is plunged into gloom today following the announcement of the death of Chulalongkorn I (Somedeth Phra Paramindr Omha), King of Siam, who expired this morning after an illness of only a few days' duration.As a tribute to the memory of the dead King, the Siamese people are planning to have a funeral which will surpass in richness and Oriental magnificence anything ever before seen in this country.
Preparations are already under way for this magnificent pageant. It is probable that it will take place within the next two weeks.SPURIOUS $300,000 HELD FOR INQUIRYThree Men Captured In Chicago Deny Counterfeiting Nicaraguan Notes.CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Secret Service operatives are today weaving a strong net around the three men arrested last night for printing counterfeit Nicaraguan notes. The spurious notes, amounting to $300,000 in United States money, are now in the hands of the detectives. There are eight big bundles.George B. Williams, president of the company which printed the notes, and Richard J. Trumbull, an employee, two of the prisoners, adhere to the statement they had been led by H. H. Secrest, the third prisoner, to believe that he was an agent of the Nicaraguan government, authorized to have the notes printed.

RESCUED AERONAUTS
TELL OF HARDSHIPSBISCOTASING, Ontario, Oct. 23.— Capt. Emil Messner, pilot of the Swiss balloon Azura, and his assistant Leon Giraudan arrived here today with a thrilling story of narrow escapesfrom death in their flight in the international race for the James Gordon Bennett Cup. In crossing Lake Superior their balloon sagged so low that the basket trailed in the water, but arose again after practically all the ballast had been exhausted and continued on its way to a point, twenty-two miles northeast of this town.

The final landing was made in a rugged forest and three days of great hardship were experienced, during which the men had to swim icy waters on the Spanish river and small lakes before arriving here. Both will remain in Biscotasing until Wednesday awaiting the arrival of their balloon. The Azura flew approximately 673 miles direct north.

REILLY ESTATE TO WIDOW.

The will of General James W. Reilly, who died July 22, was filed in Probate Court today. It leaves the estate to the widow, Mrs. Helen Julia Griffin Reilly, who lives at 177 Q street northwest.
No petition for the probate of the will has been presented, but it is estimated that the estate is worth $25,000. The will is dated May 25, 1910.

WED YEAR; ASKS DIVORCE.

Suit for an absolute divorce was filed in the District Supreme Court today by Mrs. Mabel DeKunow Read against James M. Read. They were married in Washington on December 28, 1909. Mrs. Read alleges her husband deserted her on March 22.
