DESPERADOES PUT SACK ON TRACKWALKER'S HEAD

Attempt to Rob a Watch Tower Foiled by Prompt Assistance for Man Assaulted.

CHESTER, Pa., Dec. 24.—Two men last night attempted to enter forcibly the Linwood tower on the Pennsylvania Railroad, two miles below this city. A trackwalker was about to leave the tower when one of the strangers threw a sack over his head in the doorway.

Hearing the commotion, Frank Caslett, the operator, grasped his revolver and started down the winding stairs. The trackwalker was tussling with his assailant, but the latter just then sprang from the door and joined his companion, and both ran down the tracks toward Wilmington.

The police of the latter city and Chester were notified; six detectives were sent on the trail from Wilmington, and County Detective Berry, Sergeant Mullen, and several police of this city joined in the hunt.

Caslett fired twice at the fleeing men, but missed them.

LORENZ PATIENT HAS FREE USE OF LIMB NOW

Operation of Surgeon on Little Girl Proves Great Success.

BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 24.—The final cast has been removed from the left hip of little May Lehman, the six-year-old daughter of Patrolman and Mrs. John Lehman, 1104 North Bond Street, who was operated on by Dr. A. Lorenz, the famous Austrian surgeon, during his visit to this country last winter. It was taken off by Drs. William S. Baer and William S. Halstead at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, and according to the statements made by the two physicians the operation was a pronounced success.

The child was operated on at Johns Hopkins Hospital on December 8, 1902, for congenital dislocation of the hip, and her case was said to be the worst that the surgeon had seen in this country. After the operation the entire limb was placed in a plaster cast, which remained on until September 12. A second cast was then placed about the limb, and this one was succeeded six weeks later by the one that was removed yesterday.

The parents of the child have arranged to give her a party at their home tonight.

CARLOADS OF TURKEY FOR MINERS OF BUTTE

Senator Clark Plays Santa Claus $13,000 Worth.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 24.—The largest single shipment of domestic fowl ever made from this place to Montana has been sent to United States Senator William A. Clark, who ordered $13,000 worth of turkey to be shipped to him at Butte, to be distributed to his employes in the mines there.

The order was given a week ago, and a special trainload of seven cars has started for the West consigned to Butte for delivery on Christmas morning.

OCEAN MAIL RECORDS BROKEN BY TEUTONIC

White Star Liner Sails With 851 Sacks of Christmas Letters.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—Eastbound mail records were broken, when the White Star Liner Teutonic sailed yesterday for Great Britain with 2,853 sacks. In the 851 bags containing first-class matter there were more than 750,000 letters.

The remainder of the consignment consisted of 2,002 parcels, and what are known in the mail service as "prints," the entire consignment consisting of Christmas contributions and greetings from America and Canada to the old country. Of the 851 bags of letters, 213 are destined for Ireland, 405 are to go to England, Scotland and Wales, and the remainder to Germany, France, Norway, and Sweden. The registered sacks numbered 112. This is the last of the Christmas mail to the other side, and will not reach its destination until about New Year.

FLOODING A COUNTY WITH COUNTERFEITS

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Dec. 24.—Deputy Marshal Cunningham, assisted by Secret Service Officer C. E. Wright, of Baltimore, has arrested Albert Webb and W. V. Honaker, at Jarroid's Valley, in Raleigh county, upon the charge of counterfeiting.

It is said these men have scattered broadcast throughout Boone, Raleigh, and Wyoming counties spurious $10 bills raised from bills of lower denomination, principally $1.

FORGOT HIS CRUTCHES WHILE CHASING BURGLAR

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—Dr. Albert W. Sully, of Brooklyn, had an exciting experience with a burglar late Tuesday night. He heard a noise in the rear of the house. With a shotgun he went to the basement. A man was in the back yard. Dr. Sully fired a shot at him, and again blazed away as the man climbed a fence. The intruder escaped. The shooting aroused the neighborhood.

Dr. Sully, who is suffering from rheumatism, forgot his crutches and his ailment when he seized his gun, and he ran nimbly down the stairs.

GREATEST YEAR FOR COAL.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 24.—All of the anthracite mines will close tonight for the Christmas holidays. The record of shipments for the year 1903 is close to 59,000,000 tons, greater by 5,000,000 tons than the shipment of any previous year. The mine workers received wages amounting close to $75,000,000, while the tide-water price of the coal for the year was about $270,000,000.
