

DYING FROM SHOT FIRED BY ROBBER WHO HOLDS UP SIX

Man Felled by Nightstick Fleeing Saloon After Customers Are Robbed.

Charles Healy, bartender in the saloon at No. 163 Calyer Street, Brooklyn, was at work behind the bar at 1 o'clock this morning when a man with a gun came in and lined up six customers against the wall. As Healy sprang at him the man fired a shot, and Healy is at the Greenpoint Hospital dying. It is reported, with a wound in the abdomen.

Joseph Murray, alias "Patty Reilly," was caught by Patrolmen Zimmerman and O'Connell as he was running from the saloon. It is alleged he pointed a revolver at O'Connell, who knocked him down with his nightstick. Murray was taken to the Greenpoint Avenue Station, where Detective Sweeney identified him as "Reilly," recently released from Sing Sing.

Patrolman George Ruhlman of the West 57th Street Station saw Joseph Kelly, No. 432 West 57th Street, on a fire escape of a building at No. 233 West 58th Street shortly after midnight and ordered him to descend. As the patrolman was questioning Kelly two other men approached. One of them pushed Ruhlman against a railing, while Kelly attempted to run. Ruhlman pointed his revolver at Kelly, who seized the gun's barrel. Ruhlman shot Kelly in the hand. The wounded man was taken to Bellevue Hospital a prisoner charged with attempted burglary.

Burglars broke into the house of J. B. Greenhut, the former Sixth Avenue merchant, who resides at No. 28 West 72d Street, and pried open a strong box containing between $2,000 and $3,000 worth of jewelry, which they took.

The home of Mrs. Marion McMullin, No. 720 Park Avenue, was also broken into and about $200 worth of clothing taken. The apartment of H. J. Barrett, at No. 53 West 57th Street, was entered and $800 worth of jewelry and clothing taken.

Two taxicab chauffeurs were among the supper guests in David Sasowsky's restaurant at No. 361 Longwood Avenue at 4 o'clock this morning when four men entered and said they wanted a cab. The chauffeurs both declined the fare, saying they had no gasoline. A fight started in which about $200 worth of china and glass was smashed.

It is alleged the invaders took $49 from the cash register as they departed. Two men who said they were William McMullin, No. 430 West 35th Street, and John Sackman, No. 254 35th Avenue, Long Island City, were arrested.

Two men with handkerchiefs tied about their faces entered the drug store of Joseph Helman, No. 633 Thirtieth Avenue, Brooklyn, at 11 o'clock last night, and while one of them with a revolver forced Helman to stand with his hands up the other robbed the cash register of $46. The robbers escaped.

Patrolman John Weiss early today found three men in the cellar of the house at No. 233 Seventh Avenue. Two escaped but the policeman captured the third, a negro, who said he was Walter Davis, of No. 645 Lenox Avenue. He is accused of burglary.

HEATLESS LANDLORD FINED.

Pays $100 for Failure to Keep Apartment House Warm.

Elias Walburg, owner of a thirty-family apartment house at No. 1493 Madison Avenue, was fined $100 in the Court of Special Sessions today for failure to heat the building properly. Tenants complained that the apartments had been cold most of the winter.

Walburg said he had bought great quantities of coal and done his best to keep the place warm, but the furnaces were defective. He paid his fine. He said he was born in Russia but has become an American citizen.

The Kind of Hat You Used to Buy

Of course you've noticed that the price of hats and other men's goods have gone up and the quality has gone down.

How many times have you said, "If only I could get the kind I used to buy?" Well, we sell the kind of hats you used to buy.

Yes, Sir, before-the-war quality and durability. The kind that never wear out, the kind you hang on to until your wife or your friends josh you into buying another. Yes, we have the kind of hats you used to buy.

And they "wear like the name"
