PERJURY CHARGED IN
FAIR WILL CONTESTTwo Frenchmen Accused of Giving False Testimony.

PARIS, July 18.—Counsel for A. J. Moranne and Lucien Mas, the alleged witnesses of the death of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Fair, who were arrested on Wednesday on the charge of perjury as a result of information given to the judicial authorities of the Department of the Seine that their testimony was open to the suspicion of having been inspired by a party to the suit, have made a demand that their clients be set at liberty.

The provisional examining magistrate has decided to appoint experts to examine the reports of the American procedure, whereon the arrest of the witnesses is based.

Moranne and Mas gave testimony in New York before the referee in the contest over the Fair estate. The charge of perjury, according to the "Journal," was brought against them by Mrs. Vandervort, and the magistrate here, acting on instructions from New York, issued the warrants for their arrest.

The prisoners testified that they were the only witnesses of the automobile accident, but the "Journal" recalls that Mme. Hourdet, the wife of the janitor of the chateau in front of which the Fairs were killed, declared that she was the only person who saw the catastrophe.

DID WILD BEASTS EAT A WOMAN'S SLAYER?

PORT JERVIS, N. Y., July 18.—George Williams, while walking on Bald Hill, near Rowlands, Pike county, Pa., yesterday, found the arm and hand of a human being, attached to which were shreds of flesh and ligaments holding the joints. A portion of the bones looked as if they had been gnawed by wild beasts. No one is missing in that section, and searching parties are scouring the woods for more traces of the body. Many believe the arm and hand belonged to Edward Tronkle, alias Meyer, the murderer of Mrs. George Hayne, of Trowbridge, Toga county, Pa., on February 23, who was located in Birch Swamp, near Honesdale, Pa., in March last, and who, it was asserted, was shot by a young man named Hartman, of Honesdale.

POWERLESS FOR YEARS,
WOMAN NOW WALKS

YORK, Pa., July 18.—To the surprise of herself and her friends, Mrs. Leah Zeigler, eighty-seven years old, of New Freedom, who for fifteen years has been an invalid and powerless to walk, suddenly regained the power of her limbs and walked to the house of a neighbor the other day to pay a visit. When the neighbor, Mrs. Edward Peterman, saw the venerable woman approaching the house without the aid of others, she was overcome by surprise and thought that a miracle had been performed.

INSULTED BY CROWD,
WOMAN SHOTS MAN

POTTSVILLE, Pa., July 18.—John Lawler, of Donaldson, is dying at the Pottsville Hospital, as the result of a bullet wound one inch below his heart. Lawler, who is eighteen years of age, was shot by Mrs. Bessie Witmer, of Marshfield, while Mrs. Witmer was passing a crowd of young men, some remarks were made about her. Without any warning the woman reached in her dress, drew out a revolver, and fired point-blank into the crowd. Lawler fell to the ground, fatally wounded.

REMARKABLE RUMOR
OF PORTUGUESE PLOT

BERLIN, July 18.—A dispatch to the "Cologne Gazette" from Lisbon says that a number of officers of the First Portuguese Infantry have been arrested on the charge of conspiring against King Charles. The officers were tried by court-martial. Suspicions of a widespread conspiracy against the dynasty have been entertained for some time, the instigators being officers who were cashiered some time ago. Other regiments are said to be affected.

MILLS POISON FISH IN LAKE CHAMPLAIN

GLENS FALLS, July 18.—The water in Lake Champlain is soon to be examined at different depths by the State board of health to ascertain the effect of the discharge into the lake of polluted water from streams on whose banks are located pulp mills.

That the discharge of the waste chemicals into the water causes the death of large numbers of fish has been noted for several years.

INJUNCTION STOPS RUN
ON A STAMFORD BANKFidelity and Trust Institution Meets
Depositors With Court Order.

STAMFORD, Conn., July 18.—By an injunction issued by Judge Hall, of the supreme court, the run on the Fidelity and Trust Company, which started Thursday, because of disclosures in regard to the operations of the Interstate Trust Company, has been stopped.

New York depositors were on hand when the bank opened yesterday morning. They found the order of the court posted in the bank, and no funds could be withdrawn. The order was issued Thursday night, on application of the directors of the company. It enjoins the concern and its officers from paying out any funds for ninety days, except for running expenses.

Officers of the company declare that the institution is solvent, and add that if this were not the case they would have taken steps at once to close. Mr. Robert A. Fosdyer, president of the company, says:

"There is no reasonable doubt that every depositor in this institution has ample security for his funds, more than sufficient to pay the same. The company has no intention of discontinuing business."

STABBED PLAYMATE
WITH PAIR OF SCISSORSEight-Year-Old Boy Inflicts Painful
Wound on a Little Girl.

PHILADELPHIA, July 18.—Childish anger aroused by the actions of a playmate caused Edward Brennan, eight years old, of 2235 William Street, to stab Sarah Miller, nine years old, of 2217 William Street, in the hip this afternoon with a pair of scissors.

The children were playing on William Street near their homes, when the little girl refused to do as the boy demanded. Young Brennan drew a pair of scissors from his pocket and inflicted a painful wound on the hip.

Sarah was sent to the Episcopal Hospital. Later she was able to go home. Upon information furnished by her a policeman from the Belgrade and Clearfield Streets station found the boy. He was not arrested. His mother promised to take him before Magistrate Wagner this morning.

Prevent Investigation.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Members of the protective committee, with the assistance of the receiver, propose to conduct a searching investigation into the affairs of the United States Shipbuilding Company, according to statements made by Roland R. Conkling, chairman of the bondholders' protective committee.

Mr. Conkling declared that he had been approached with a view to settling his grievances against the promoters of the company and those who sold the bonds on what he termed "fraudulent representations."

"More than once," he said, "I have had the opportunity of selling my securities for every cent I paid for them, so that the investigation which we propose to conduct could be called off. I have refused, however, and my friend and I propose to find out what has been done with the money received by the Shipyard Trust from the sale of its securities."

He also requested the women and children of the American and other foreign colonies in Ciudad Bolivar to take refuge on the boats, to escape the dangers of the siege, the shelling of the town and a possible battle.

SAY COUNTERFEITERS
SLEW BARREL VICTIM

NEW YORK, July 18.—By the arrest in Brooklyn yesterday of six Italians accused of counterfeiting, United States Service detectives believe that light may be thrown on the recent barrel murder mystery, as well as upon an elaborate scheme to swindle Brooklyn merchants. It is believed by the detectives that Benedetto, the Italian whose body was found in a barrel on the East Side last April, was closely connected with a band of counterfeiters who have for some time flooded this borough as well as cities in New Jersey with spurious bank notes.

DON'T GET IN A SWEAT

Perspiration—"sweat" is what the Bible and we common people call it—is a way nature has of driving out of the body refuse that has no business there. We sweat more in summer, because, in the overheated bowels, undigested food ferments more quickly than in winter and produces irritating acids and gases. The bowels, overworked, try to relieve themselves by violent convulsions, causing terrible gripes and colics, and diarrhoeal discharges so acid as to make you sore, and leaving the intestines weak and worn out. Nature assists body-cleaning by sending the filth out through the pores of the skin. It is not safe to stop perspiring altogether but most of the impure matter should be sent out by natural movements of the bowels, and the offensive, ill-smelling, linen-staining sweat done away with. Keep your bowels strong all summer with the pleasant, candy cathartic CASCARETS, that clean the system and don't allow the excrement to be sweated out through the pores. Take a tablet every night, before going to bed. They work while you sleep and make you feel fine and cool all day.

Best for the Bowels. All druggists, 10c, 25c, 50c. Never sold in bulk. The genuine tablet stamped C. C. C. Guaranteed to cure or your money back. Sample and booklet free. Address Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York. 645
