In the Harper periodicals, taken together, we have a comprehensive set of journals that cover almost all of literature, art, life, and society. In the Magazine we have all the best literary talent of the world; in the Weekly a thoroughly pure and disinterested political publication; in the Bazar an arbiter of taste and fashion; and in the Young People a delightful miscellany that will always aid in the sweetest and pleasantest of all earthly hours, those spent in the companionship of the little folks around the hearth-fire and within the sanctuary of home.—Saturday Evening Gazette (Boston).

Surely no cultivated home will be without its means of entertainment where these periodicals come as guests, and no home in which they are taken can be classed as other than cultured. * * * How fresh, how varied, and how stimulating are the four publications which we have mentioned!—Brooklyn Eagle.

Remittances should be made by post-office money-order or draft to avoid chance of loss.

HARPER'S FRANKLIN-SQUARE LIBRARY: a weekly publication, containing works of Travel, Biography, History, and Fiction, at prices ranging from 10 to 25 cents per number. Full list of Harper's Franklin-Square Library will be furnished gratuitously on application to HARPER & BROTHERS.

HARPER'S CATALOGUE, comprising the titles of between three and four thousand volumes, will be sent by mail on receipt of 9 cents.

WEATHER REPORT.

INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—For the Middle Atlantic States, lower barometer, warmer southerly winds, increasing cloudiness, and rain.

THE WEATHER YESTERDAY was partly cloudy and milder during the day. At night it was raw and rainy.

THERMOMETER YESTERDAY: 6 A. M., 34; 9 A. M., 38; noon, 48; 3 P. M., 56; 6 P. M., 51; midnight, 40.
Mean temperature, 44½.

LOCAL MATTERS.

DEATH OF DR. PETER F. BROWN, OF ACCOMAC COUNTY.—The sad news of Dr. Brown's death reached Richmond yesterday, and will cause sorrow in many homes in Virginia. During the war he left the Eastern Shore and came to Richmond, and was appointed surgeon in the Confederate army, and assigned to the Virginia Division of Chimborazo Hospital. In those days of sorrow he was ever a true friend to the soldier, and knew no higher work than to relieve the suffering of his fellow-man. Dr. Brown has been in active practice ever since he left college, and has occupied the highest positions in his profession.

He was buried at Mount Custis, the family burying-ground, in Accomac county, followed by a large and sorrowing company.

A NEW MILITARY COMPANY.—A meeting of a number of gentlemen interested in organizing a new military company to be attached to the First regiment was held last night, and the following detail volunteered to report for duty to the regiment as a color-guard: Thomas Marshall, W. D. Winston, C. B. Neal, J. B. Denoon, W. R. Colquitt, Robert Hudson, Paul J. Dunnavant, and J. L. Ludwig. Twenty names were added to the list, and it is expected that they will be sufficiently recruited in a short time to be fully commissioned. The possibility at an early date of the city building an armory for the regiment has excited quite an interest in military circles, and it is expected that the regiment will be speedily recruited up to its full quota. Another meeting will be held next Tuesday night at the Regimental armory to perfect the organization.

A SHOE THIEF TO BE CAUGHT.—In August last Mr. James A. Grigg, whose store is on the northwest corner of Main and Tenth streets, had stolen from his window seven pairs of ladies' handsome shoes. He soon found out how the adroit thief managed to get off with the shoes, and made such changes in his store as would probably prevent similar thefts in the future. Last evening, however, Mr. Grigg had scarcely put down two pairs of ladies' shoes, which he had just sold to two ladies, when he found they had been stolen. Mr. Grigg offers a handsome reward for the arrest of the thief, and no doubt some officer or member of our excellent police force will be enabled to secure it.

ROLL OF HONOR AT THE RICHMOND HIGH SCHOOL.—The following is a list of the pupils on the roll of honor at the Richmond High School for the past week: Senior Class: L. Cunningham, Jennie Martin, Christine Whittet. Intermediate A: Kate Dunkel, Bessie Hoge, Irene Lovenstein, Sadie McGilvray, Lizzie Newcomb. Intermediate B: Byrd Bennett, Annie Chatkley, Lizzie McGehee, Berta Moon, Lillian Pace, Lee Winston. Junior A: Mary Blair, Alice Hamilton, Blanche Harmon, May Justis, Carrie Whitmore, John Scott. Junior B: Rosa Bowles, Julia Craver, Maggie Craig, Lillian Gilliam, Mattie Hankins, Maude Hyde, Lola Mitchell, Kittie Morris, Henderson Patton. Attendance for the week, 96 per cent.

PERSONAL.—Dr. G. K. Gilmer, our city postmaster, is lying seriously ill at his residence, on Marion Hill, Henrico county.

Colonel Stevens, president of the united railways of New Jersey, who has been in the city for the past few days making an inspection of the property of the Richmond and Alleghany railroad, has gone to Lynchburg, from which point he will go over the line to Williamson's.

Mr. H. C. Parsons, vice-president of the Richmond and Alleghany railroad, has been quite sick for the past few days at his home, in this city.

BRIEF ITEMS.—The Common Council will meet to-morrow afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Mr. J. T. Goddin has been elected a member of Hose Company No. 6, Richmond Fire Department, in place of J. H. Conway, removed from the city.

Judith McQuilon, of Cumberland county, Va., having served out her term in the penitentiary was released yesterday.

SALE OF WHEAT BROUGHT OVER THE NEW RAILROAD.—The first car-load of wheat that ever came over the Shenandoah Valley railroad this way was shipped by Messrs. B. & T. J. Milnes to Messrs. Allen & Shafer, commission merchants, of this city, and sold by them yesterday at top market price.

Work upon this road is progressing satisfactorily. Forty miles of track is now in operation, and the line is promised to be completed by January 1st to Shepherdstown.

BOY INJURED BY A STREET-CAR.—Saturday morning a boy named Vest, about twelve years old, in attempting to jump on the front step of street-car No. 14, at the corner of Cherry and Main streets, slipped and fell underneath the car. The wheels passed over his feet, cutting them very badly. No bones were broken, and the injured boy was attended by Dr. Mosely.

CUTTING SCRAPE.—Last night about 9 o'clock Lewis Washington and Edwin Jones, two colored men, engaged in a fight on Byrd Island, during which the former cut the latter on the lip with a pocket-knife, inflicting a slight wound. Washington made his escape.

FROM THE CUSTOM-HOUSE.—The American brig Jennie Morton, Granger master, cleared from the custom-house yesterday for Pelotas, Brazil, with a cargo of flour comprising 2,285 barrels, valued at $16,109.55, shipped by the Haxall-Crenshaw Company.

The Norwegian brig Broderen, Evensen master, entered from Liverpool with a cargo of salt consigned to Davenport & Morris.

INTERNAL REVENUE COLLECTIONS.—The internal revenue collections for the week ending yesterday were as follows: Monday, $7,126.02; Tuesday, $4,255.62; Wednesday, $5,925.89; Thursday, $4,559.59; Friday, $6,269.01; Saturday, $3,872.51. Total, $32,006 64. The collections for the previous week amounted to $35,014.29.

MAILS ON THE SOUTHSIDE RAILROAD.—Our Southside subscribers will be glad to know that Mr. M. V. Bailey, Superintendent of the Postal Railway Service, yesterday issued an order which will correct the mail irregularities of which they complain.

SALE OF CITY BONDS.—Messrs. Davenport & Co., of this city, have sold at a handsome premium nearly all of the 5 per cent. bonds recently appropriated by the Council.

AMUSEMENTS.

"DRINKS" AT THE THEATRE SATURDAY MR. BISHOP AS WIDOW BEDOTT—READING FOR THE GUARD OF THE COMMONWEALTH—THE BOHEMIAN GLASS-BLOWERS, AND THE MENDELSSOHN QUINTETTE CLUB.

Miss Rose Eytinge and Mr. Cyril Searle appeared at the Theatre Saturday afternoon and night in "Drinks," and we must say we were thoroughly disappointed with the dramatization of L'Assommoire as then presented. It is entirely too low and repulsive to teach a moral lesson, and the story is told in seven long, uninteresting, and rather vulgar acts, unrelieved by anything that is redeeming. Although we think Camille so wanting in decency that one must lose sight of the slight moral that serves as an excuse for the countenance and support which society is wont to give it, still, as recently presented by the genius of Miss Cavendish and her good company, it was comparatively breathing the atmosphere of purity when compared with the play of "Drinks," as performed here Saturday, which was little better than a Bowery performance.

THE WIDOW BEDOTT.

Haverly's Comedy Company will present the laughable Widow Bedott at the Theatre on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday evenings of this week. That Mr. C. B. Bishop will appear as the Widow is a sufficient guarantee for merriment and fun. It has been some years since Richmond was favored with the comicalities of this comedian. He never failed to delight large audiences soon after the war, and we are sure he will have a cordial reception now, for our people never forget an old favorite.

THE BOHEMIAN GLASS-BLOWERS.

On Monday evening Messrs. Woodroffe, Carling & Co. will give an exhibition at No. 303 east Broad near Third street. The performance of the glass-blowers is said to be something wonderful. Among the curiosities to be seen is a model of the celebrated Corliss engine shown at the Centennial, composed of five thousand pieces of glass, and running by steam, which alone is guaranteed to repay the cost of admission. They also exhibit feather-work, lace-work, wicker-work, and even a ship spirred and fully rigged in the most delicate tracery, all in glass. They will remain here only for a limited period.

MR. WILLOUGHBY READE.

On Monday evening Professor Willoughby Reade will give a reading of his most choice selections at Mozart Hall for the benefit of the Guard of the Commonwealth. The programme embraces extracts from the lectures of Mark Twain, Burdette, and other humorists, and Poe's Raven will be given by special request. Two hours' hearty enjoyment is promised, and all who wish a pleasant evening should not fail to be present.

THE MENDELSSOHN QUINTETTE CLUB.

Our music lovers have a great treat in store for them in the coming of this celebrated Quintette Club. They are announced to appear at the Theatre in concert on Wednesday evening, December 15th, and we feel sure their reception will be as cordial as their excellence deserves. The organization has been well and favorably known throughout the country for years past, and when they last visited Richmond they gave two of the most delightful concerts that have ever been heard in the city.

Miss Marie Nellini, who is reputed to be a beautiful vocalist, will assist the quintette, which is composed of the following fine artists: Isidor Schnitzler, violin; Ernst Thiele, violin; Thomas Ryan, clarinette and viola; William Schade, flute and viola; Frederick Giese, violoncello.

It is a pleasure to be able to recommend an entertainment beforehand, when we feel confident the expectations we arouse will be gratified, and thus we speak of the Mendelssohn Quintette Club, of Boston. The entertainments are of the highest order of musical refinement, and never fail of giving pleasure even to those wanting in knowledge of the divine art. Though it may seem rather premature, we give the programme which they will render here, in order that those who wish may refresh their memories concerning any portion of it they may think proper:

Part I.—1. Quintette in B flat, op. 87, Mendelssohn Allegro-vivace; 2. Proch's Air and Variations (Proch), Miss Marie Nellini; 3. Concerto for Flute on La Sonnambula (Tershack), William Schade; 4. Quartette, entitled "The Miller's Pretty Daughter," (Ruff,) a, The Declaration—b, The Mill; 5. Fantaisie for Violin on Gipsey Airs (Sarasate), Isador Schnitzler. Part II.—6. Romance for Clarinette (Ryan), Thomas Ryan; 7. Scherzo from Quartette No. 2, Op. 90 (Rubinstein); 8. Solo for Violincello on "Le désir," (Servais,) Frederick Giese; 9. Song, "Oh, Loving Heart, Trust On," (Gottschalk,) Miss Marie Nellini; 10. March from the Ruins of Athens (Beethoven), arranged for quintette.

AN ENGAGEMENT FOR A RICHMOND BASSO.—Mr. Joseph S. Greensfelder returned to the city Saturday afternoon from Boston, where he signed terms of agreement with Mr. Max Strakosch for a very flattering and remunerative engagement to play the rôle of "Prometheus" in Longfellow & Ceilier's new opera the "The Masque of Pandora." The opera is to be produced for the first time on the 2d of January next at the Boston Theatre, and great preparations are being made to bring it out with all the spectacular effects and force of cast and chorus that money can procure. We wish this young basso, who we have now learned to call our own, great success, and will welcome him back whenever he shall return to Richmond.

CHRISTMAS POUND-PARTY.—The lady managers of the Retreat for the Sick propose having a Christmas pound-party for the benefit of that institution on next Thursday from 12 to 6 o'clock P. M. Here is an opportunity for helping one of the most deserving charitable organizations of our city. It is hoped that a large number of our generous citizens will visit the Retreat on that occasion, and that those who cannot come in person will send tokens of their kindly regard for this great public charity.

HUMORS OF AN HOUR.—The pleasing programme presented by the merry monarch of mirth for next Tuesday night's entertainment at the Grace-Street Baptist church will insure Professor Willoughby Reade the largest audience he has had in this city during his present visit. It is brimful of sparkling gems of laughter-provoking power.

CITY CIRCUIT COURT.—In the City Circuit Court yesterday—Judge Wellford presiding—the suit of S. T. Beach vs. The City Railway was partly heard, and will come up again to-morrow morning, at which time the Court will give some instructions relative to the case to the jury.

In the case of John S. Green vs. A. D. Chalkley judgment was entered against Chalkley for $2,438.68.

POLICE COURT.—The following cases were disposed of at the Police Court yesterday morning by Police-Justice D. C. Richardson:

William Banister (colored) was fined $5 for fighting in the street.

William Runderstein, a travelling agent for a New York notion-house, charged with selling goods by sample without a license, was sent on to the grand jury. He was bailed.

Edward Johnson (colored), a driver for Cyrus Bossiedx, charged with stealing one bar of iron, the property of J. E. Lemoine, agent of the Piedmont Air-Line, was found guilty and sentenced to receive twenty lashes.

Henry Cline, charged with being drunk, was fined $1.

COMMANDERY OFFICERS ELECTED.—Commandery of St. Andrew has elected officers as follows: E. Sir Thomas J. Evans, eminent commander; Sir Joseph V. Bidgood, generalissimo; Sir John J. Wright, captain-general; Sir W. C. Schaffer, prelate; Sir E. C. Walthall, senior warden; Sir George W. Poe, junior warden; Sir George B. Steel, treasurer; E. Sir William B. Isaacs, recorder; Sir W. O. English, standard-bearer; Sir Howard Swineford, sword-bearer; Sir William M. Netherland, warder; Sir D. B. Collins, captain of guard.

COLORED INDEPENDENT ORDER OF GOOD TEMPLARS.—Ruth Lodge, No. 4, I. O. G. T., has elected the following principal quarterly officers: Philip A. Fleet, worthy chief templar; M. H. L. Jones, worthy vice-templar; Lewis Dickerson, worthy secretary; H. S. Giles, worthy financial secretary; E. E. Graham, worthy treasurer; J. George Crawford, worthy chaplain; J. A. Smith, worthy marshal; William Griffin, deputy marshal; John H. Smith, worthy guard; O. O. Brown, past worthy chief templar; R. H. Graham, lodge deputy.

The above officers will be publicly installed Thursday the 9th instant, at Shiloh Baptist church (Wesley chapel), at 8:30 P. M.

Another new Lodge of Good Templars (colored) will be instituted next week in Sidney by Deputy Grand Worthy Chief Templar Santee N. Lundy, assisted by the grand officers of the Dual Grand Lodge of Virginia. The Rev. F. B. Davis will be W. C. T. and P. A. Anderson W. S.

Ever Green Lodge, No. 1—principal officers elected: Jefferson Pollard, worthy chief templar; Rosetta Cheek, worthy vice-templar; Joseph H. Richardson, worthy secretary; Sterling Harris, Jr., worthy financial secretary; Harriet Booker, worthy treasurer; Rev. Philip Green, worthy chaplain; Alice Garnett, worthy marshal; F. B. Gatewood, worthy deputy marshal; John Jasper, worthy guard; W. C. Carter, past worthy chief templar; Rev. John W. Gaines, lodge deputy. These officers will be publicly installed on Thursday evening the 16th instant, at 8:30, at the Little Mount Zion Baptist church, on Broad street near Graham.

PREPAYMENT OF ENDOWMENT POLICIES.—A company which promptly pays its obligations at maturity is always and everywhere regarded as sound and prosperous. What shall we say of the Life-Insurance Company of Virginia, which has not only always come squarely up to this rule, but offers to pay in advance all its endowment policies maturing during the coming year? Happy are the holders of these valuable papers.

GRAND JURY OF THE HUSTINGS COURT.—The following is the grand jury of the Hustings Court for the December term, which begins to-morrow at 11 o'clock: Thomas M. Rutherford, J. Booten Hill, J. L. Maury, W. H. Cullingworth, W. G. Westwood, John G. Hooker, T. L. D. Walford, Robert A. Gary, John J. Foster.

OPENING OF ELBA SCHOOL.—The new public-school building on Marshall street between Graham and Hancock will be occupied on Monday next, the 6th instant, and at 2 o'clock P. M. on that day there will be reading, recitations, songs, or other ordinary school exercises.

MANCHESTER AND VICINITY.

City Council.—A regular meeting of the City Council was held Friday night. The usual routine business was transacted and nothing of any special importance was done. Several communications were received and referred to committees. The body meets again on the third Friday night of this month.

More Judges Arrested.—The judges of election of the Second and Fourth Wards were arrested yesterday on the same charge that was preferred against the judges of the Third Ward—for refusing to allow certain persons to vote upon tax-receipts issued from the Auditor's office. The parties accused waived examination and will go before the United States grand jury, which meets in Richmond this week.

Brief Items.—Thomas Conley, brother-in-law of Mr. George W. Tolby, of this city, died in Spotsylvania several days ago. Deceased formerly resided in Manchester. His death will be deeply regretted by his friends and acquaintances.

During the month of November there were thirty-four cases disposed of at the Mayor's Court. Twenty-four were misdemeanor cases and ten were ordinance violations.

The following from the head of our house explains itself:

OFFICE OF A. SAKS & CO., BALTIMORE, MD.
William Goss, Esq.:

Dear Sir,—While every precaution has been taken by us to avoid any adulterated or poorly-made goods getting into our stock, the fact that many baffle all tests save that of wear prompts us in asking you to publish a card asking that any unsatisfactory-wearing goods bought from our house may be returned, and you will see if any are returned that the customer is amply indemnified for any loss by virtue of the unsatisfactory wear of goods. We propose to sell only reliable-made goods, and will protect any customer should goods wear unsatisfactory. Your reports are very gratifying and satisfactory.

Very respectfully,
A. SAKS.

By kind permission we publish the following from one of our patrons. We may make a mistake occasionally. When we do, we bear the loss—not the customer:

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE NEW YORK HERALD,
RICHMOND, VA., November 17, 1880.

Messrs. A. Saks & Co.:

Gentlemen,—In returning you the suit of clothes recently purchased permit me to express my acknowledgments for the one you sent me in lieu of it. The latter fits me to perfection, and it is, in my opinion, in every way superior to the first. Allow me also to say that this is an instance of fair-dealing and good business principles, the practice of which cannot fail to insure success.

Very truly yours,
E CUTHBERT.

D. & E. MITTELDORFER have just received a large stock of new goods of all kinds (bought at auction), suitable for Holiday Presents, Fancy Goods, Dress Goods, Black Goods, Underwear for all. Cloaks, Shawls, Blankets, Cloaking Flannels. Be sure to give them a call before you buy.

WE ADVERTISE for the sole purpose of calling the attention of our patrons to goods that we purchased under value. Those following our advertisements can always rely on not only finding the goods at the prices advertised, but to bear the full standard value as represented. We only regret that space does not permit us to give a fuller and more accurate list of the many bargains we offer at this time, COHEN BROTHERS.

CARPETS, CARPETS.—Another fresh supply just received from auction, the cheapest and best goods ever offered, at D. & E. MITTELDORFER'S.

For the lip there is no brightness,
For the teeth there is no whiteness,
Where SOZODONT has got no place;
But those who use it know full well
How bright and beautiful the spell
It throws o'er man's or woman's face.

EMINENT DR. W. C. CAVENAGH, MEMPHIS, TENN., WRITES:
For weak digestion, consumption, general debility, and want of appetite, I cheerfully recommend Colden's LIEBIG'S LIQUID EXTRACT OF BEEF.

A FRAGRANT BREATH is always a pleasure, and you can have it by using MEADE & BAKER'S delicious CARBOLIC MOUTH-WASH. It destroys the offensive odor caused by diseased gums and decayed teeth, and speedily restores them to a healthy condition. Price, fifty cents a bottle.

BAZAAR, OR CHRISTMAS SALE.
The ladies of Moore Memorial chapel are hard at work in the Young Men's Christian Association Hall. They propose to begin the sale in aid of the Church-Building fund on WEDNESDAY EVENING, December 8th, at 7 o'clock. There will be NO RAFFLING, and visitors will not be IMPORTUNED to purchase.

"IT DISAGREES WITH ME." A common remark. If you take TUTT'S PILLS you can eat anything you like and feel no bad effects. They act specifically on the liver, stomach, and bowels, causing a free flow of gastric juice, which is essential to good digestion, and regulates the bowels when all other medicine fails.

SAVE MONEY by having your printing done at the DISPATCH PRINTING-HOUSE. Good work, low prices, and satisfaction guaranteed.

"LADY GAY," a remnant of New Orleans Crapes, are offered for sale by W. D. BLAIR & CO. at a very low price to close out the lot. They will be sold in quantities to suit.

BEAUTIFULLY WHITE TEETH ENSURED BY the use of MEADE & BAKER'S SAPONINE DENTIFRICE, which will speedily remove incipient tartar and scurf. Price, fifty cents a box.

M. ELLYSON & CO., advertising agents, insert advertisements in all of the newspapers of the United States at publishers' rates. Orders left at the Dispatch counting-room will receive prompt attention.

A TRIP through the various departments at
COHEN BROTHERS'
DRY GOODS ESTABLISHMENT, corner Fourth and Broad, at this particular season, cannot fail to be productive of many benefits to those who are out shopping. Their stock has just been increased by many thousands of dollars' worth, embracing goods of every description in the DRY GOODS line, as well as suitable goods for holiday presents. As advertised in another column, their prices are by far the most attractive of the season.

THE FINEST HAMS we have seen for a long time are at W. D. BLAIR & CO.'S, 1109 Main street.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.

REV. SYLVANUS COBB thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman: We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant trouble with colic pains quiet sleep and its parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething siege on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. Twenty-five cents a bottle. se 8-eod1w
