

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ROYAL Baking Powder is indispensable to the preparation of the finest cake, hot-breads, rolls and muffins.

Housekeepers are sometimes importuned to buy other powders because they are "cheap."

Housekeepers should stop and think. If such powders are lower priced, are they not inferior?

Is it economy to spoil your digestion to save a few pennies?

Makes the lightest
most delicious
and tasty
hot biscuit

Alum is used in some baking powders because it is cheap. It costs but a few cents a pound whereas the chief ingredient in a pure powder costs thirty. But alum is a corrosive poison which, taken in food, acts injuriously upon the stomach, liver and kidneys.

OBITUARY NOTES.

Funeral of Edward S. Barber.

The funeral services of Edward S. Barber, formerly of this city, but latterly of Winsted, were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Burwell's undertaking rooms on Chapel street. Rev. William A. Beardsley, rector of St. Thomas' church, officiated, and the interment was in Evergreen cemetery in the Albert Mallory lot. The bearers were Isaac J. Wild, Frederick S. Ward, William A. Pratt of this city, and Mr. Dawson of Winsted. The deceased was the son of Professor Barber, who died years ago, who was one of the leading instructors in piano music in this city for many years, and a man of high character. His son, Edward S., was for years clerk of the steamer New Haven, of the Old Line, and afterward was clerk of another boat of the same line. After concluding his services with the Old Line he took a similar position on one of the Hartford steamers. His health broke down about three years ago, partly in consequence of the death of his son, who was a promising young man of twenty-one years. His son's death nearly prostrated him. After recovering somewhat, he having left his position on the Hartford line, he engaged in the hotel business in Winsted. The venture proved too much for him in his weakened state of health, and he died this week as has previously been announced. He was a man of very high esteem and many in this city, the place of his birth and of his boyhood and young manhood, will mourn his death and cherish his memory. The deceased leaves a wife, who is a daughter of the late Albert B. Mallory, who was a prominent New Haven man, who resided for years on Whalley avenue and who was a brother of the late Mr. Mallory, who was for years the head of the Mallory lock factory in the palm-leaf days of that manufacturing concern. The late Mr. Barber leaves a sister, who is the wife of Professor Sidney I. Smith of Yale university, and leaves a brother. The mother of the deceased, a lady of much advanced years, also survives him. She resides with Professor and Mrs. Smith and is in very feeble health, in consequence of which the funeral services were held at Mr. Burwell's undertaking rooms, as it was feared that the excitement of the funeral might prove fatal to her. The mother of Dr. Littlejohn of 312 Elm street in this city is a sister of the widow of Mr. Barber.

FUNERAL OF A CHILD.

Little Florence Evelyn Pritchard, the daughter of Silas P. and Emma J. Pritchard, died on Tuesday at their residence, 25 Garden street, aged four years and two months. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Christ church. The little one fell down stairs on Sunday and it was supposed that she received injuries which eventually proved to be fatal. She was attended by Dr. Converse.

Miss Blackman was attacked by black diphtheria and recovered. Shortly afterward the throat trouble set in. The funeral will be held this afternoon from the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Barnes. Burial will be in Oak Hill cemetery. Undertaker Reinsch brought the remains here yesterday. Mrs. Blackman is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barnes.

Eight children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Grant, six of whom survive her as follows: Moses F. Grant of Norfolk, Lucy A. Coe, Mrs. Edward Manchester, Mrs. S. E. Grant of Winsted, Henry Grant of Milford, N. Y., and Miles Grant of Torrington. There are seventeen grandchildren and nine great grandchildren who survive her.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY M. PROCTOR.

Mrs. Mary M. Proctor died yesterday at the residence of her brother in Westville. The deceased was a well known nurse in this city, where she had resided for years, and was highly esteemed. She was the widow of Robert Proctor, who died twenty-six years ago and who was a captain of one of the White Star line steamers. ## TO-DAY IS GOVERNOR'S DAY

The "Cold Feet Trio," composed of Sergeant Krick and Corporal Tanner of the machine gun, battery and Hospital Steward G. K. Foster, were the recipients of several articles useful to them in carrying on their usual pastimes.

Several pictures were taken to-day of the various companies of the Second regiment, and more will be taken Friday. The weather has been excellent for this pastime, and a large number of soldiers have had their cameras out during the week.

The Grays ride of Tuesday has become a topic of the past, but there was nevertheless some talk on the matter yesterday.

This evening concerts were given by the different bands and were greatly enjoyed. The number of visitors was about the same to-day as yesterday.

(By Associated Press.)

Camp Van Keuren, State Military Rendezvous, Niantic, Conn., Aug. 23.—Even the ladies, among them being the wife of Governor Lounsbury, appreciate the fact that this is a dry camp, as was evidenced by a novel set of resolutions which have been presented to Quartermaster-General George D. Newton. Mrs. Lounsbury and the wives and daughters of several members of the governor's staff are stopping at the Niantic house and the first day suffered exceedingly from the dust, which blew in from the street in heavy clouds almost incessantly.

Niantic all this week has been a big dust-bowl and the highways have been inches deep with it. To make life more endurable for the ladies General Newton sent a brigade sprinkling cart down there, inasmuch as the town of Niantic claimed to be without funds that could be used for the purpose, and kept the street in front of the hotel well wet down. The ladies organized an anti-dust club, and at a meeting passed resolutions of a somewhat humorous nature and expressed their appreciation of the courtesy of the quartermaster-general, inasmuch as "so much more water is needed in camp this year." The resolutions were signed by Mrs. Lounsbury and the wives of General Atwood and Colonel Woodruff and Ullman.

Another brigade formation was held at 5:15 p. m., which was reviewed by General O. O. Howard, and in speaking of it General Howard stated that it was one of the most excellent he had ever seen. In the opinion of the general the fine appearance of the men was in a great measure due to the absence of liquor from camp. General Howard to-night spoke under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. on "Reminiscences of the Civil War." He was listened to by a large audience.

The excitement over the liquor question which marked the first days in camp has completely subsided, but the officers have in no way relaxed their surveillance. To-morrow, Governor's day, will bring throngs of visitors and no doubt many of the soldier boys will be the recipients of flasks of liquor, but the officers are determined that the riotous drinking which has generally characterized the last night in camp will not be in evidence this year.

Colonel Burpee was accorded the honor of commanding the Second regiment battalion in parade this afternoon. Sergeant Charles Hutchins of Hartford, who sustained a dislocated shoulder by being thrown from his horse, is again able to be about.

The time of the departure of the troops from camp Saturday has been arranged as follows: Third regiment, 12:40 p. m.; First regiment, 12:35 p. m.; Fourth regiment, 1:40 p. m.; Second regiment, 2 p. m.; battery, 2:20 p. m.

The guard-house still continues to maintain a somewhat lonesome appearance and the hospital corps have been requisitioned but seldom. The new water system established last year has been a great success and that, combined with the absence of liquor, is attributed to be the cause of the remarkably excellent health of the camp.

LORD ASSAULT CASE.

Officers Serving the Papers Did Not Qualify and Case Dismissed.

East Hampton, Aug. 23.—The assault case in which Hyron Lord was arrested charged with assault upon Mrs. J. M. Dickinson while ejecting her from his room on one day last week, came up before Justice Henry Austin in the town hall yesterday morning. The room being crowded with spectators. Town Clerk W. W. Hall testified that neither Constable John Day, who served the warrant, nor Grand Juror Charles Clark had qualified for their duties, having taken the oath, but never having received it. The case was immediately dismissed and the parties to it left the room. Percy S. Bryant of Hartford appeared for Lord and Charles Brown of Colchester for Mrs. Dickinson.

OUTLOOK BRIGHT IN MERIDEN.

The outlook is bright for a good fall trade in Meriden factories. This is the general opinion of manufacturers. The employees will have full hours during the entire fall, it is said, as many orders are being received calling for completion by the end of the year. The International Silver company is doing a good business for the month of August, the sterling department particularly. The Meriden Cutlery company is now filling a large government order for knives, to be shipped at an early date.

A QUICK APPEAL.

Noted Singer Has Application Quickly Drawn Up. Ericsson Bushnell, the noted singer, made a quick filing of an appeal in the office of City Clerk Norris yesterday morning. He came on to give notice of his intention to appeal on certain properties of the Bushnell estate. Mr. Norris couldn't accept verbal notice, so Mr. Bushnell left the city hall, that was at 2:20 o'clock, and at 9:45 o'clock he reappeared with a typewritten legal form of appeal, which he filed.

Invitations have been received here for the marriage of Edwin Hoyt Lockwood to Miss Elizabeth Kate Pendleton, which occurs Wednesday, September 5 at 4 p. m. in St. John's Protestant Episcopal church, this city. Cards accompanying the invitation announce their "at home" for Wednesday evenings during October at 79 Division street. Miss Pendleton is well known in this city and Meriden.
