IN AND ABOUT THE COURTS

APPLICATION OF CONSERVATOR OVER AGED WEST HAVEN WOMAN.

Mrs. Angelica Livingstone Believed to be Insane—Music Teacher Sautelle Files Petition in Bankruptcy—Sports Arrested at Cock Fight Forfeit Bonds
—City Court Cases.

In the probate court yesterday further hearing was held in regard to the application to have a conservator placed over Mrs. Angelica Livingstone of West Haven. Two nieces have brought the application, saying that their aunt is incapable of arranging her own affairs.
Several physicians testified in the case at the hearing a week ago in regard to Mrs. Livingstone's mental capacity, and yesterday morning Dr. Adams of West Haven testified. He said he believed that Mrs. Livingstone had shown unmistakable signs of insanity, and that she was incurable. It is said that Mrs.
Livingstone's estate is worth about $10-000.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.
Suits were returned in the court of common pleas yesterday in which Frank Clark sues to recover $150 on a note against Arthur Purcell and brother, all of New Haven. The defendants are interested in the Novelty Works on Elm street, which recently made an assignment.

PETITION IN BANKRUPTCY.
Charles F. Sawtelle, a music teacher and piano tuner, through his counsel, W. A. Wright, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States court yesterday. His schedule shows that he owes creditors $5,471, and has assets of only $32.

WILL CASE SETTLED.
The suit of Jane Turner against Norris B. Mix of Hamden, executor, has been withdrawn from the superior court.
It is understood that the case has been settled with satisfaction to all parties. Miss Turner sued to break the will of her aunt, but the supreme court approved the will. Miss Turner thereupon put in a bill before the commissioners of the estate for a sum which she claimed was owed her for services and which payment she promised to make through a legacy in the will. The claim was for $7,000. Newton, Church & Hewitt were counsel for Miss Turner, and William H. Williams and Leahé Wolfe for Mr. Mix.

CIVIL SUITS IN CITY COURT.
Sarah Collins has brought suit in the city court against Henry Knight and William Ryan, as executors of the estate of John Coyne, for $200 for services rendered. Damages of $500 are claimed.
William J. Sullivan has also brought suit against the same parties, as executors, for $200 for services, placing damages at $300.

SPORTS FORFEIT BONDS.
When the cases of those who were arrested as spectators at a cock fight at the West Haven house a week ago were called in the borough court in West Haven yesterday morning twelve men whose cases were continued did not respond, and their bonds were forfeited.
The bonds were $50 in all cases, and those who jumped their bail were all from Hartford. It appears that several New Haveners who were caught gave fictitious names and settled their cases shortly after their arrest. Policeman French arraigned before Judge Bryant William H. Murphy, a huckster of this city, for being at the fight. Murphy said that he was hired to carry a party of spectators from the city down to the West Haven hotel and had orders to wait to bring his fares back to the city.
He was in the hotel when the officers appeared. Prosecuting Agent Bush said that Murphy was not exempt from punishment, although his explanation was plausible enough. Judge Bryant took into consideration the circumstances under which Hackman Murphy was present and made the fine $3 and costs, knocking off $2 from the fine imposed in the other case.

The cases of William O'Keefe, the proprietor of the West Haven hotel, and of John Collins of Hartford were continued.

CITY COURT CASES.
Thomas Burke was sentenced to sixty days in jail in the city court yesterday for bawling on the streets. Cornelius Mulligan was given thirty days for a similar offense.

Michael Donohue was sent to jail for thirty days for assault on John McIntyre on Saturday night.

Mary Tobin was fined $15 and costs of $19.44 for keeping a disorderly house on Congress avenue.

Mary Ross and Angelo Di Giovanni, who were charged with a similar offense, had their cases continued until March 14.

Hattie Goodman's case went over until March 26.

Thomas F. Campbell promised to contribute to the support of his wife and minor children and the case against him was nolle.

Clancy was arrested and his case was continued to to-day.

John Ryan was fined an aggregate amount of $15 and costs for drunkenness, and being unable to pay the same was sent to jail.

OSCAR TURCOTT'S ESTATE THIR-TY THOUSAND DOLLARS.

No trace has been found of the bodies of Oscar Turcott and William Buck, who went duck shooting from Short Beach ten days ago and never returned. It is believed that they were drowned the day they started on their trip.

The relatives, however, entertain hope that the men might have been picked up by a passing sailing vessel and carried to some distant port. This is hardly possible as if such a thing had happened the hunters would have been heard from before this.

Turcott left an estate valued at about $30,000. He has a widow and several other relatives. It is probable that they will wait a month before taking out administration papers in the probate court. Part of the estate consists of real estate on Howard avenue in this city.

WILL IS PROBATED.
Winsted, March 12.—The will of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Finney, founder of the Elizabeth home in Winsted, was admitted for record yesterday morning at the probate office. One-fourth of her estate is bequeathed to the three children of the late Martin Phelps of Colebrook, Mrs. Lester N. Phelps of Colebrook, and Edward and Bertha Smith of Winsted. The remaining three-fourths she bequeaths equally to Mrs. Cora E. Phelps, widow of Luther Phelps, and daughter, Emma P. Phelps of Hamden.

Lucien V. Finney is appointed executor. The estate is believed to be valued at about $20,000.

DEFENDANT'S MOTION IN MCKEE CASE.

Judge Roraback of the superior court yesterday afternoon filed a motion upon the defendant's motion for addition to and correction of the finding in the case of the state against James A. McKee, who was charged with violation of the statute in selling Waterbury Herald. The defendant's counsel asked that the court find that it was not proven or claimed that the defendant was present at the time of the alleged sales; that the only proof of agency claimed or offered in evidence was that the same person who sold the papers on the several days in question had been seen on other days engaged in selling goods in the defendant's place of business; that no evidence was offered connecting the defendant with the possession, ownership or sale of the papers except that they were taken from a pile of papers lying on a table or counter in the defendant's place of business. Judge Roraback allows the finding asked for to be amended in the manner stated, but denies the requests as to proof of agency and possession on the ground that the facts alleged in these two paragraphs of the motion were not the only proof of agency.

The defendant's counsel also asked the court to add to the finding in respect to the admissibility of the articles claimed as going to make up the sum total to be estimated in determining whether the paper was principally made up or devoted to the publication of the prohibited class of matter. The addition asked for was that the pictures and illustrations of the several articles offered in evidence were not pictures illustrating acts or depicting deeds of bloodshed, lust or crime. This part of the motion is denied on the ground that it was agreed between the parties that the exhibits referred to, the papers described in the information, may be referred to in the arguments and the trial of the case in the supreme court.

FOOTBALL RULE CHANGES.

Rules Committee, Which Meets This Month, May Make Alterations.
No definite plans have yet been taken toward a formal call for a meeting of the rules committee to act upon the present football code. It is being discussed and there is every likelihood that a call will shortly be issued. What the changes likely to come up for discussion are, no one can certainly predict, but it is safe to say that the scoring rule will be one that will be brought up and many are the promised variations that may be offered. Conservation and a strong belief in making as few alterations as possible are features that have always marked the deliberations of the rule-making body. Hence it is one of the probabilities that sweeping changes in scoring will not be adopted. Two points are most likely to bear the brunt of the discussion in this particular rule. These are the value of a drop or rather field kick and the touchdown into a goal. Minor points in the rules which are merely matters of interpretation will also be taken up and definite understandings reached so as to leave as little as possible to the discretion of the already overworked officials.

Another point that has been brought forward with unusual prominence, owing to an incident of one of the final matches of the past season, is that regarding coaching by non-players and those enjoying side-line privileges.

Whether the result of the consideration of this question will be the relegation of all persons to certain prescribed limits outside of any possible infractions of this rule, is still an open question which can only be decided when the committee meets. Another rule that has long existed but which has seldom been brought into such prominence as it was in the Yale-Harvard game, is the permitting the retention of the ball by a side willing to sacrifice twenty yards for the sake of still holding the ball. There has been some suggestion that this rule is to come up for consideration before the rule-makers, but this is not nearly so generally commented upon as are the other rules already spoken of. The meeting will probably take place some time during March, to be followed by other meetings should they prove necessary.

THIS WEEK'S YALE LECTURES.

Programme of the Lectures to be Given in the Various Departments.

A number of interesting lectures are to be given this week in connection with the different university courses.
The complete schedule for the week is as follows:

This afternoon at 5 o'clock Professor Jepson will give his eighth organ recital in Battell chapel.

The Semitic and Biblical club will meet on Wednesday evening at 7:30 in room A, East Divinity hall. There will be a book review by Professor Sanders and a paper on "The Jewish Passover" will be read by Dr. Moulton.

At 8 o'clock this same evening Celiach Yamaguchi will read a paper on "Japan's Foreign Trade" before the Political Science club in room 11, White hall.

On Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock the fifth concert of the New Haven Symphony orchestra will begin at the Hyperion.

In the evening at 7:30 the Mathematical club will meet in the Sloane laboratory. Papers will be read by Mr. Burman on "The Curvature of the Sphere," by Mr. Porter on "The First English Geometry," by Miss Wood on "Fourier's Series," and by Messrs. Stromquist and Olson on "Power Series and Infinite Products."

Professor Sneath will deliver a lecture on "The Aesthetic Factor in Education," in the College street hall at 8 p. m. This lecture is in the teachers' lecture course.

On Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock M.
Henri de Regnie of Paris will deliver his first lecture on "The Symbolists and Parnassians" in the south gallery of the Art school.

At 8 p. m. in North Sheffield hall, in connection with the Sheffield course, a lecture will be given by Walter Camp on the subject "Outside the Curriculum."

On Saturday, March 17, Professor Hopkins will read a paper on "Poetic License" before the Classical club, which will meet in room 29, Phelps hall, at 7:30 p. m.

On Monday, March 12, Professor F. K.
Sanders will deliver a lecture in the St.
Paul's parish house at 4 p. m. on "The First Group (750-700 B. C.)—the Prophets of the Assyrian Conquest of Israel."

A YEAR'S DIVORCES.
Assistant Clerk Fowler of the superior court has prepared, at the request of Dr. C. A. Lindsey, secretary of the state board of health, the divorce statistics for New Haven county for the year ending December 31, 1899.

During this period 110 divorces were granted for the following named causes: Adultery, 18; adultery and desertion, 1; adultery and intemperance, 4; cruelty, 12; cruelty and desertion, 1; cruelty and intemperance, 5; desertion, 50; intemperance and desertion, 1; intemperance, 20; corporal imbecility, 1.

AN ART EXHIBIT

For the Benefit of the Public Schools.
An art exhibit of four hundred large photographs, autographs, carbon prints, etc., sent by the Helman-Taylor Art company of New York city, will open in Warner hall Thursday evening, March 15, at 8 o'clock, and will remain open for five days and evenings. This exhibit, representing all the great masterpieces of painting of the famous buildings of Europe and America, as well as the most beautiful scenery of both countries is shown just to give pleasure to all who will see them and, second, to make money with which to buy many of the same pictures to be put into the public schools and kept there as their own. It is to be hoped that thousands of our citizens will gladly spend the small mite required to help on the good work of delighting and elevating the children by putting these fine pictures into the schools, besides giving themselves the pleasure of studying this fine art exhibit. These same pictures have been shown in almost all the large cities of our country and in many smaller ones. They go from here to Hartford, and they are here under the auspices of the art committee of the Woman's Public School association. This committee consists of Mrs. J. C. Schwab, Mrs. William C.
Sturges, Miss Teresina Peck, Mrs. Henry W. Farnam, Mrs. George T. Ladd, Miss Maria T. Dana.

CROSS COUNTRY MEET.
The intercollegiate Cross Country association held its annual meeting at Columbia university Saturday afternoon.
The following representatives were present: Princeton, H. H. Langerberg, J. W. Jameson; Yale, J. P. Adams 1900, P. Strong 1901; Cornell, A. J. Sweet; Columbia, J. B. Smith and the University of Pennsylvania, B. W. Frazer.

Treasurer Adams, Yale, reported a balance of $14,116 in the treasury. It was decided to hold this year's meeting at Morris park on Thanksgiving day. It was recommended for the furtherance of cross country running to hold more dual meets before the intercollegiate championships.

The officers elected for the ensuing year were J. W. Jameson, Princeton, president; P. Strong, Yale, 1901, manager; A. J. Sweet, Cornell, secretary, and C. A. Dana, Columbia, treasurer; managing committee, P. Strong, chairman, C. A. Dana and B. W. Frazer.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.
A stated meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of New Haven will be held at its hall, Chamber of Commerce building, 763 Chapel street, next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. C. A.
Green, assistant chief of the bureau of information of the Philadelphia Commercial museum, will address the Chamber on "The Commercial Opportunities in the East, and How to Take Advantage of Them." In this address Mr. Green will present facts and figures on the method of securing the attention of buyers in China especially, that no manufacturing center of the United States has yet had an opportunity of having placed before them.

SOCIAL SCIENCE.
The New Haven Social Science association will meet at the office of H. G.
Newton, 818 Chapel street, Thursday evening, March 15, at 7:30 o'clock. Subject, "Imperialism," the discussion to be opened by Talcott H. Russell.
