To Men Only.

I want to talk to every man who feels any indication of a loss of manly vigor, no matter how slight. You can not afford to ignore even the first symptoms, for unless properly treated premature decline and complete loss of manhood will surely follow. Spots before the eyes, dizziness, bashfulness, weak back, loss of memory, aversion to society, etc., are symptoms which you cannot overlook. These conditions can be promptly overcome if the right treatment is given, but experiments with free samples, ready-made medicines, etc., will only aggravate your troubles and make a cure more difficult.

DR. HATHAWAY.

It is no exaggeration to say that I have restored more weak men to the full strength and vigor of their manhood than any other physician in the United States. I have performed these cures strictly by my skill in medical science, treating each case upon its individual merits, after carefully studying all of its details. I want every man who needs such treatment to give this matter intelligent thought. The most delicate organs of the body are involved, and careful, individual treatment by a specialist who is competent is absolutely necessary. Before jeopardizing your future happiness by experimenting with clap-trap remedies and unscientific treatment, I want you to investigate fully my superior equipment for curing you. I can show you to your entire satisfaction why I can cure you, and explain why no good results can be expected from the various nostrums so widely advertised. I have cured completely some of the worst cases on record. No matter of how long standing your case is, you can obtain from me the best and most reliable treatment to be had. Call at my office for free consultation, or write for self-examination blanks, which will enable me to cure you at your home, as I have thousands of others.

My specialty includes all other chronic diseases such as stricture, varicocele, blood poison, bladder and urinary diseases, etc., which I treat in the latest scientific manner. Each case receives my personal attention.

SMITH-CRUMPLER.

Alabama Couple Elopes to Georgia to Be Married.

Eufaula, July 22.—(Special.)—The Gretna Green rendezvous over the river was again invaded yesterday when Mr. Alpheus Smith and Miss Ada Crumpler were joined in matrimony by Judge J. E. Dozier in Georgetown, Ga. The couple reside at Kleg, from which place they eloped Saturday night, catching the early train from Ozark Sunday morning. The bride is just 16 and the groom several years older, and it was the young lady's age that caused the objection. They are popular young persons and are highly esteemed in the community in which they live.

A majority of farmers in this section have had good rains and crop prospects are much more encouraging than several weeks ago.

F. D. Bludworth and his wife, accompanied by a little niece and nephew, passed through here last week in what he termed a house on wheels. The structure is built something like a passenger coach, but has berths on each side like a small river steamer with an aisle in the center. It is mounted on strong springs arranged on an ordinary wagon and can accommodate six persons with comfortable sleeping apartments. It is divided into two rooms, and is stored with a quantity of bedding, provisions, tables and everything necessary for housekeeping. It is strongly built of ash and poplar woods, weighs 1,400 pounds, and is easily drawn with two good horses. Mr. Bludworth has gone to Blue Springs for a sojourn of a week, and will then visit the mountains of Tennessee before returning to his home in Barnesville, Ga.

SPARKS BOUND OVER.

Negro Murderer Sent to Jail Without Bail.

Opelika, July 22.—(Special.)—Prof. C. H. Sparks, charged with the assassination of Jake Ingersoll, had his preliminary trial before Judge F. M. Renfro of the County Court, today. The State was represented by Circuit Solicitor C. A. L. Samford, and County Solicitor J. K. Watkins. Sparks represented himself. He wanted to waive a trial, but the State insisted that the evidence should be introduced in order to prove the corpus delicti.

Ingersoll's wife was the principal witness against him. She swore positively to giving Sparks the gun ten minutes before the fatal shot was fired, and finding it a few minutes afterwards where he agreed to leave it. She also testified to seeing Sparks near the house immediately after the assassination about 8 o'clock, and his returning there at 12 o'clock that night.

After the evidence was heard Judge Renfro remanded the prisoner to jail without bail to await the action of the grand jury.

Last Friday night a Pullman car was rocked near Auburn, in this county. Special Detective J. J. Yarbrough went there from Atlanta and investigated the matter, and arrested a negro boy about 15 years old named Isus Dowdell, charged with the offense. Today Dowdell plead guilty in the County Court, and was fined $10 and costs.

Today United States Commissioner Thompson bound Mack Higgins of Chambers County, over to the United States Court in the sum of $100 for retailing liquor without license. He was arrested by Deputy Marshal Gibson.

There is a wonderful improvement in the crop in this section recently, especially cotton. The grass and weeds are all destroyed and the crop is growing rapidly.

Alabamians at Buffalo.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 22.—(Special)—Alabama people are about to capture the Pan-American. They are coming in in great numbers and letters being received at the exhibit show that they are only the advance guard of the crowds that will come in August. The days are warm but the nights are cool. Those registering in the last two days are: W. W. Westmoreland and wife, D. J. Fox and wife, J. J. Sterne and wife and J. W. Tomlinson and wife and children of Birmingham, Dr. E. S. Jones and wife, S. S. Caldwell, Miss Emma Borsch Louise Caldwell of Gadsden, Miss Barnett, Miss Adel Jordan, R. C. Capel, E. C. Andrews, T. G. Beason, W. J. Osborne of Montgomery, Clifton Hicks of Talladega, Olive G. Hurtel and Norma Baugh of Mobile, Miss E. L. Tyler, Mrs. C. A. Thompson, Miss Minnie Rodgers of Huntsville, J. H. Dustman and Miss Duggan of Anniston.

Frank Steltzmiller, the driver of an express wagon in Denver, began the practice about two years ago of placing mats under the feet of his horses when they stood. He was actuated by a feeling of kindness to the animals, but it has brought him considerable business and there is talk of the local express men's union asking all members to adopt the practice.

Here's a Hurried Goodbye to Odd Lots

This radical clean-up sale is the safety valve of this very particular store. July is clean-up time. Daily we look through and cull out the odd pieces as well as odd lots and put them on sale at clearance prices, thus assuring fresh stocks and complete assortments. That's why the present loss pays us.

It pays you because you get wanted things that are seasonable and of a high character at a third to a half under price.

Embroidered Handkerchiefs.

We had 1,200 of this special lot yesterday morning; but you changed those figures in short order, still we probably have plenty for all who will come to-day. They are fine, neatly made, absolutely pure linen, embroidered and hemstitched and should have sold for 35 to 50 cents. Choose while they last for 23c. each.

More of The Belts.

Just one or two of a kind, but there were so many sorts the collection amounts to over a hundred leather, silk and satin belts; they sold from 40c to a $1 each. Choose to-day at 10c. each.

WASHABLE SILKS.

The pretty corded silks that sold all the season at 45c a yard—they aren't worth any less now but for the fact that it is clean-up time and they must suffer because tempus fugit. Today 27c. a yard.

All Our Finest Imported Swisses.

This movement concerns the dressy dress materials. Many of them were exclusively ours. All were of the most refined character, and each will add much beauty to the summer wardrobe of its purchaser. The old prices were 75c and $1. The new price today is 43c a yard.

Liberty Satin Ribbons.

We have been very particular in buying the ribbons we sell. Just now the prevailing need is for the soft, thin Liberty Satin and that is what we want to tell you about particularly to-day. 3½ inch wide, pure silk, double-face, soft Liberty Satin Ribbon in every wanted color at 25c. a yard.

NACHMAN AND MEERTIEF

DIED WITH SMALLPOX

DISEASE STILL PREVALENT AROUND SUMMERFIELD.

Only Negroes are Sufferers—Mr. Frank Welch, a Well Known Lumberman, Dies After a Long Illness.

Advertiser Bureau,
Selma, July 22.

Smallpox is still prevalent to a certain extent among the negroes in the Summerfield neighborhood. Saturday night Abe Jones, a negro, died, making the third death to date. There are three more negroes down with the disease. Summerfield is the only place in this section where smallpox still has a hold. It is not known what the county health authorities are doing to stamp out the disease in that neighborhood.

Mr. Alex Cawthon and family have returned from Perdido Beach, where they entertained a house party at their lovely summer cottage. Mr. Cawthon was delighted with his stay on the beach, and says that he does not think Palm Beach compares at all with Perdido Beach as a place to spend a few months in the summer. Perdido Beach in getting to be very popular with Selmains.

Mr. Frank Welch of Ridersville died at 11 o'clock, after a long illness. He was one of the pioneer lumbermen of this section and accumulated a large fortune. He and his brother owned and developed the property known under the name of Welch's Mill, and made an immense fortune out of the lumber business. Mr. Welch was a man of splendid physique, being nearly six and a half feet tall, and had a disposition as lovable as a woman's. He was very popular in Selma, where he bought all of his supplies, and there is regret among all classes of business men that he is no more. He has been in failing health for a number of years, however, and his death was looked upon as only a question of time by his family and friends.

At the conclusion of the services at the First Presbyterian Church last night, the pastor, Rev. A. A. Little, announced that if there were any persons in the audience matrimonially inclined if they would present themselves at the altar he would perform the ceremony. This announcement caused a flutter of expectancy to pass over the congregation, and in a moment Mr. Reub. Hays and Miss Elizabeth Jones arose and went to the pulpit, where the solemn and impressive words were said that made this young couple husband and wife. The congregation was taken by surprise, as no one but the minister knew what was coming.

Mr. Arthur Pitts, who graduated at the University of Alabama at the last commencement, has just returned from a trip through several counties of Central Alabama. He says that everywhere he went the old cadets and the friends of the University are delighted that Dr. Wyman has been elected President of the University. Mr. Pitts will go back to the University next session and will take the two years' course in the law department of that institution of learning.

Mr. Ed Eliasberg and family left this afternoon for Asheville, N. C. A special sleeper was brought from Montgomery on account of the illness of an 11-months-old babe. Dr. Goldsby King accompanied them to Asheville.

Mr. George Houston, President of the Scotch Lumber Company of Fulton, Ala., passed through the city last night, accompanied by his family, on the way to Buffalo.

Mrs. I. Matt Meyer of Tilden is on a visit to her mother in this city.

COMPLETED THE ARTICLE

dent of the Senate shall be paid $6 a day and 10 cents mileage. The amendment was tabled on motion of Mr. Ashcraft of Lauderdale.

Mr. Smith of Mobile, sent up an amendment to the Article that the Legislature might meet elsewhere than Montgomery when it became impossible to meet at the Capitol. The Smith amendment was adopted.

Mr. Smith of Mobile gave notice that he would move to reconsider the vote by which Section 59 was adopted.

Mr. Beddow of Jefferson, sent up an amendment to the Article known as Section 66, providing that all printing done under this Article shall bear the label of the Typographical Union, providing it be at the lowest price.

Mr. Beddow addressed the Convention on union labor. He said the proposition was backed up by at least 25,000 white voters of Alabama. He declared he had been surprised that his efforts along this line had to some extent been met with ridicule by some of the delegates. He said he wanted to put the Convention on record on the question of union labor.

Governor Oates argued against the amendment. He said it had no place in the Constitution. There was no discrimination in the Article against union labor. The lowest responsible bidder was to get the work and he did not think the amendment was necessary. There were honest laborers outside of the union. He concluded by moving to table the Beddow amendment.

Mr. Beddow called for the ayes and nays, but the call was not sustained. The amendment was tabled by an overwhelming vote, and the Convention at 6:30 o'clock adjourned.

DEATH OF S. S. RIDDLE.

He Was a Well Known Citizen of Hartselle.

Mr. Baker was about 70 years old and for many years was a member of the firm of Baker & Conway, stonemasons. Mr. Baker was a native of New York State. A wife and grown children survive him.

CUT HIS WIFE'S THROAT

NEGRO IN JAIL CHARGED WITH UXORCIDE.

Admits the Crime and Says He Does Not Care If He is Hanged For It—Oil at Leeds.

Birmingham, July 22.—(Special)—Jerry Demus, colored, is in the county jail charged with wife murder, committed at Ensley Saturday night. Demus says that he doesn't care if he hangs for his crime. He states that his wife had not been faithful to him and that he had grown tired of her treatment. He states that she left him recently but he prevailed upon her to return home and begin life anew. She came back Saturday. Demus adds that when she came home he sat down and loked at her and the longer he looked the madder he got. Finally he said he could not stand it any longer so he went out, procured his razor, sharpened it and returning jerked the woman's head back and cut her throat. Demus said that that is all there is to the story. When asked if he did not think that he would be hanged for the crime Demus replied: "Yes, I know they will hang me for it, but I don't care. It will be only two more negroes out of the way—me and her." Coroner Parris made a preliminary investigation into the killing and the facts brought out substantiate the story told by Demus.

Died of Heart Disease.

D. B. South, a well known young railroad man, died suddenly at Woodlawn this morning of heart disease. He was taken sick last night while calling on a young lady at Gate City and his condition became so serious that a physician took him back to Woodlawn. He was addicted to the cigarette habit and his father says that this no doubt caused his death. South was 22 years old.

Evidence of Oil.

A citizen of Leeds, who was in the city today, said that prospectors for oil in that community had found what they regarded as unmistakable evidences of the existence of the fluid, and that there was much excitement as a consequence. It was said that a well which was bored gave eviry indication of the presence of oil, and that those who were engaged in the work are expecting to strike oil at any moment.

A party of prospectors have arranged to begin boring for oil at Cardova, a contract with drillers having been made for work to begin not later than July 25. It is also stated that former Congressman W. F. Aldrich and associates have begun prospecting for oil in Shelby County, and that they are very hopeful of finding it.

The Miners' Strike.

District Organizer William Kirkpatrick of the United Mine Workers of America, who left today for Carbon Hill to take charge of the strike at that place, stated before his departure that about 300 men are out at Galloway and Chicasaw mines. He added that they would remain firm until the end. They are striking because they object to the sub-contract system. It appears that those miners who are members of the Knights of Labor are still at work at Carbon Hill. Charles Ross, District Master Workman of the Knights of Labor, was in the city today and said that less than forty men are out at Carbon Hill. He said that the mines have a full crew at work and the output of coal is about the same as usual. The Knights of Labor have a contract at the Galloway and Chicasaw mines until the 1st of April next.

Ate Concentrated Lye.

The 18-months-old baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. John Buxton, living in the western part of the city died in horrible pain last night, the result of getting concentrated lye down its throat. The little fellow while crawling around on the floor in the home of the Buxton's, got hold of the box of lye, and baby-like, put some of it down its mouth. The remains were interred in the Elyton Cemetery this morning.

Run Over by Train.

Frank McRee, aged 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dominick McRee, died in the St. Vincent Hospital last night, the result of horrible injuries received while trying to board a freight train on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, near Grace's Gap, five miles south of the city. The boy with a number of companions, went down to the Gap to go swimming in a pool. The boy saw a train coming and attempted to board it, when he missed his hold and fell on the track. Wheels mashed off his legs below the knees and otherwise injured him. He died several hours after being brought to the city. His funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon.

NEGRO KILLS ANOTHER.

Allen Flowers Slain Near Brundidge by Jack Smith.

Brundidge, July 22.—(Special.)—Allen Flowers, quite a notorious negro, under indictment for complicity in stealing cotton from Mr. W. E. Boyan and attempting to burn his gin house, near here last fall, died last night as the result of a blow from a gun in the hands of another negro, Jack Smith, inflicted Saturday night. It happened at Frank Smith's, a brother of Jack, just south of the city limits. Smith is in custody, awaiting a preliminary hearing. From the evidence, it appears to be a case of self-defense, as Flowers, who was drinking, snapped the gun at Smith several times. The latter wrenched the weapon from him but was again attacked, this time with a knife. He then struck his antagonist a terrible blow with the gun, crushing his skull, the hammers penetrating the brain. Smith came in Sunday morning and surrendered. He has been before the courts on several occasions for petty crimes, and his reputation is in nowise angelic. He is about 20 years old and Flowers was about 60.

Jasper Grubles, a negro who said he lived in Troy, was shocked by lightning Saturday afternoon, a mile and half east of town. He was walking along the road and a bolt struck a tree about sixty yards from him, knocking him unconscious, and it was thought for a time he was dead. He recovered in a short time.

Everything is in readiness for the reunion Thursday and Friday. Besides the orators of the occasion, Colonel Woods and Capt. B. H. Screws, Governor Jelks, Generals Oates, Sanford and Harrison, Captain Brewer and Brooks of the 46th, ex-Governor Jones, Congressman Wiley and many others have been invited and a number of them are expected to be present. The old soldiers intend it to be such a reunion as has never been held in Southeast Alabama before.

A prominent and well-informed business man said: "Everybody here is down on the action of the Convention on the free pass evil." Your correspondent heard a number say that they intended to vote against ratification if there was not a self-acting provision prohibiting free passes, and if the four-year provision for legislative sessions was kept in the Constitution that may be framed.

AT CAMP W. D. JELKS

GOVERNOR AND HIS STAFF IN MOBILE.

Did Not Review the Troops, Owing to a Heavy Rainstorm—Man Falls to Sidewalk and is Killed.

Mobile, July 22.—(Special.)—Sunday at Camp Jelks was little different from the other days, and the usual drills and manoeuvers were had. There were many visitors at the camp during the afternoon and evening. Immediately after the regimental drill and dress parade in the evening, there was held the religious exercises. Chaplain A. C. Harte officiated, and was assisted by Rev. Gardiner C. Tucker, rector of St. John's Church, this city. There was a very large number of city folks present to witness the exercises, which were very pretty. The regiment was formed in groups of battalions, company front, and all faced the small movable platform which has been provided for the ministers. Immediately after the ceremony, the soldiers returned to camp, where they had supper, and then devoted themselves to entertaining their visiting friends and relatives. There was a concert by the regimental band, lasting until nearly 10 o'clock.

Order No. 24 was issued yesterday as follows:

A regimental courtmartial is appointed to meet at these headquarters at 9 a .m., Monday, July 22, for the trial of Sergeant John J. Crary of Company F of Dothan, and such other cases as may come before them. The detail for the courtmartial is as follows: Major Zell Gaston of the 3rd battalion, Captains Williams L. Cahall, Willam H. Brannen, G. W. L. Smith, Duke Guice and Lieutenant J. L. Stearns, Judge Advocate.

Crary was charged with firing a shot at the negro who, on Saturday, cut Private Sanders at a saloon some distance below the camp. Sanders is doing well and will be out in a day or two.

The Governor and his full staff are in the city and will remain till tomorrow night. The exercises incident to Governor's Day at Camp Jelks were postponed this afternoon till tomorrow afternoon on account of a heavy rain storm which came up just before the hour set for the beginning of the exercises and continued for an hour or more. It was a very wet afternoon at the camp and there were few visitors.

About 9:30 o'clock Sunday night a man supposed to be named Joseph Ryan fell from the third story dormer window of a lodging house on the east side of Water Street, second north of Government and was instantly killed. The man fell on his head upon the stone pavement. He was a stranger in the city and it is supposed that he fell while under the influence of liquor, having gone to the window to get the breeze after disrobing himself. Letters found indicate that he is Joseph Ryan and that he has been working at saw mills along the line of the Gulf and Ship Island Railroad in Mississippi. It is believed that he leaves a mother at Ocean Springs, Miss.

HURT IN RUNAWAY.

J. T. Worthington Seriously Injured in Wetumpka.

Wetumpka, July 22.—(Special.)—There occurred upon the streets of Wetumpka this morning a serious runaway in which Mr. J. T. Northington, traveling for the shoe house of C. A. Stern & Co., of Montgomery, was seriously hurt. Mr. Northington had secured a hack and span of horses and a driver from the stable and was leaving for a tour of the country. He had just gotten into the vehicle when the horses became frightened, running madly through the streets, striking a post at the corner of M. Hohenberg & Co.'s. The vehicle was completely demolished and Mr. Northington was severely bruised about the face and had some of the ribs on his left side broken. The impact of the vehicle with the post was so great that Mr. Northington was pitched up and over the post, thereby saving his life. The driver escaped without hurt. Mr. Northington is resting easily.

Mrs. E. V. Wall today issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter Ida, to Mr. Truman M. Holland of Breeman, Ga. The marriage will take place at the home of the bride, August 7th.

A letter from France addressed "Lord Mayor of Chicago, Town Hall," was delivered to Mayor Harison the other day. It came from the Countess Derruppe. Lacan par Bargnac. The Countess wrote on tinted paper, mounted with her crest, and asked the Mayor a question of great importance. It was: "Who is the Chicago man who wants to buy an autograph of Shakespeare?" The Mayor can't answer.

YOUR BLOOD MADE NEW.

Your heart beats about sixty thousand times a day. Every drop of blood in your veins visits every part of your body about five hundred times each twenty-four hours. Is it any wonder that many troubles arise when the blood is not right?

Is it hard to understand why health quickly returns when you take a remedy like Dr. Harters Iron Tonic, a remedy that purifies and enriches the blood?

It does far more than that, because it is the perfect example of everything that "tonic" stands for. But it would be a wonderful remedy if its power to make red, rich blood was its only property. It is far better than so-called blood prifiers is far better than so-called blood purifiers blood.

It is not one of the crude forms of iron that injures the teeth and stomach, but a delicate, harmless form that is almost instantly passed from the stomach to the blood. In the blood it battles against weakness and disease, and helped by the other ingredients of that famous remedy, it rids the system of all impurities and helps each sluggish organ to do its full duty.

If you have skin disease, rheumatism, stomach trouble, nervousness, or if you have any reason to believe that your blood is disordered or that your health is running down, be just to yourself and try this remedy.

Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic has for forty-five years been made only by The Dr. Harter Medicine Co., Dayton, Ohio. Sold everywhere.
