mr. Wilson said the first trouble Tuesday evening was caused by one of three main cables at the plant burning out. While it was being repaired, a second cable burned out Wednesday afternoon, leaving but one cable intact.

"These cables cost us five times what they would have cost before the war, and are supposed to be the best," said Mr. Wilson. "Our force worked twenty-four hours without resting to repair the cables and make new cable connections. It was while they were working on the first disabled cable to make temporary repairs that the second one went down."

TINSMAN ISN'T AUTO 'HOLDUP'

Constable William Tinsman said this morning that someone has been holding up automobiles on the Concord Pike and levying fines upon the drivers. The amounts known to have been collected in "settlement" during the past week have varied from a quart of whiskey to $125 in cash.

"The action is unlawful," said Mr. Tinsman, "and as one of these "officers" has represented himself to be constable Tinsman I want the public to know the truth. No constable has a right to settle a case on the public highway, and said settlements are nothing more than highway robbery. I hope the offenders will be caught and punished."
