For hoarseness, Benj. Ingerson of Hutton, Ind., says he had not spoken a word above a whisper for months, and one bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar restored his voice. Be sure you get Foley's. E. B. Longwell.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at high noon yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Helms, corner Oak and LaGrave streets, when their daughter Kittie T. was united in matrimony to Bert LeRoy Willis of Bangor. The bride and groom were accompanied by Clarence Hogmire of Bangor and Miss Zina Waters and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Olds of Benton Harbor to a place under a beautiful archway, as Miss May Harrington played Wagner's bridal march. The couple were there united in marriage by Rev. E. O. Mather. From the archway, which was of lace with ropes of myrtle and white satin ribbons, was suspended a large wedding bell. The rooms were lighted by electric lights and the parlors were decorated with chrysanthemums and potted plants. The bride wore white muslin trimmed with Valenciennes lace and carried bride's roses. After the ceremony the guests, 38 in number, assembled in the dining room where a caterer had prepared a sumptuous four course dinner. Many beautiful gifts including fine silverware were presented. Mr. and Mrs. Willis will leave next week for Benton Harbor where they will make their home for a time. Their many friends wish them happiness.

John Engel Seriously Shot.

John Engel of this village had the misfortune to be shot and seriously injured while hunting Thanksgiving afternoon. He was in company with Pearl Pritchard, Fred Beach and Bert and Leon Douglass, south of town. The party had been hunting for some hours. In some manner, Leon Douglass' gun was accidentally discharged, the full charge of fine shot striking Mr. Engel, who was about 10 feet from him, in the left leg about half way between the knee and hip. He was brought to town as quickly as possible and given the best of medical attention, Drs. Hoyt and Maxwell dressing the wound.

The doctors found the muscles badly cut to pieces, but the bone was not broken. The wound is a bad one and will lay Mr. Engel up for some time, but it is thought the leg can be saved in good condition.

Deaths.

It was announced at the Thanksgiving service last evening that Will Allen, son of Rev. W. F. Allen, former pastor of the Baptist church of this place, was dead.

Mrs. Geo. Weston received a message yesterday announcing the death of her mother in a hospital in Detroit. She had been sick for the past three months.

Don Chandler of Hartford, son of A. H. Chandler, died Monday at the age of 23 years. Since he returned from the Philippines about six months ago, he had been a sufferer of consumption, and his recovery has been hopelessly longed for.

Mrs. Eliza Conger died Monday night, November 25, in Chicago, in her 80th year, from a complication of diseases. The body was brought to Paw Paw and the funeral was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Russell Parker. Two sons and two daughters were present at the funeral, one daughter who resides in California not being present. The services were conducted by Mrs. J. J. Woodman. The interment was at Prospect Hill. Mrs. Conger was for many years a resident of Paw Paw and had been a frequent visitor here since her removal from this place. She had many warm friends in this locality who unite with the family in mourning her death.
