

Local and Personal.

Town and Country.

Miss Ida Cecelia Jarboe, of Montrose, this county, and Mr. Robert Edwin Latimer, of Washington, were married last Saturday at the home of the bride.

Don't forget the Young People's Meeting at the Emory M. E. Church, Oakdale, on Sunday, December 7th, 1919, at 7:30 P. M. Everybody come. All welcome.

A pie social and entertainment will be given at Avery school on Thursday evening, December 11th, 1919, at 8 o'clock. Come one, come all and enjoy a social evening.

The Hermon and Croyley Presbyterian Churches will hold union services at Croyley next Sunday at 10 A. M. Rev. George S. Duncan will preach. Everyone must come.

On Friday, December 12th, 1919, there will be an oyster supper held in the Central M. E. Church South, Woodmont, Bethesda, from 5:30 to 8 P. M. Supper, 75 cents.

Miss Mary Belle Burroughs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Burroughs, of Seneca, this county, and Mr. James M. Calvert, of Mt. Rainier, Md., were married in Baltimore on November 10th, 1919, the ceremony being performed by Rev. James M. Wallace.

Wm. Keys, a laborer, was instantly killed near Barnesville several days ago, when he was struck by a Baltimore and Ohio train. In getting out of the way of a west-bound passenger train he walked in front of a freight train going in the opposite direction. He is survived by his wife.

The garage on the premises of Mr. W. Vernon Beall, of this town, was destroyed by fire early last Monday evening, containing a five-passenger Oldsmobile car, which was also consumed. The loss is placed at $2,000 and the insurance is $1,650. The cause of the fire has not been determined.

Mr. Millard Belt, who farms near Avery, this county, had the fingers of his right hand badly mangled a few days ago when caught in a corn shucking machine. After the occurrence he entered a Washington city hospital for treatment, and it was found that amputation was necessary to give him relief. The accident happened to Mr. Belt while shucking his home crop.

Mrs. Essie B. Duval, of this county, has filed suit in the Circuit Court here for an absolute divorce from H. Marshall Duval, of Baltimore, charging desertion. She also seeks the custody of the couple's three minor children—William, Martin and Clifford Duval. The bill represents that the couple were married August 1st, 1903, and lived together until September 11th, 1916.

Mrs. Lucy Biddle Lewis, of Lansdowne, Pa., will speak at the Sandy Spring Meeting House of the Society of Friends on Sunday, December 7th. Everyone is invited to come to the morning meeting for worship at 10:30 o'clock, bring a basket lunch, and stay to the afternoon meeting at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Lewis was one of those sent by the U. S. Government to the International Congress of Women in Switzerland and will talk of her most interesting experiences abroad.

The Bank of Bethesda, recently organized under the laws of Maryland with a capital of $25,000 and a surplus of $5,000, began business last Monday morning in temporary quarters in the Gate House, at Edgemoor, near Bethesda. Its officers are president, Walter R. Tuckerman; vice-presidents, Edward L. Stock and George P. Sacks; cashier, Walter Bogley. A permanent home for the bank will soon be erected at the intersection of the Rockville-Georgetown pike and the Old Georgetown road, near Bethesda.

The County Commissioners have awarded to the Henry F. Voght Company, of Washington, the contract for improving Brown's lane, which connects the Georgetown-Rockville pike and the Bethesda-Beane pike, the price being $11,000. The road to be improved is about four-fifths of a mile in length. The Commissioners estimate the cost of the work at four-fifths of a mile in length.

The two new members of the Board of County Commissioners, of this county, Lawrence A. Chiswell, of the 3rd district, and Harry J. Hunt, of the 4th district, were sworn in and took their seats on Tuesday last. The board was organized by the reelection of John R. Lewis president. Berry E. Clark was again elected clerk and treasurer to the board. Mr. Clark, with the approval of the Commissioners, re-appointed Thomas D. Griffith, W. W. Welsh, Thomas Gott and Miss M. V. Darby assistant clerks. Bowie F. Waters was re-elected attorney to the board.

The A. Y. L. I. Club of Germantown met at the home of Miss Eulalie Boland on Wednesday, November 13th. Although the weather was inclement, most of the club members and quite a number of visitors were present. The response to the roll call was "A Naval Hero." A most interesting paper on "Aviation" was then read by Mrs. Eugene Waters, after which the afternoon was given over to Miss Cowell, who made a plea for hot lunches for the school children, and Miss Annie Wilson, who gave one of her pleasing talks on "Art." Most enjoyable refreshments were served.

Enos C. Keys and Paul Sieman, treasurers of the Democratic and Republican State Central Committees for this county, have filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court here, as required by law, sworn statements of the receipts and expenditures of their committees during the recent campaign. According to the statement of Mr. Keys, his committee received $2,775.90 and expended $3,149.75, leaving a deficit of $373.85, while the Republican committee is shown by Mr. Sieman's statement to have received $903.50 and expended $889.85, leaving a balance of $14.75.

After being out but 17 minutes, the jury in the trial of Clarence Cochran, charged with the murder of John T. Watson, Philadelphia chauffeur, brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree, without capital punishment. Cochran is the man who has been indicted in this county upon the charge of killing chauffeur Jones, colored, near Beltsville last June. The trial was at Belair, Harford county, Md., removed from Cecil county. When the young prisoner heard the verdict he smiled, and was apparently pleased. Pending action on a motion for a new trial, the court suspended sentence.

The Woman's Club of Bethesda met on Tuesday, November 26th, at Mrs. Wm. Boss' residence, in Bethesda. Miss Katherine Howard, of the Treasury Department, gave an interesting talk on "Thrift" and told what the government hoped for from the women of the country in the way of saving. Mr. Diviney, who is in charge of the "Community Sing" in Washington, spoke on his work and described what a real place it had made for itself in the life of the city. Both speakers were warmly applauded and a rising vote of thanks given both. The next meeting of the club will be held at Mrs. J. Givrin Peter's residence, in Edgemoor, on December 10th.

Henry A. Donaldson, of Washington, is the defendant in a suit for an absolute divorce filed in the Circuit Court here by Mrs. Cherry Donaldson, of this county. Mrs. Donaldson asks to be allowed to resume her maiden name and to be allowed counsel fees and permanent alimony. The bill sets forth that the couple were married January 18, 1908, and lived together until March 24 of the same year. The bill also states that on January 31, 1913, the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia rendered a decree directing the defendant to pay Mrs. Donaldson $1,000 permanent alimony, at the rate of $80 per month, and $250 court fees.

The Polesville District Farmers' Club has been organized at Polesville with fifty-five members and the following officers: President, A. Dawson Trundle; vice-president, Charles M. Williams; secretary-treasurer, Norman Wootton. The club was organized under the auspices of the Montgomery County Farm Bureau, which is engaged in forming similar clubs in all parts of the county. Twenty-five members of the Polesville club joined the farm bureau, bringing the total membership of the bureau up to about 250. The meeting at Polesville was addressed by Messrs. John W. Henderson, Fred J. Van Hoesen, Dawson Trundle and P. F. Gormley.

This is Victory Week in the Baptist 75-Million Drive and every effort is being made throughout the Southland to "go over the top." Maryland's quota is $750,000 and already more than $811,000 has been secured, with a number of churches as yet unreported. No district seems to be making a better showing than Montgomery county, the county quota being over-subscribed and more money still coming in. Rev. P. Rowland Wagner, County Organizer, makes the following report: Barnesville, $1,049.00; Seneca, Lower, $400.00; Seneca, Upper, $2,030.00; Polesville, $528.00; Travilah, $701.00; Mt. Zion, $1,840.00; Rockville, $6,100.00. Total, $12,848.00.

Red Cross Christmas Seals will be on sale again this year and it is hoped that every thinking person will see the great opportunity thus afforded to assist a great cause in a little way. The sale will continue from December 1st to the 10th, and the allotment for this county is $925.00. Naturally we are very anxious to come up to the quota. The money realized from the sale of these seals goes to the prevention and relief of tuberculosis. Seventy-five per cent. will be used for Montgomery county. Seals in any quantity may be had by applying either by letter, phone or in person to the office of the Social Service League of Montgomery County, in Rockville. All ministers, or others who can help by giving advertisement or assistance, are requested to do so.

The Clerk of the Circuit Court here has issued so far this year 3,475 residents' licenses, of which 3,229 were hunters' county licenses, 111 resident State-wide licenses and 135 non-resident State-wide licenses. The total is about 350 in excess of the total issued during the year 1918. This year's fees aggregate $5,134, all of which will be turned over to the State Game Warden. It is understood to be doubtful if any game will be available for liberating purposes in this county this year. Efforts to obtain game of various kinds last year to turn loose in the various counties of the State met with such little success that the State game authorities decided to go into the propagating business themselves. To this end several hundred acres of land in Baltimore county have been obtained as a propagating farm, and on this tract it is planned to raise partridges, rabbits, pheasants, wild turkeys and even deer. It is believed that within a few years the annual supply from this farm will be sufficient to keep the State well stocked with all kinds of game.

An Enjoyable Affair.

The first of October a contest was started in the Rockville Christian Sunday School, the contestants being the men and women of the school. Credits were given to all coming to Sunday School on time, for lesson study, for visitors and for new scholars. The prize to be awarded to the winners was a bouquet furnished by the defeated. At the end of the time the women were declared winners by a small margin, and it thereby fell to lot of the men to furnish the prize. So, on Friday night, November 28th, a merry banquet was held in the Seco Hall, although it would be unfair to credit the men with its entire success. One long table through the center of the room was spread with meats, salads, pastries, pickles, jellies and other goodies, and around it sat sixty hungry people. Later a singing contest was held by the men, after which the members bid each other good night.

In every sense of the word, the contest was a success. Not quite two per cent. of the pupils were late during the seven weeks, the attendance was much better and several new members were added. It is hoped, however, since the contest is over, an equally good showing will be made on the part of every Sunday School pupil.

Two Prize Contests Of $100 Each.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy have offered two prize contests, of $100 each, for essays on "Peace" and "The Service of the Women of Maryland to the Confederate States." The first is a national contest, $100, for the best essay on "Peace," open only to students in their last year of high and preparatory schools. The second prize of $100 is offered by Mrs. Thomas Baxter Gresham, of the Baltimore Chapter, U. D. C., to any Marylander, by birth or adoption, for the best composition on "The Service of Maryland Women to the Confederate States."

These essays must reach the office of Mr. Edgar Allan Poe, in Baltimore, before April 23rd, 1920, the anniversary of the day on which James Ryder Randall wrote "Maryland, My Maryland."

Mrs. J. Frank Wilson, of Kensington, represents the local committee and will be glad to give full particulars to anyone who wishes to enter the contest.

Montgomery County Tuberculosis Sanitarium.

Many of the citizens of this county have reached a state of frenzied fear with regard to this disease, that halts all intelligent efforts to abate the dread scourge, and tends to perpetuate the disease amongst us.

Ignorant fear is hard to overcome, because it creates in the person an intense and fascinating excitement, similar to gambling or drunkenness; to oppose it, it is to make enemies and generally entails real sacrifice. It is easy to see how cheap capital is made out of the victims of this mania.

The people of Montgomery county are second to none in intelligence and high character, and it seems reasonable to believe that they will rise to this situation and deal with it intelligently and successfully, when the matter is brought home to them. New York State reports about thirty-five sanatoria for the treatment of tuberculosis; patients are received there with open welcome from all over the country, and the greatest State of the Union is proud of her great work in behalf of suffering humanity. Are the people of this splendid county—second to none in New York State and superior to most—to sit supinely, befogged in ignorance, and allow our fellow-citizens to suffer and die for want of proper care and medical attention? We don't think so; we do not merely think, but we know it will not be so.

We have asked for intelligent, high-minded leadership from the government of this State in the establishing of the sanitarium, and nothing has been accomplished; after years of waiting we have concluded that there must be a way, and we are determined to find it. The Social Service League, therefore, proposes to establish this sanitarium and begin the work, even though it be in the smallest possible way. We realize that we are hampered in our work to some extent, because we are a thorn in the conscience of a good many people; but we are satisfied that the good people of Montgomery will in due time rejoice in the ultimate achievements for better conditions of health and social welfare.

Communities will one day point with pride to the tuberculosis sanitarium in their midst as a visible evidence of their early enlightenment, their public spirit and splendid humanitarianism.

The need has become imperative in our county: as all intelligent people realize the terrible menace to public health by having these sufferers scattered all over the county, among farms and villages. These uncareless for sick close by every home are a real danger to all; and an annual death rate of forty-five is a convincing evidence. Montgomery lost forty-eight splendid soldiers during the war, and the feelings of every resident of the county were stirred to their depths, because of the great sacrifice; in heartfelt sympathy we have, if not in body, yet in mind, sat beside the bereaved at their desolate firesides. These same hearts and this intelligent sympathy can be as truly touched by the great sacrifice of these forty-five victims of tuberculosis; the loss of your gallant boys fire the imagination, but these other deaths are in our midst so largely unnecessary, the victims of ignorance and selfish indifference are too great a burden to the conscience to find a place in our hearts and mind just now; the local terror has become so great in parts of this county with regard to these afflicted people that threats of forcible ejection from their homes have come to our ears, and the objection to receiving them into any other home elsewhere is so great that they are in danger of becoming homeless outcasts.

Let us rise to the situation at once, in a way worthy of a civilized Christian people, and deal with this whole matter in an intelligent and comprehensive manner. Many people speak of a sanitarium as if the inmates were a band of fanatics who took a fiendish delight in infecting the whole neighborhood with their germs; whereas they are quite as sane and sane as the inmates of any other kind of hospital, being compelled to remain in bed until they have no fever and no further power of spreading the infection; after they get out of bed, they are required to remain to a large extent inactive and very soon return to their homes. Unless the sight of the buildings is a public menace to the mind, the sight of the patients therefore cannot very well be. As to the infection of the neighbors of a properly conducted sanitarium, the danger is infinitely less than it is in any neighborhood from the hundred or more cases to be found scattered in every county in the country. It would be a great thing for Montgomery county if some big-minded, whole-hearted man, with the virile manhood of our soldier boys, would come forward with the offer of a suitable location for a sanitarium; and say, I welcome the opportunity to help to save the lives of my fellow-men, and lift the debasing blight of ignorance and inhumanity from the minds of my fellow-citizens.

RED CROSS BULLETIN.

WASTED LIVES.

Tuberculosis kills producers—chiefly men and women between the ages of 15 and 45. It claims workers—active men and women in the homes, the office and the shop. It causes 150,000 deaths in the United States every year. It costs the United States in economic waste alone about $500,000,000 annually. More than 1,000,000 persons in this country are suffering from active tuberculosis right now. For Montgomery county this would be about 330. It menaces every community, every home and every individual. And yet tuberculosis is curable and preventable. It is spread largely by ignorance, carelessness and neglect.

The National Tuberculosis Association and its 1000 affiliated state and local organizations have a continuous, winning war on tuberculosis. The work of these organizations is financed chiefly by the sale of Red Cross Christmas Seals.

Drive the menace of tuberculosis from your door. Buy and use Red Cross Christmas Seals. PRESIDENT OF THE SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE.

The fourth regular meeting of the Rockville Woman's Club was held at the home of Mrs. Margaret Welsh November 28th, with the President, Mrs. H. Clinton Allnut, in the chair. The meeting was well attended. Responses, Current Events. Miss Daisy Magruder gave an interesting paper on Italy; Mrs. Helen Gassaway gave a Prout conducted a round-table on Italy and its Beauties. Refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be held December 11th.

Rural Carrier Examination.

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for Montgomery county, Md., to be held at Washington, D. C., and Rockville, Md., on December 13, 1919, to fill the positions of rural carriers at Bethesda and Clarksburg, and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other postoffices in the above-mentioned county. The examination will be open only to citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a postoffice in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. Admission of women will be limited to the widows of U. S. soldiers, sailors or marines, and to the wives of U. S. soldiers, sailors or marines who are physically disabled for examination by reason of injury received in line of military duty. The form and application blanks may be obtained from the offices mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.

"A Word To The Wise."

Have you heard the latest? Well, I'll tell you. Lieut. Valentine Wilson, after fourteen months of "gold bucking" in some of Uncle Sam's hospitals, has been caught up with at last and will be discharged from the army in the near future.

"And that isn't the half of it, dearie." He is coming back to Rockville and open the old Seco Theater and show the best pictures on the market. Of course, you will be able to get your plumbing, heating and electric lighting done as of old—the best and nothing but the best. Give him a call and he will serve you faithfully and honestly as he endeavored to serve the good old U. S. A. in the greatest of wars in the history of wars.

Circuit Court.

The following cases have been disposed of in the Circuit Court here since our last issue:
