MILLIONS IN THE PLAN

To Harness the Escanaba River to the Towns Round About in That Region.

$00 WON'T BE THE ONLY PEBBLE

Fire Catches the Adventists Again—Peculiar Coincidence—Miners at Work Once More.

Nagaunee, Mich., April 7.—A gigantic idea is being planned by a party of Minneapolis capitalists, who are at work on the preliminaries of developing the water power at the falls on the Escanaba river. It is estimated that 100,000-horse power can easily be obtained. A huge pulp mill has been projected, and in fact plans are under way for its erection.

Will Rival the Clergue Plant.

It is also planned to transmit power to Iron Mountain, Escanaba, Menominee and Marinette, and to furnish power in this city, Ishpeming and Marquette, and for the street railway to be built from here to Marquette. It will rival the famous Clergue plant at the Soo, and cost millions of dollars. The plan is looked upon as feasible here. If the reports of its possibilities are only partly true it will even then be a source of much encouragement to industrial undertakings within a circle of many miles about it. The outcome will be eagerly watched all over the peninsula.

Third Shaft to a Coal Mine.

Bay City, Mich., April 7. — The third shaft of the Wolverine coal mine, situated eight miles west of this city, is practically completed. It is a novelty in that the entries are wide enough for double tracks for the coal cars. The entries driven indicate that it will be one of the best producers in the valley. Another shaft is contemplated for that vicinity, and with a private railroad to the river front, Handy Bros. will have superior advantages for handling their output.

FIRE FIEND AFTER ADVENTISTS

Water Pressure Is Always Weak When a Blaze Occurs in Their Property.

Battle Creek, Mich., April 7.—Battle Creek's Seventh Day Adventists have again suffered loss by fire, the Haskell home laundry, power plant, and electrical plant being destroyed. The loss is not so important financially as for the discouragement it causes the sect.

As in almost every previous case, the pressue of city water was found insufficient. This has never happened at any except Adventist fires. The Haskell home, containing 300 children, had a close call, but was saved. The total loss on Adventist fires in Battle Creek to date reaches over a million dollars.

Bailey Seems a Bad Citizen.

Nashville, Mich., April 7.—At the examination of Sanford Bailey, charged with assault with intent to murder his former wife and her sister, the two women testified that he first threw a stone weighing two pounds through the window into the room in which they were sleeping, then smashed the whole window frame, using a hickory club, five feet long and two inches in diameter, and with this club inflicted on them injuries which nearly proved fatal. He was held without bail.

Bad Fall for Fourteen Men.

Port Huron, Mich., April 7. — A scaffolding on which fourteen men were shingling the roof of the church hall at Memphis fell, and two of the men, it is feared, will not recover. A bee was in progress, and the men who erected the scaffold were somewhat careless. David Cantine, a former president of the village, is injured internally, and George Kitchen is unconscious, his spine having been injured. Every one of the fourteen received bruises.

Guests Had Narrow Escapes.

Evart, Mich., April 7.—The Evart House caught fire through the explosion of an oil stove in the basement. Several of the guests were rescued by the fire department from the windows. Clarence Ingersoll, whose leg was broken, was in one of the rooms. His screams were not heard until he was nearly suffocated. Proprietor Burns' hair was burned. The damage to the hotel is about $800.

Michigan Mines at Work Again.

Saginaw, Mich., April 7. — The Michigan mine workers met in convention here and ratified the agreement made by their representatives and the operators at Indianapolis last week. The miners have resumed work.

Retired Merchant Stricken.

Hudson, Mich., April 7.—William Friend, a retired merchant, was stricken with apoplexy. He has been a resident of Hudson for fifty years, and he conducted a baking business in this city for over thirty-five years.

Washtub Broke Her Neck.

Cadillac, Mich., April 7.—Mrs. Arthur G. Snider fell while at her washtub. The back of her head struck the tub, and her neck was broken. She lived three hours.

Prominent Michigan Mason Dead.

Ann Arbor, Mich., April 7.—Jefferson S. Conover, grand secretary of the Free and Accepted Masons of Michigan, is dead, aged 62 years.

BOLD CRIME NETS THE THUG $50

Victim Is a Boy Who Is Held Up with a Pistol—Miscellaneous State News.

Kalamazoo, Mich., April 6.—Isaac L. Root, a wealthy Oshtemo township farmer whose matrimonial adventures have received attention in the papers, has succeeded in getting a wife at last. He has married Mrs. Eudora Rogers, of Grand Rapids, Justice Coleman tying the knot. His marriage is the direct result of the publication of his troubles.

Inspiration Came at Chicago.

Last year Root, while walking along the streets of Chicago, made up his mind that he would like to get married. He was directed by a friend to the Chicago Young Women's Christian association. In this way he met Mrs. Bessie Cochrane, and she came to his farm and kept house for him. Root grew very fond of Mrs. Cochrane and spent a good deal of money on her, but she left him and went to the Dakotas. Some correspondence between them followed, but he did not succeed in getting her to marry him. He came to town and told this story to the papers.

Couldn't Prove the Old Man Mad.

In the meantime his son applied to the probate court to have a guardian appointed for him, but it was shown that the old man was able to take care of the valuable farm he had acquired, and the action fell through. The publication of this story brought him into correspondence with many women, who expressed a willingness to marry him. Among these was Mrs. Rogers, who finally won him. The bride is said to be 58. She is well known in Grand Rapids. Root is 62.

THUG DOES A BOLD CRIME

Robs a Boy of $50, Going Into the Bank with Him to Complete the Job.

Muskegon, Mich., April 6.—Arthur Hadden, the 16-year-old son of Rev. Archibald Hadden, pastor of the First Congregationalist church here, having been sent to the Hackley National bank on an errand, reported to his father that he was forced at the point of a revolver to cash a $50 certificate of deposit and turn the money over to a stranger.

Having requested a private conversation with the boy the man demanded that Hadden indorse the check of deposit to him. When the boy objected, he says, the man pulled a revolver and then kept close behind him while he got the money from the cashier, and under instructions turned it over to the stranger, who disappeared as soon as they had left the bank together.

Charged with Swindling.

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 6. — Dr. George W. King is suing the General Accident Insurance association, of Scotland, on a policy in that company, and the defense promises to show that King has systematically swindled many insurance companies not only by insuring himself under fictitious names, but by insuring other people under his own name without their knowledge. In this way, it is alleged, he is now insured in more than twenty companies. The defense will try to show that King had a method of maiming himself in order to get the benefit of his accident insurance policies.

Kellogg Demands an Inquiry.

Battle Creek, Mich., April 6. — A dispatch from Oakland, Cal., where the Adventist conference is in session, says: "Dr. John H. Kellogg, president of the board of trustees of the Seventh Day Adventist sanatorium at Battle Creek, Mich., addressing the conference of his denomination in Oakland, demanded opportunity to crush what he declared was an attack upon himself and his motives toward the institution of which he is the active executive head. Dr. Kellogg said he had been charged with dishonest motives and methods, and asked for an investigation by the conference."

Police Are Looking for Him.

Lansing, Mich., April 6.—The police are looking for a man who grabbed the 6-year-old daughter of Jas. Brown on the Kalamazoo street bridge, and carried her to the vicinity of the Standard Oil company's tanks. The fellow was discovered by a passerby, who rescued the child uninjured. Several boys gave chase, but the man escaped.

April Fool Joker's Fool Joke.

Otsego, Mich., April 6.—Jay Becker was accidentally shot by a companion who was playing an April fool joke to frighten him. Two fingers were taken from his right hand, a wound six inches long and nearly to the bone was made in the right leg, and one not so severe in the other leg.

Franchise Fee Business Is Good.

Lansing, Mich., April 6.—The franchise fees received by the secretary of state for the first quarter of the year exceed those for the same period of last year by over $14,064. The total was $33,553.32.

MONUMENTS DEDICATED

Those of Indiana on the Battlefield of Shiloh, Fought Forty-One Years Ago.

Pittsburg Landing, Tenn., April 7.—Forty-one years ago two rival hosts met in the woods and fields round about a church called "Shiloh," and contended for two days as to which should have the victory. General Grant commanded one army and Albert S. Johnson (who died in the fight) the other. On the first day it looked gloomy for the Union forces, but on the second victory crowned their efforts.

So Forty-one years later came the veterans—some of them—who fought on that day to put up memorials to tell coming generations what deeds were done on those two days, and Indiana whose troops have a gallant part in the engagement, has dedicated twenty-two. Among those attending the exercises were: Governor Durbin, W. C. Sanger, assistant secretary of war; General Lew Wallace, Senator Beveridge (the orator of the day), and James Whitcomb Riley, the poet, who recited "Old Glory."

General Lew Wallace presided and said the surprise on the first day of the fight was needless. He also said later, and expressed anger at the same, that the national park commission's blue prints were wrong in the assignment of a position to Sherman's troops, declaring that he held that position himself. With the Indiana party on the field was Miss Nellie Grant, granddaughter of the "old commander."

ANNIHILATION TO FORTY-ONE

Ship Blows Up at Sea, Her Cargo of 95,000 Pounds of Gunpowder Having Exploded.

London, April 6.—It is believed that the steamer Bambara, on her first trip from Marseilles to Dakar, French West Africa, with a cargo of 95,000 pounds of gunpowder and two cases of dynamite, has been blown up at sea. The Bambara has not been reported from Gibraltar, although she should have been sighted there March 31.

The captain of the French schooner Assomption, of Marseilles, reports that on March 28, when sixty miles off Ile du Palmier, he saw a brilliant flash of light which was followed by a loud explosion. The captain of the Nina makes a similar report. The crew of the Bambara numbered thirty-five men, and she carried six passengers.

Great Strike in Holland.

Amsterdam, April 7.—At midnight a meeting of the workmen's committee proclaimed a general strike throughout Holland of all labor engaged in transportation both by land and water. All the railroad lines, stations and wharves are guarded by troops.

The administration of the railroads has taken steps to secure the running of the foreign expresses under military protection. A workman was wounded by a revolver shot fired by a soldier. The man, who was walking on the railroad, was not aware that the strike had been proclaimed, and failed to reply to the soldier's challenge.

A Sweet Breath

Is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Mrs. Mary S. Crick, of White Plains, Ky., writes: "I have been a dyspeptic for years—tried all kinds of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like. Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. E. B. Longwell. m

Sun

Stroke Shattered My Nerves.

Gave Up Preaching For Two Years.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Put Me On Active List.

Are you well? Do you sleep well? Do you get up rested, fresh and vigorous? Is your mind clear and active? If not read the following. See what another has suffered and how he recovered.

"Some years ago I was afflicted with sun stroke which left me with a shattered nervous system and exceedingly poor health. I suffered terribly with pain in my head, the top of my head would feel hot. I could not study, and after striving for two years to wear the trouble off, I was compelled to give up my pastoral labor and retire to my farm where I spent nearly two years trying to recuperate. It was all of no avail. Physicians' treatment and patent medicines failed to relieve me. I was exceedingly nervous and irritable and sometimes would shake terribly. I could not bear any noise. At the least excitement the blood would rush to my face and head. Two years ago I was induced to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. After using one bottle I could see improvement in my condition so I continued taking it for nearly a year. I am happy to say I no longer have those pains in my head or nervous spells. My appetite is good and I am able to preach three times on Sunday without fatigue. I consider Dr. Miles' Nervine the most wonderful medicine ever discovered."—Rev. D. Alex. Holman, Pastor U. B. Allen, late of said county, deceased, and that all creditors of said deceased are required to present their claims to said probate court, at the probate office, in the village of Paw Paw, in said county, for examination and allowance, on or before the 21st day of September next, and that such claims will be heard before said court, on Monday, the 20th day of July, and on Monday, the 21st day September next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of those days.

Dated, March 12, A. D. 1903. 2503t5o07

JAMES H. JOHNSON, Judge of Probate.

Probate Order.

State of Michigan—County of Van Buren.—ss

At a session of the probate court for the county of Van Buren, holden at the probate office, in the village of Paw Paw, on Saturday, the 28th day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and three.

Present, Hon. James H. Johnson, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Edward A. Rood, deceased,

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Frank A. Rood, one of the heirs of said deceased, praying for reasons therein stated that the court may adjudicate and determine who are, or were at the time of his death, the lawful heirs of said deceased and are entitled to inherit the real estate in said petition described.

Thereupon it is ordered, that Monday, the 27th day of April, 1903, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and all persons interested in said estate are required to appear at a session of said court, then to be holden at the probate office in the village of Paw Paw, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, that said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof by causing a copy of this order to be published in the True Northerner, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Van Buren, for three successive weeks at least previous to said day of hearing.

JAMES H. JOHNSON,
2503t4o2509 Judge of Probate.
