

NEGRO WOMEN HELD FOR ATTEMPTED MURDER

Poison Case at Akron Has Aftermath; Four Persons' Lives Endangered

(Special to The Advertiser)
GREENSBORO, A.L.A., Jan. 23.—Two negroes, Daisy Peck, a 12-year-old girl and Addie McCorrel, a young negro woman, are in the county jail here charged with poisoning coffee at the home of Dr. W. C. Genin at Akron, on the night of Jan. 15th, which came so near being fatal to Dr. and Mrs. Genin. Miss Huffman and Mr. Parr, who all partook of the coffee which contained rat poison. Daisy Peck, the one who poisoned the coffee, says she was told to do so by Addie McCorrel, a former cook of the Genins, who it has been found, did not run away as first reported, but was living with another family at Akron when arrested by the sheriff. The victim of the poisoning has recovered from their fearful illness.

SIX LICENSED TO PRACTICE MEDICINE

As the result of the examinations recently held at the Capitol under the auspices of the State Board of Medical Examiners, Alabama is to add six more persons to the list of physicians licensed to practice in this State. The names and addresses of those who passed the test and who will be awarded licenses in the near future, were announced by the board, Saturday, as follows:
F. Herbert Barbee, Birmingham; J. A. Campbell, Fitzpatrick; John R. Manley, Roanoke; Wright McMillan, Birmingham; Ernest Hagood, Birmingham and H. H. Carter, Baltimore, Md.

WELL KNOWN NEGRO EDUCATOR HERE TODAY

Rev. E. L. Moore, dean of philosophy of Howard University at Washington, D. C., will deliver an address at Old Ship Church, 57 Holcomb street, at the morning service, eleven o'clock Sunday.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—Corn tended upward in price today, owing chiefly to stormy weather and to loosening of restrictions on export shipment of grain. The close was steady at the same as yesterday's finish to 1/8¢ higher. Oats advanced 1/4¢ to 1/2¢ net and provisions closed 1/2¢ to 3/4¢ higher. General snowfall which were in progress led to belief among corn traders that likelihood of an increased crop movement had seriously diminished. The meagerness of today's receipts added force to this conviction notwithstanding that new arrivals issued by the railroad administration gave evidence of special striving to meet emergency requirements in the western car situation. On the other hand, several eastern railroads today lifted their embargo on grain and there was further buying of corn, but week-end profit taking eased the market somewhat in the later dealings. Oats were firm with corn, although profit taking was heavy. Upturns in the value of hogs and grain lifted the provision market despite a 25¢ per cent. reduction of February orders from Great Britain and fifty per cent. cut for day.
