Must Pay Teacher

TRENTON, Feb. 9.—State Commissioner of Education John Enright today ordered the Board of Education of Riverside, Burlington county, to pay the salary of Mrs. Nancy Wesley White, a colored teacher, from September 5 until her contract ends for this school year, or until thirty days' notice has been given the teacher. The Riverside board refused to fulfill a contract it made with the teacher on the ground that Mrs. White secured the position by fraud.

THEATRES

Coming to the Strand

"Under Two Flags" is one of the few really great stories.

A love epic immortal, a tragedy sublime, "Under Two Flags" captured the heart of the world when it came as a novel from the pen of Ouida (Louise de La Ramee), and its growth in popularity was heightened by its presentation on the stage by many renowned artists, including Blanche Bates. Now it has been made into a picture by the Universal Film Company, and will be seen here Monday at the Strand theatre. Priscilla Dean, than whom there is no more magnetic figure on the screen, breathes the fire of her dynamic personality into the role of Cigarette, idol of a French regiment at Algiers.

There are street scenes in "Under Two Flags" that give a true insight of the life of the masses in this French province of northern Africa. The military pomp of an army post is accurately presented. And the oppressive luxury surrounding the pampered beauties of a sheik's harem add picturesque color to this dramatic film.

The technical staff at Universal City, a group of highly trained experts, spent months of study preparing for this production. Every interior setting, every street scene, was constructed with faithful accuracy. Hundreds of photographs of different parts of Algiers were obtained to guide them in their work. Not an inharmonious note was allowed to creep in.

The result is that those seeing "Under Two Flags" might well imagine they are spending an evening in the African desert. While the picture is superb as a spectacle, it is also a work of great historic value. Tod Browning, the director, has developed the romance of the tale in masterly fashion.

Lillian Morton at Crescent

Today the Crescent offers that late star of the "Pom Pom" show, Lillian Morton. Miss Morton was an instant hit when she appeared behind the footlights at the performances yesterday and last night, and her dainty singing created no little comment. The Crescent also features four other wonderful acts, as follws: Johnny Singers and girls, unique singing novelty; Carl Seatatzer and company, "The New Detective"; Rose brothers, comedy entertainers; Owens and Kelly, Golden Gate syncopators.

The photoplay offering for the last three days of this week is "Thelma," a wondefur production, featuring Jane Novak. Here is a picture that keeps you guessing from the first to the last reel. It is impossible to decide before the very last foot of film how the story is going to turn out and its ending has been the cause of considerable comment wherever it has shown.

For the last three days of this week, the Crescent also offers the second episode of Perl White, in "Plunder." This is one of the finest chapter plays ever produced and is proving a sensation. A Harold Lloyd comedy and a news completes the program.
