THE SENTINEL.

Friday Morning.....December 19, 1902.

Local and Personal.

Town and Country.

Constable Thomas Small has moved from Quince Orchard to Gaithersburg to reside.

The Sunday School of Rockville Christian Church will hold their Christmas entertainment on Tuesday, December 23rd, at 7:30 P. M.

Mr. Oda Walling McGaha, of Glen, and Miss Ida Virginia Mock, of Seneca, were married in Rockville a few days ago by Rev. G. Dorsey White.

Mr. William B. Veirs, formerly of this county, now of Melbourne, Australia, is at present a visitor at his old home a short distance from this place.

The Christmas entertainment of the Baptist Sunday School will be held on Friday, December 26th, at 7 P. M. An offering will be taken for State missions.

Mr. Wm. A. Bronson and Miss Elizabeth Dougherty, young Washingtonians, came out to Rockville on Tuesday evening last and were married by Rev. T. J. Packard.

Wednesday evening, December 24th, has been selected as the time of giving the usual Christmas entertainment by the Sunday School of the Epworth M. E. Church, Gaithersburg.

Sunday orders—From now until May 1st all Sunday ice-cream orders must be given not later than 1 P. M. on the Saturday preceding. Please do not ask for an exception to this rule. H. Reisinger.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Ambrose Proctor, a young Rockville colored man, upon charge of violating the local option law, but he has not yet been apprehended. Forest Carroll is the prosecuting witness.

Mr. Charles E. Sommers, a former resident of this place, paid a short visit to our town this week, and met with a warm welcome from his many friends. He is now located at Elizabethtown, Ky., where he is engaged in the newspaper business.

Veirs' mill, about two miles from Rockville, one of the oldest landmarks of this county, is again in operation after an idleness of many years. It was recently purchased by Postmaster Veirs, of this town, and has been put in first class condition.

Gov. Smith has appointed Mr. Samuel D. Waters to be Chief Judge of the Orphans' Court of this county, vice Charles R. Murphy, deceased. Mr. Wm. T. Wheeler was appointed associate judge to succeed Mr. Waters, promoted, and was sworn in on Tuesday.

Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Baltimore, will administer the Sacrament of Confirmation at St. John's Church, Forest Glen, Md., on Sunday, December 21st, at 10:30 A. M., and also at the church of The Nativity, Brightwood, D. C., at 3 P. M., on the same day. All are invited and will be welcome.

Miss Ellen E. Dunawin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Dunawin, and Mr. Lawrence Kemp were married at the home of the bride at Gritton, this county, last week. A few near relatives of the contracting parties were present. Mr. and Mrs. Kemp will reside at Gritton, where the groom is merchandising.

The members of St. Gabriel's Church, Great Falls, will give an oyster supper and dance on Monday, December 29th, in the hall at Potomac, this county. Doors will be opened at 6 P. M. There will be music and dancing. A good supper and an enjoyable evening are promised to all. The entertainment will be for the benefit of St. Gabriel's Catholic Church.

Mrs. James W. Kinney died at Cloppers, this county, on Sunday night last, aged about 40 years. She was before her marriage Miss Eliza Jones, and died at the home of her mother, whom she had recently nursed through an illness of typhoid fever, contracting the malady herself and dying from a complication of diseases resulting therefrom. Her husband and two children survive her.

Sadie Houck, who formerly conducted a road house on the Conduit road, appeared before Judge Henderson in the Circuit Court here on Saturday and pleaded guilty to several indictments charging him with violations of the local option and anti gambling laws. Upon a promise to never again offend, Judge Henderson imposed a fine in only one of the cases and stetted the others. Houck paid the fine of $150 and returned to Washington.

Invitations have been issued for the annual Christmas holiday dance of the Rockville Assembly, which will be held in the Opera House here the evening of December 31st. The committee of arrangements consists of Messrs. Thomas M. Talbott, W. Russell Brewer, Hugh Glascott, Randolph Mason, John J. Higgins and Somerville Dawson. The chaperons will be Mrs. R. H. Stokes, Mrs. H. A. Dawson, Mrs. H. F. Reich and Mrs. Wm. Dorsey.

An entertainment will given by the pupils and friends of White Oak school, at Colesville Hall, on Friday, December 19th, 1902, beginning at 7 o'clock, sharp. If rainy, on Monday, December 22nd, same hour. Special feature, a play, "Per Telephone." Characters, Miss Cuzzen, Lena Tolson; Miss Halcome, Helen Fawcett; Nora, a servant, Blanche Fawcett; Mr. Austin, James Boss; Mr. Harling, Walter Fawcett. Admission, adults, 15 cents; children, 10 cents.

Messrs. John S. Larcombe and Frederick W. Carlyle have purchased another large tract of land near Washington Grove and adjoining their present properties there. The tract consists of about thirty acres, and was purchased from Messrs. Beard & Craighead, of Washington, at $65 per acre. They have already put a force of hands to work grading, fencing and otherwise improving the property, and in the spring Mr. Carlyle will erect a spacious summer home on his site.

In addition to the scarcity of coal a coal oil famine is imminent. It was stated Thursday morning that but 60 gallons of oil were in the town. The agent of the Standard Oil Company states that several tanks and a number of cars with barrels of oil have been shipped to Rockville and they should have been here long ago. He has no idea where they are or when they will arrive. Coal oil is used in Rockville almost exclusively for lighting purposes and to some extent for heating.

John Henry Lawson, the Washington negro, who was convicted of grand larceny at the November Term of Court, and was sentenced to the Maryland penitentiary for ten years, told Sheriff Collier on the way to the penitentiary the other day of the numerous crimes of which he had been guilty. In all he acknowledged having committed forty eight larcenies, but stated that he was convicted but twice, once in Washington and the other time in this county. He stated that the scenes of his wrongdoing were Fairfax county, Va., District of Columbia and this county.

On Tuesday last, the 16th instant, the Washington Evening Star celebrated its 50th birthday by issuing handsome supplements in addition to the regular issue. The supplements consist of a fac-simile of the first issue, a small four-page sheet, a concise and very readable history of Washington City during the past fifty years, finely illustrated and showing the giant strides the Capital city has made during that period. These are accompanied by a magazine supplement of surpassing excellence and beauty and a gem of typographic art. The Star has for many years been a welcome visitor to the firesides of our people, and has a large circulation throughout our county.

Bert Howard, a well-known young negro of this town, was given a hearing here on Monday morning upon the charge of violating the local option law. He was arrested Saturday evening by Deputy Sheriff W. E. Viett, upon a warrant issued at the instance of Forest Carroll, colored, also of this place. At the hearing on Monday Carroll denied having purchased intoxicating liquor from the accused, and stated that at the time he swore out the warrant he was drunk and did not know what he was doing.—Howard was released and Carroll was committed to jail on charge of perjury.

The Mystery Explained.—The reports from Baltimore to the effect that the residents of the western section of that city were much perplexed by the "striking and unusual phenomenon" noticed in the western heavens early Saturday morning last caused considerable amusement to those citizens of Rockville who are wont to rise early. The strange flashes noticed are explained by the fact that early that morning the Washington and Rockville Electric Railway Company sent an extra car out from Washington to this place for the purpose of clearing the trolley of the coating of ice with which it was covered.

An extra strong current was turned on, with the result that intermittent flashes illumined the sky for at least an hour or more, or until the car had made its trip to Rockville and return. The display was of great brilliancy and doubtless could be seen for many miles. Before the car had reached Rockville the town was lighted by the flashes and for a while the occurrence was considerable of a mystery to the citizens of this town who happened to be up, but an explanation followed soon after the arrival of the car.

Electric Railroad Extension.

A special meeting of the Mayor and Council of Rockville was held last Saturday evening to take action in regard to the failure of the Washington and Rockville Electric Railway Company, whose road extends from Washington to the center of Rockville, to fulfil its contract with the town. When the free right-of-way into Rockville was granted to the company it was with the understanding that the road would be extended to the extreme western limits of the corporation. The legal restrictions preventing this extension were removed at the last session of the Legislature, and with the act repealing the law that prevented the construction of any steam or electric road on any road less than thirty feet in width was coupled a provision requiring the company to begin the work of extension by December 1st.

The time expired without any move on the part of the company, and a petition was circulated and numerously signed by the citizens of the town calling upon the Mayor and Council to compel the company to live up to its contract. A meeting was held a few evenings ago, when the petition was considered, and attorneys were employed to consider the legal questions involved.

At the meeting last Saturday evening Messrs. Talbott & Prettyman, the town's attorneys, reported that under the ordinance granting the right-of-way the Council is empowered to declare the charter forfeited if the road is not extended as agreed to. Mr. H. Maurice Talbott argued against such action on the part of the Council, and Messrs. Wm. H Lamar and Oscar L. Johnson urged that summary action be taken. A letter from Gen. George Harries, vice-president of the road, presented by Mr. H. M. Talbott, was read, in which it was represented that the financial condition of the company is such just now as to make it impossible to perform the work at this time, but promised to extend the road as desired just as soon as the financial condition of the company justifies it.

The matter was discussed for two hours or more, and the meeting finally adjourned without any definite action being taken. Another meeting will be held in the near future, when the matter will be definitely settled.

Christmas Services.—The feast of Christmas will be marked by special services in St. Mary's Catholic Church, Rockville. His Eminence, the Cardinal, has given permission to the pastor, Father Williams, to have a midnight Mass on Christmas. This is an unusual solemnity in the Catholic Church in this country, and is always very impressive. The midnight Mass will be a "Missa Cantata," or High Mass, and will begin promptly at 12 o'clock. A specially prepared program for the music of the Mass will be rendered by the choir, under the leadership of Miss Susie Offutt, organist and director. A second Mass will be said at 8:30 o'clock Christmas morning for the benefit of those unable to attend the first Mass.

Christmas will be observed at St. Gabriel's Catholic Church, Great Falls, by High Mass, which will be sung at 11 o'clock, Christmas morning, by the pastor, Father Williams. There will be a sermon appropriate to the occasion, and the services will conclude with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Midnight Mass will be celebrated at St. John's Church, Forest Glen, on Christmas day.

Coming Marriages.—Miss Annie M. Bowman, of Damascus, is to marry Dr. George Milton Byer, of this county, at Damascus, December 24.

Mr. Lewis Philip Allnutt, of Dawsonville, will marry Miss Lutie Chiswell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chiswell, Poolesville, at the home of the bride's parents at that place early in January.

Mr. Charles E. Allnutt, of Dawsonville, will marry Miss Effie Miller, of Frederick county, in February.

The engagement of Miss Margaret Matilda Case and Mr. William A. Ray, both of the vicinity of Ednor, is announced. The wedding is to take place at the Baptist Church at Burtonsville early in January.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Digests all classes of food, tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs. Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Stomach Troubles, and makes rich red blood, good health and strength. Kodol rebuilds wornout tissues, purifies, strengthens and sweetens the stomach. Gov. G. W. Atkinson, of W. Va., says: I have used a number of bottles of Kodol and have found it to be a very effective and, indeed, a powerful remedy for stomach ailments. I recommend it to my friends. R. W. Vinson, Rockville, Md.

CHRISTMAS.

Hark! there comes a joyous day,
A day when all are glad,
When all the world is bright and gay
And no one should be sad.

For Christ is born, and Christ is King
This joyous Christmas morn,
Hark! how the herald angels sing
That Christ this day is born.

And how the guiding star shone down
On a manger where a baby lay,
Bethlehem was the little town
Where Christ was born that day.

He came to cleanse us from our sin,
And take our guilt away,
All glory then to Christ, the King,
This happy Christmas day.

He who was so meek and mild
Was born upon that day,
Like us he was a little child
As all the prophets say.

He shares our sorrow and our care,
He gives us blessings true,
For us He'll soon a home prepare
Above the sky so blue.

How fair and sweet that home will be,
With angels all around,
And we His glorious face will see,
While tuneful harps will sound.

Then let us raise our hearts on high,
While joyfully we sing,
For that's the best of Christmas gifts
To give to Christ our King.

All glory, praise and honor be
All glory to our King,
And through the endless ages we
With angels ever sing.

MADELEINE RODNEY BURT.

Teachers' Association.

On Saturday, the 13th instant, 81 of the 100 white teachers of the public schools met in the Court House here and organized a Teachers' Association by electing James F. Byrne, President; Earle B. Wood, Vice-President, and Mary P. Story, Secretary.

The program for the day, with papers from the several teachers assigned was carried out to the general satisfaction of the body.

The following committees were appointed: On constitution, E. L. Amiss, R. T. West, Miss M. G. Barnes, E. O Zeigler and E. E. Crocket; on program for next meeting, A. G. Harley, O. S. Barnes and Miss Blanche E. Braddock.

The following resolutions were adopted:

We, the teachers attending the Teachers' Association of Montgomery county, unanimously adopt the following declaration of educational policy:

1. We regard local taxation as the foundation upon which our public school system should be built, and therefore favor the agitation of an increase of 5 cents on the $100 in addition to the present rate of 25 cents.

2. If an increased expenditure of money is to be of lasting value, a more intelligent public interest must be brought to bear up on our schools. The school should be the social center of the community and should actively and sympathetically touch all the social and economic interests of the people. In addition to the ordinary branches, our schools should include, as per State schedule, manual training, drawing and nature study.

3. To secure more efficient supervision, to encourage grading, and to broaden the social life of the pupils, we favor the consolidation of the weak schools into strong central schools. It is better and cheaper in every way within limits to carry the child to the school than to carry the school to the child.

4. Teaching should be a profession, and not a stepping stone to something else, we therefore stand for the highest training of teachers, and urge the school authorities of county and State to encourage those who wish to make the educating of children a life profession, by longer school year, and increased compensation according to worth and efficiency

Adjourned to meet March 28, 1903.

In Memoriam.

In loving remembrance of my dear husband, Carey E. Henley, who was killed by the east-bound engine on Monday, December 1st, aged 26 years, 9 months and 10 days.

Oh, how we long to see thy face,
And hear thy voice once more,
And feel the clasp of thy embrace,
As oft in times before.

Oh, the home is so lonely,
Since you have been taken away,
Our hearts are so heavy and sad,
For we miss you so every day.

Our God has called you from us,
He has taken you from our sight,
But we hope to meet you by and by
In that home of endless light.

Farewell, dear husband, thou has gone,
Thy toils are past, thy work is done,
'Tis hard to drink the bitter cup,
'Tis hard, so hard, to give thee up.

The sad and lonely household,
His children, loving, clinging,
Will miss his loving hand,
Without his aid must stand.

Our hearts are so dreary,
Our home is forlorn,
Oh, how can we bear it,
Our brother is gone.

Oh, brother, we miss thee,
Blessed be thy dear name,
Our hearts are all broken,
Ne'er will home be the same.

By his Wife and Sister.

CLOTHING TALK.

Plenty of Suits and Overcoats,—plenty of selling space and salesmen—plenty of rich chances for economy—and plenty of weather ahead to wear WINTER CLOTHING.

Bear in mind that garments sold by us are strictly our own makes.—You can tell at a glance our make clothing—you'll quickly notice it by the fit, the quality of cloth, the shape, the graceful hang and the workmanship throughout.

We wish to call special attention to our line of FALL SUITS and TOP COATS at $12.50. You may pay $15 or $18—and you'll not get near as good material or satisfaction either.

The $2.50 Hat for Men.

Your head would be more comfortable with one of our $2.50 Hats. Your purse would be a dollar or so richer—you'd appreciate the saving more each time you wore one of our Hats. Choice of any style—soft or stiff—many new shapes. The binding and band are of best quality. The Eiseman label is a guarantee as to its merits. It's a $4.00 Hat at most stores.

FALL UNDERWEAR.

You'd better change to heavy-weight undergarments now. The weather man says it will be colder from now on. Our new fall line is fully complete—you'll find all makes HERE. All-wool Fleece-lined Underwear—the regular $1.50 kind—all sizes—in shirts and drawers—now $1 00.

---SUITS FOR BOYS.---

We're headquarters for Children's Clothing—carry the largest assortment in the city. You'll find our prices very reasonable, quality considered. Ask to see the $2 50 School Suits—then there's the $5.00 DRESS SUITS, which are very nobby and stylish.
