Special Opening Bargain Time.

All this special buying can be done now, when the weak mercantile backs of merchants that held these stuffs were unable to carry them or hold them until the present advanced price was realized.

THIS NOTICE IS FOR THE FORESIGHTED and those up to quick calls.

A New York Dealer Saw the Sale on Embroideries Yesterday, and offered to take the entire uncut pieces at our retail price. When refused, he stated that his price to merchants was about double. But we serve our retail public, and shape all directions to that end.

The sale of Embroideries is for such a collection as you seldom see sold as bargains. The finest and handsomest designs, and a third less than last year's prices, when Embroideries are now held everywhere at more than double.

REVIEWS HIS WORK.

REV. DR. KERR CELEBRATES HIS SIXTEENTH ANNIVERSARY.

GROWTH OF THE DENOMINATION.

The Popular Pastor Gives Some Interesting Facts About the Presbyterians—Sermon to the Juniors—Other Church Services.

At the First Presbyterian church on Sunday morning Dr. Kerr preached to a great congregation a sermon commemorating his sixteenth anniversary as pastor. His text was I. Samuel, vii., 12: "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us."

Dr. Kerr said, in part: "Sixteen years ago I was installed in the church standing on the present site of the City Hall by a committee of East Hanover Presbytery, consisting of Dr. M. D. Hoge, who preached the sermon and presided; Dr. W. T. Richardson, who charged the people, and Dr. Charles H. Read, who gave the charge to the pastor. I counted it a great honor to be given the pulpit, illuminated for so long by Rev. Drs. J. Holt Rice, W. G. Armstrong, W. S. Plumer, T. V. Moore, and T. L. Preston. From the start all the people rallied to the new pastor, and have given him their earnest support to this day. Many faithful members have been taken away by death, among whom were Elders William P. Munford, W. S. Donnan, Sr., E. H. Fitzhugh, Archibald Bolling, G. W. Allen, and J. D. K. Sleight, and Deacons S. P. Lathrop, W. H. Benson, W. T. Yarbrough, and W. G. Clemons, all of them able, faithful men. We have now as noble a corps of elders and deacons as can be found anywhere, and a perfectly harmonious membership.

"I have had to mourn the loss by death of my princely colaborers and friends, the Revs. J. Polk Gammon, W. A. Campbell, D. D., W. T. Richardson, D. D., and M. D. Hoge, D. D., who have gone, each to receive his crown.

MEMBERSHIP MORE THAN DOUBLED

"Sixteen years ago we had 331 members; we have received 721, and now have 550, many having died, and many more having been dismissed to unite in organizing new congregations. We have contributed for the support of the Gospel $121,192, an average of $7,774.59 per year. We have taken a large part in the organization of new churches in city and suburbs, Westminster being wholly the work of this church. In 1884 there were six Presbyterian churches; now there are twelve, and three missions. Total Presbyterian membership in city and suburbs was, in 1884, 1,582; in 1900 it is 3,027. We have added to our force also Union Theological Seminary, and the Westminster School. From 1812 to 1882 the average of new Presbyterian churches organized at Richmond was one for each seventeen and one half years; from 1882 to 1900 the average has been one new church for each period of two and one half years.

"In the Southern Presbyterian Church at large there were, in 1884, 131,258 communicants; by report for 1899 there were 221,022, and the total of contributions last year was $1,551,771.

CHRIST AND ALL CHRISTIANS.

"From the First Presbyterian church originated movements which resulted in organizing the Monday Morning Presbyterian Ministers' Meeting; the annual united communion service, the first Sabbath of each year; the Evangelical Alliance, and the May Festival of Christian Unity, begun so successfully last year in the Academy of Music.

"My own motto has been "Christ and all Christians—the Church." Yet I have instructed my own people in the doctrines, government, and history of their own Church, believing that an intelligent loyalty to our own denomination was perfectly consistent with patriotism for the Church of God as a whole.

"I have preached only Christ and Him crucified, according to the Bible, which is God's inspired and infallible Word. I have discovered nothing new, but have preached the old truths, which have been held by the Church from the beginning. We have never had a protracted meeting, yet I have not held a communion service without additions to the Church.

"We have been building up a congregation as a monument to the glory of God's help, an Ebenezer to remind men that their only hope in this sad world is found in God, through the sacrifice of Christ. To-day we have great reason to thank God for His mercies, and great hope in Him for our future life as a church."

After the service, many came forward to congratulate the pastor and wish him continued and increased success in his labors.

Crown of Christians.

Rev. George H. Spooner, of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, preached an eloquent sermon to a large congregation Sunday morning.

Mr. Spooner's drawing power is simply wonderful, only less so then his ability to hold after he has gotten the people together. His text was taken from Revelations, 2d chapter, part of 10th verse. "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life." After commenting on the fact that crowns for centuries have been the badges of honor and position, as well as of royalty, the thought was brought out that the child of God is privileged to have " a crown of righteousness," "a crown of life," "a crown of glory," and noted distinction between them. Faithful unto death is the condition, a crown is the reward.

At night the subject was Paradise, and the doctrine of an intermediate state, was discussed and defended.

Letter from Rev. Mr. Guerry.

The letter from Rev. William A. Guerry, declining the restorship of St. Paul's church yesterday, was read Sunday after the morning services.

Rev. Stuart Crockett, D. D., of the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania, preached a most able sermon. The letter was read by Mr. William C. Bentley, after which Hon. Beverly B. Munford made an address. Mr. Guerry expressed profound regret that he felt unable to accept the call, and expressed his appreciation of the unanimity of the call extended to him.

Baptist Ministers Meet.

The Baptists ministers held their usual conference yesterday morning. The visitors present were Dr. Malcolm McGregor, of Georgia; Dr. M. P. Fikes, of New Jersey; Dr. E. E. Bomar, the newly elected assistant secretary of the Foreign Mission Board, and Rev. E. Z. Simmons, a missionary to China, who is at home on his vacation. Each of the visitors had a pleasant word to say.

Dr. McGregor is aiding Dr. Smith, at Second Baptist church, in a revival, and Dr. Fikes is doing the preaching for Dr. Hutson at the Pine-Street church, also in a revival. Dr. Bomar was elected a member of the conference.

Mr. Simmons stated that the Baptists of China had contributed $4,000 towards the Baptist Publication Society of China, and that the Baptists of this country would be asked to enlarge the sum.

Sermon to the Juniors.

Dr. J. B. Hawthorne preached to the Junior Order United American Mechanics Sunday morning.

His subject was "The Patriotism of Peacemakers." He was heard by an immense congregation, and his discourse was in keeping with the abilities of the man.

The attendance of Juniors numbered about 700. Dr. Hawthorne said he was happy to see before him so many representatives of the order, whose principles and purposes are so notably patriotic. He commended the Juniors' devotion to the public schools, and hence to general education. The speaker again declared against the government's making appropriations for the support of distinctly religious institutions.

Dr. Hawthorne, at the opening of his discourse, took occasion to felicitate the Second church on its purpose to build a new church.

Against Gambling.

Mr. John Philip Quinn, of New York, the crusader against gambling, addressed Sunday the largest audience that has assembled at the Young Men's Christian Association in some time. Mr. Quinn has had about twenty-five years' experience as a professional gambler, and knows what he is talking about. A petition is being circulated asking the Legislature to pass more rigid laws against gambling. The ministers of the city are signing it.

W. H. Williams, "the drummer evangelist," gave his lecture, "Last Romp With the Tiger," in the Centenary Methodist church Sunday night to a large congregation, mostly of men. For an hour and a half he held his hearers spellbound, as he gave this recital of his "Romp With the Tiger."

He speaks to-night at the Methodist church in West Point. He returns to the city to-morrow. To-morrow night he will lecture in Broad-Street Methodist church.

Dr. Steele said of this talk of Mr. Williams's at the preachers' meeting yesterday that it was the best temperance address he ever heard.

CONFIDENCE

is capital; is the basis of all agreements; is truth personified. When one has confidence in anything the battle is half won, but lack of it imperils success from the beginning. It is but natural and right that religious teachers should inspire confidence. If they cannot be trusted and believed in, who can be? It is with this thought that the following paragraph is given to our readers from a clergyman well and favorably known:

ASHAWAY, R. I., February 25, 1899.

It is to me a duty as well as a pleasure to acknowledge that Warner's Safe Cure has, under God, been the means of preserving my life. Not only so, but other members of my family have been greatly benefited by a use of the same remedy, and scores of men and women of my acquaintance have told me that they have been cured in like manner by a use of this marvellous medicine. It seems to act beneficially when all other remedies fail. I heartily endorse and recommend its use to all sufferers in need of a medicine for the kidneys. This testimonial is sent unsolicited and in the only hope that it will do good.

CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS.

Federal Tribunal Will Convene To-Day for the February Term.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals will convene to-day at 12 o'clock for the February term. Circuit Judges Goff and Simonton and District Judges Morris and Waddill will compose the personnel of the court for this term.

There will likely be some sixteen or seventeen opinions announced in cases heard at previous terms of the court, some of which are of a very important nature. There are twenty-odd cases on the argument calendar for the term, and the court will very likely be in session until and possibly during the week beginning the 19th instant.

The Attorney-General of the United States has authorized and directed the Clerk of this court to print the records in the cases of Joseph E. Dickerson vs. United States and William E. Breese vs. United States at the expense of the government. The plaintiffs were convicted last spring in the District Court of the United States at Asheville, N. C., for violating the national banking laws of the United States and sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary. The records are very voluminous and the cost of printing will be more than a thousand dollars.

James O'Neill in "The Musketeers."

Some of the scenic effects introduced in "The Musketeers," in which James O'Neill will appear at the Academy to-night, are said to be marvels of stage craft. The action of the prologue takes place during a thunder-storm. Special wooden boxes, running the whole length from the floor to the rigging loft of the stage, are constructed in every theatre before the company's arrival. During the performance heavy rock stones and cannon balls are dropped from the top to the bottom of the wooden box, beating on their way against the numerous wooden wings placed inside, thus producing an exact and tremendous effect of rolling thunder.

The play is not in acts, but in tableaux, of which there are ten. And every one of the ten is said to contain a surprise, both regarding the development of the story, as well as in the marvellous endeavors of the scenic artists to produce effects that were never thought of on the stage before.

Henrico Juries for the Next Term.

The February term of the Henrico County Court begins next Monday. The grand jury will be made up as follows: T. D. Crouch, R. H. Crump, T. Archer Cary, George Watt, Jr., W. D. Irby, and Washington Williams (colored).

These gentlemen represent the Legion of the Red Cross of the United States, and will register at Murphy's, and desire to hold a conference with the officers and members of Granite Council, No. 29, of this city, Saturday night, at the hotel. On Monday night at Lee Camp Hall an open meeting will be held, and addresses will be made by the Supreme officers, to which the public will be welcome.

The Epworth League of St. James Methodist church will give their monthly literary entertainment to-night, when an amusing programme will be rendered, entitled, "An Evening With Grunters"; also, special instrumental and vocal music. The following papers will be read: "Trials of a Dressmaker," Miss Martha Walton; "Trials of a Stenographer," Mr. G. F. Robelen; "Trials of a School Principal," Mr. S. D. Turner; "Trials of a Newspaper Man," by one of them; "Trials of a Physician," Dr. V. Harrison; "Trials of a School-Teacher," Miss Nannie Pegram; "Trials of a Courting Man," Mr. E. W. Bandy; "Trials of a Preacher," Mr. R. H. Bennett. The public is cordially invited.

ROOSEVELT TO DECLINE.

Will Not Run for the Vice-Presidency.

(New York Times.)

ALBANY, February 4.—According to reliable authority, Governor Roosevelt intends to go to New York city soon to have a personal talk with Senator Platt and Chairman Odell, of the Republican State Committee. Close friends of the Chief Executive say that his purpose in making this trip will be to impress on Messrs. Platt and Odell, as representatives of the Republican State organization, that under no circumstances will he consent to become a candidate for Vice-President, and that he wants Messrs. Platt and Odell, as spokesmen for the party organization in this State, to convince the national leaders of the sincerety of his views regarding the matter and put an end to all further talk of his taking the second place on the national ticket.

Those who are in a position to know the Governor's views say that in the event that Messrs. Platt and Odell fail to stop the movement to have the Governor named as President McKinley's running-mate by the Philadelphia Convention, and it is believed that Senator Platt is anxious to see him nominated, Governor Roosevelt will firmly decline the nomination, even should he be the unanimous choice of the delegates.

The Governor has frequently told his friends that he is pleased with the position he now holds, and it is well understood that he desires another term in the gubernatorial chair. He has certain big plans, particularly the improvement of the canals, which he wishes to carry out to a successful termination, and it is his earnest wish that he may remain in his present office until these objects are accomplished. It is admitted that certain machine leaders want to remove the Governor from State politics, in which he has shown a desire to become more active than is desired by those who have been directing State affairs.

It is pointed out by those who are in sympathy with the Governor that the national convention will be held three months in advance of the State convention, which will nominate candidates for the various State offices, and should Governor Roosevelt's wishes in regard to the vice-presidency be ignored, he will have sufficient time to positively decline to accept the nomination of the national convention and still make a fight for renomination for Governor. His friends say he has gained strength among Republicans in this State since he assumed his present office, and they predict that he is to-day strong enough to force the State machine to renominate him for Governor, should such a step be necessary on his part.

CITY WON ITS CASE.

R. Piper Loses Suit for $5,000 Damages—Other City Courts.

In the Law and Equity Court yesterday a verdict in favor of the city was returned in the suit for damages instituted by R. Piper. The plaintiff alleged that he sustained serious injuries by falling into a culvert opening on First street between Duval and Baker. He fell through the opening in the sidewalk to the bottom of the culvert, which is 4 feet deep. He sued for $5,000.

In the same court suit for false imprisonment was instituted by Edward Carter against Philip C. Woodson, a merchant. The plaintiff's declaration recites that on January 20, 1900, he was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Woodson, charging him with theft of certain articles of value. Not only was he arrested, but he was compelled to remain imprisoned in a police-station cell all night, until the next morning, when he communicated with friends and secured bail. Carter alleges that his "good name, fame, character, and credit" have suffered to the extent of $2,000. Mr. E. M. Roscher is counsel for the plaintiff.

THE HUSTINGS COURT.

The Hustings Court convened yesterday in February term. Fourteen indictments were returned by the grand jury. To-day the cases will be assigned for hearing. The following is the list of indictments returned:

Edward Braxton, for breaking into the store of L. Kaufmann.

Edward Bumpass, for stealing a valise from the buggy of a gentleman.

A. J. DeLacy and J. W. McArthur, alias J. W. McCarthy, for breaking into Monumental church.

James Jones, for feloniously assaulting Maria Allen

William Johnson, for entering the house of W. H. McKinney.

Lee Lewis, for entering the slaughter-
